Race No Peace Without Justice Churches Confront The Mounting Racism Of The 1980s:

A History of the Ecumenical Movement, Volume 2 Harold C. Fey, 2009-12-01 Volume 2 1948 1968 first appeared in 1970 It covers the history of the World Council of Churches from its first assembly at Amsterdam to its fourth assembly at Uppsala Sweden analyzes the development of regional ecumenical organizations and recounts the impact of the Second Vatican Council on the ecumenical witness of the Roman Catholic Church Historical Dictionary of Ecumenical Christianity Ans Joachim van der Bent, 1994-12-01 This historical dictionary covers the major trends in the 20th century ecumenical movement until today It deals with developments in the realms of church unity mission and evangelism laity women in church and society and many other ecumenical subjects It also covers many programs and activities of the World Council of Churches since its inception in 1948 The longer articles survey important theological themes while short articles provide quick reference on a precise question The bibliography is not exhaustive some 50 000 titles have been published since the beginning of this century but very helpful for major bibliographical information The dictionary is particularly strong in American subjects and includes a great number of ecumenical personalities which cannot be found in other reference works This publication is not only an indispensable tool of research for university and seminary libraries but also for individual persons belonging to whatever Christian church who are interested in knowing more about reflections relations and activities in the several regions of the ecumenical world A helpful description of the most important ecumenical assemblies and conferences is provided To take stock of the past to interpret the present and to look forward into the third millennium of Christian existence are exciting and challenging enterprises A History of the Ecumenical Movement Ruth Rouse, Stephen Neill, Harold Edward Fey, 1986 A History of the Ecumenical Movement, 1517-1948 Ruth Rouse, Stephen Neill, Harold Edward Fey, 1993 Race Barbara Rogers, 1980 Racism in church structures theological considerations economic aspects land rights Journal of Feminist Studies in Religion, 2004 History of the Church in Southern Africa: A select bibliography of published material 1985-1989 J. for judging ecclesial authenticity stand up to third world churches canons of orthopraxy As the world church becomes increasingly the church of the Third World what is the future of the ecumenical movement According to Tesfai third world Christians demand that ecumenism be judged by its contribution to the struggle for liberation in a hostile world He shows convincingly that the weight given to canons of theological orthodoxy makes much of the ecumenical dialogue of the past fifty years unappealing to Christians in the Third World Here the criterion becomes how dialogue and ecclesial life direct the followers of Christ to open up to a broader ecumenism that seeks to overcome injustice and to realize the full freedom promised in the gospel
