Archer, Jonathan Q. Tritter, 2013-04-03 Rational Choice Theory is flourishing in sociology and is increasingly influential in other disciplines Contributors to this volume are convinced that it provides an inadequate conceptualization of all aspects of decision making of the individuals who make the decisions of the process by which decisions get made and of the context within which decisions get made The critique focuses on the four assumptions which are the bedrock of rational choice rationality the theory's definition of rationality is incomplete and cannot satisfactorily incorporate norms and emotions individualism rational choice is based upon atomistic individual decision makers and cannot account for decisions made by couples groups or other forms of collective action process the assumption of fixed well ordered preferences and perfect information makes the theory inadequate for situations of change and uncertainty aggregation as methodological individualists rational choice theorists can only view structure and culture as aggregates and cannot incorporate structural or cultural influences as emergent properties which have an effect upon decision making The critique is grounded in discussion of a wide range of social issues including race marriage health and education The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian History Toyin Falola, Matthew M. Heaton, 2022 Thirty six chapters covering the history of Nigeria from prehistoric times to the twenty first century Accessible overviews of both the political narrative as well as the deeper histories of social organization identity formation and inter group relationships cutting edge analysis of key themes from highly respected scholars in a single forward facing volume Book jacket Window on Freedom Brenda Gayle Plummer, 2003-12-04 The civil rights movement in the United States drew strength from supporters of human rights worldwide Once U S policy makers influenced by international pressure the courage of ordinary American citizens and a desire for global leadership had signed such documents as the United Nations charter domestic calls for change could be based squarely on the moral authority of doctrines the United States endorsed abroad This is one of the many fascinating links between racial politics and international affairs explored in Window on Freedom Broad in chronological scope and topical diversity the ten original essays presented here demonstrate how the roots of U S foreign policy have been embedded in social economic and cultural factors of domestic as well as foreign origin They argue persuasively that the campaign to realize full civil rights for racial and ethnic minorities in America is best understood in the context of competitive international relations The contributors are Carol Anderson Donald R Culverson Mary L Dudziak Cary Fraser Gerald Horne Michael Krenn Paul Gordon Lauren Thomas Noer Lorena Oropeza and Brenda Gayle Plummer Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes
