

Presumed Incompetent II: Race, Class, Power, and Resistance of Women in Academia

DESCRIPTION

The courageous and inspiring personal narratives and empirical studies in Presumed Incompetent II: Race, Class, Power, and Resistance of Women in Academia name formidable obstacles and systemic biases that all women faculty—from diverse intersectional and transnational identities and from tenure track, terminal contract, and administrative positions—encounter in their higher education careers. They provide practical, specific, and insightful guidance to fight back, prevail, and thrive in challenging work environments. This new volume comes at a crucial historical moment as the United States grapples with a resurgence of white supremacy and misogyny at the forefront of our social and political dialogues that continue to permeate the academic world. Contributors: Marcia Allen Owens, Sarah Amira de la Garza, Sahar Aziz, Jacquelyn Bridgeman, Jamiella Brooks, Lolita Buckner Inniss, Kim Case, Donna Castaneda, Julia Chang, Meredith Clark, Meera Deo, Penelope Espinoza, Yvette Flores, Lynn Fujiwara, Jennifer Gomez, Angela Harris, Dorothy Hines, Rachelle Joplin, Jessica Lavariega Monforti, Cynthia Lee, Yessenia Manzo, Melissa Michelson, Susie E. Race Power And Resistance:

Race, Power, and Resistance Chris Mullard, 1985 Om den omvltning der skete i det britiske Institute of Race Relations i 1972 Race, Power, and Political Emergence in Memphis Sharon D. Wright, 2021-12-12 Race Power and Political Emergence in Memphis examines black political behavior and empowerment strategies in the city of Memphis Each chapter of the text focuses on three themes mobilization emergence and incorporation By analyzing the effects of race on black political development in Memphis scholars will be able to examine broader questions about its effects in other cities How do political machines use substantial black electorates to their advantage What forms of protest do black communities conduct to rebel against machine rule What primary mobilization tactics have black citizens used during the different periods of their political development Why do blacks mobilize more quickly in some cities In cities with large and predominantly black populations what elements prevent black candidates from winning citywide races What constraints do newly elected black mayors face What benefits do black citizens gain from their representation After a predominantly black governing coalition is elected what obstacles remain Can black citizens translate proportional representation into strong political incorporation How much power can African Americans realistically expect to gain in cities This book is the most comprehensive case study of the city's political scene written to date The text primarily shows that white racism is not the only obstacle to black political development Black citizens can have population majorities but lose elections for other reasons Their ability to win elections and gain full incorporation depends heavily on whether they minimize internal conflict and establish coalitions with middle class citizens and the business establishment

Race Steven Gregory, Roger Sanjek, 1994 What unites these essays is a common focus on the social construction of racial categories and a desire to expose the exercise of racism and its intersection with other forms of social domination such as class gender and ethnicity Fascinating Multicultural Review The coming together of theoretical multiethnic and on the ground perspectives makes this book a particularly valuable contribution to the discourse on race Paula Giddings Timely and thoughtful contributes to our understanding of how race operates as a social process and in the contextualization of power and status Contemporary Sociology A treasure chest full of gems Virtually every article is fascinating and important and as a collection its impact is tremendous Neo conservative myths and fantasies fall like nine pins before its well researched and tightly argued papers Martin Bernal author of Black Athena A timely antidote to that reaction tome The Bell Curve Daily News New York Let's be clear from the start what this book is about writes Roger Sanjek Race is the framework of ranked categories segmenting the human population that was developed by Western Europeans following their global expansion To contemporary social scientists this ranking is baseless though it has had all too real effects Drawing on anthropology history sociology ethnic studies and women's studies this volume explores the role of race in a variety of cultural and historical contexts The contributors show how racial ideologies intersect with gender class nation and sexuality in the formation of complex social identities and hierarchies The essays address such topics as race and Egyptian nationalism the construction of whiteness in the United States and the transformation of racial categories in post colonial Haiti They demonstrate how social elites and members of subordinated groups construct and rework racial meanings and identities within the context of global political economic and cultural change Race provides a comprehensive and empirically grounded survey of contemporary theoretical approaches to studying the complex interplay of race power and identity

Race, Class and Education (RLE Edu L) Len Barton, Stephen Walker, 2012-05-04 One problem which continues to absorb social scientists is the way in which so much social deprivation stems from racial or class status The discussion in this book is developed in two ways firstly careful attention is given to an examination of the way minority groups create and maintain collective identities and action Secondly the relationship between this movement and such topics as racism in schools schooling unemployment and West Indian involvement in sporting rather than academic activities is analysed together with the nature of the educational experience of different class and gender groups through survey data interviews with formal organizers hip hop artists draws from the many black spaces both formal and informal to highlight what black consciousness looks like in Cuba
