Race Ethnicity And Entrepreneurship In Urban America:

Race, Ethnicity, and Entrepreneurship in Urban America Ivan Hubert Light, Carolyn Nancy Rosenstein, The authors have assembled a vast body of census data to address cutting edge issues in entrepreneurship immigration urban studies economic sociology and social policy In a novel research formulation they compare the 272 largest metropolitan regions of the United States in respect to the entrepreneurship of various ethno racial groups Such a method permits them to vary the local economic environment and resource profiles of all major categories Virtually all previously available data on these issues relied upon averages and overlooked inter local variation within and among groups Interpreting the voluminous data which summarize the economic behavior of 100 million people Ivan Light and Carolyn Rosenstein first explain resources theory a supply side formulation providing a complete review of the large theoretical literature on immigrant and ethnic entrepreneurship They then address the other major theoretical concerns in the existing literature of social science among them the interactionist theory of entrepreneurship and the possible effect of disadvantage upon entrepreneurship The latter issue an important and long standing one receives careful and decisive examination that eventuates in a theoretically elegant solution A final chapter discusses social policy The authors contrast liberal and conservative assumptions about entrepreneurship faulting both Locating entrepreneurship outside the usual framework of manpower policy the authors make a case for a supply side policy science of entrepreneurship that is neutral in political implication Light and Rosenstein then suggest how policy might proceed to integrate two generations of social science research Their closing discussion relates policy implications to the economic development of inner cities in America

The Life Cycle of Entrepreneurial Ventures Simon Parker, 2006-12-26 about nascent entrepreneurship distilled from recent research Wagner first summarises evidence about the incidence of nascent entrepreneurship before surveying the start up activities of nascent entrepreneurs He then goes on to provide a birds eye view of the characteristics of nascent entrepreneurs the factors associated with becoming a nascent entrepreneur and the outcomes of nascent entrepreneurs in terms of whether they start quit or continue preparing for eventual business entry Wagner's chapter provides a wealth of information about nascent entrepreneurship summarising key findings from a large and growing and diverse literature which looks set to continue growing rapidly in the years ahead In Chapter 3 Shaker Zahra reviews the literature on new venture strategy and its implications for organizational survival financial performance and growth Zahra discusses competitive cooperative and political strategies and highlights the importance of synchronizing these strategies A particular strength of this chapter is its ability to uncover similarities and unifying themes in apparently divergent views In this way the chapter succeeds in resolving some apparent contradictions by putting the different perspectives into a complementary context and identifying areas where convergence appears to be within reach Zahra goes on to highlight the contributions of the different strategic approaches as well as their shortcomings He concludes by identifying several implications for future research
