Race Rules Navigating The Color Line:

Race Rules Michael Eric Dyson, 1996-10-17 Through painful examples drawn from within the black community sexual conflict in the black church the myth of the head Negro relations between black men and women he depicts our ongoing failure to break free of the rule of race

Race Rules Michael Eric Dyson, 1997-09-01 A noted African American intellectual uses examples from the Black community to trace racism in American politics media society and culture criticizing the hypocrisy of white liberals and whites myths of Black males

The Michael Eric Dyson Reader Michael Eric Dyson, 2008-08-05 Over the past ten years the work of Michael Eric Dyson has become the first stop for readers writers and thinkers eager for uncommon wisdom on the racial and political dynamics of contemporary America Whether writing on religion or sexuality or notions of whiteness on Martin Luther King Jr or Tupac Shakur Dyson s keen insight and rhetorical flair continue to surprise and challenge This collection gathers the best of Dyson s growing body of work his most incisive commentary his most stirring passages and his sharpest most probing and broadminded critical analyses From Michael Jordan to Derrida Ralph Ellison to the diplomacy of Colin Powell the mastery and ease with which Dyson tackles just about any subject is without parallel

The Handbook of Research on Black Males Theodore S. Ransaw, C.P. Gause, Richard Majors, 2018-11-01 Drawing from the work of top researchers in various fields The Handbook of Research on Black Males explores the nuanced and multifaceted phenomena known as the black male Simultaneously hyper visible and invisible black males around the globe are being investigated now more than ever before however many of the well meaning responses regarding media attention paid to black males are not well informed by research Additionally not all black males are the same and each of them have varying strengths and challenges making one size fits all perspectives unproductive This text which acts as a comprehensive tool that can serve as a resource to articulate and argue for policy change suggest educational improvements and advocate judicial reform fills a large void The contributors from multidisciplinary backgrounds focus on history research trends health education criminal and social justice hip hop and programs and initiatives This volume has the potential to influence the field of research on black males as well as improve lives for a population that is often the most celebrated in the media and simultaneously the least socially valued

Brown Gumshoes Ralph E. Rodriguez, 2009-03-06 Winner Modern Language Association Prize in United States Latina and Latino and Chicana and Chicano Literary and Cultural Studies 2006 Popular fiction with its capacity for diversion can mask important cultural observations within a framework that is often overlooked in the academic world Works thought to be merely escapist can often be more seriously mined for revelations regarding the worlds they portray especially those of the disenfranchised As detective fiction has slowly earned critical respect more authors from minority groups have chosen it as their medium Chicana o authors previously reluctant to write in an underestimated genre that might further marginalize them have only entered the world of detective fiction in the past two decades In this book the first comprehensive study of Chicano a detective fiction Ralph E Rodriguez examines the recent contributions to the genre by writers such as Rudolfo Anaya Lucha Corpi Rolando Hinojosa Michael Nava and Manuel Ramos Their works reveal the struggles of Chicanas/os with feminism homosexuality familia masculinity mysticism the nationalist subject and U S Mexico border relations He maintains that their novels register crucial new discourses of identity politics and cultural citizenship that cannot be understood apart from the historical instability following the demise of the nationalist politics of the Chicana/o movement of the 1960s and 1970s In contrast to that time when Chicanas/os sought a unified Chicano identity in order to effect social change the 1980s 1990s and 2000s have seen a disengagement from these nationalist politics and a new trend toward a heterogeneous sense of self The detective novel and its traditional focus on questions of knowledge and identity turned out to be the perfect medium in which to examine this new self Understanding White Privilege Frances E. Kendall, 2013 Understanding White Privilege delves into the complex interplay between race power and privilege in both organizations and private life Colonial Switzerland P. Purtschert, H. Fischer-Tiné, 2015-05-26 States without former colonies it has been argued were intensely involved in colonial practices This anthology looks at Switzerland which by its very strong economic involvements with colonialism its doctrine of neutrality and its transnationally entangled scientific community constitutes a perfect case in point

Contemporary Black Thinkers in the Diaspora and Their Conceptualizations of Africa Abdul Karim Bangura, 2024-08-24 This book contends that Afrocentricity and other ideas birthed by major contemporary Black thinkers in the Diaspora are wellsprings for helping to build a new Africa This book examines these ideas which have given rise to the Africanist Perspective on the Motherland to place Africa at the center of all intellectual discourses pertaining to African people everywhere while at the same time challenging the pervasive and pernicious Eurocentric myth of African people being inactive agents in history These contributions from a global range of scholars across disciplines examine the work of contemporary great Black thinkers as sources that can be employed to help in the construction of a new Africa Each chapter examines how these thinkers conceptualized Africa in their works with the main objective of delineating their conceptualizations to generate suggestions on how to rebuild the continent Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? Beverly Daniel Tatum, 2017-09-05 The classic New York Times bestselling book on the psychology of racism that shows us how to talk about race in America Walk into any racially mixed high school and you will see Black White and Latino youth clustered in their own groups Is this self segregation a problem to address or a coping strategy How can we get past our reluctance to discuss racial issues Beverly Daniel Tatum a renowned authority on the psychology of racism argues that straight talk about our racial identities is essential if we are serious about communicating across racial and ethnic divides and pursuing antiracism These topics have only become more urgent as the national conversation about race is increasingly acrimonious This fully revised edition is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand dynamics of race and racial inequality in America Plain Talk Volume 2 Corey Washington, 2010-05-24

White Reign Joe L. Kincheloe, Shirley R. Steinberg, Nelson M. Rodriguez, Ronald E. Chennault, 2000-03 What does it mean to be white in today s society Is whiteness an ethnicity White Reign tackles questions like these by examining whiteness as a cultural concept that our society has created and exposing the systems that teach us how we think about race including schools media and even cyberspace These essays examine the construction of white identity and the possibility of reshaping whiteness in a progressive nonracist manner presenting a culture of whiteness that can be employed by educators parents and citizens concerned with racial justice

Black Feminist Thought Patricia Hill Collins, 2002-06-01 In spite of the double burden of racial and gender discrimination African American women have developed a rich intellectual tradition that is not widely known In Black Feminist Thought Patricia Hill Collins explores the words and ideas of Black feminist intellectuals as well as those African American women outside academe She provides an interpretive framework for the work of such prominent Black feminist thinkers as Angela Davis bell hooks Alice Walker and Audre Lorde The result is a superbly crafted book that provides the first synthetic overview of Black feminist thought

Introducing the New Sexuality Studies Steven Seidman, Nancy L. Fischer, Chet Meeks, 2011-02-25 Breaking new ground both substantively and stylistically this book offers students academics and researchers an accessible engaging introduction and overview of the emerging field of sexuality studies

A Whosoever Church Gary David Comstock, 2001-01-01 This book features interviews with twenty black scholars and religious leaders who speak out from various theological perspectives against institutional prejudice toward gay and lesbian people The interviews are conducted in a conversational format in language that will be accessible and interesting to lay readers

The Broken Cisterns of African American Education M. Christopher Brown, RoSusan D. Bartee, 2008-12-01 The failure of American education to achieve racial diversity has resulted from the inability of educational researchers policy makers and judicial officials to disentangle the complex definitions that have emerged in a post segregated society More specifically the capricious aim of post segregated educational settings leads to the confusing and often conflicting interchangeable usage of terms desegregated integrated and diversity This ambiguity is further confounded by the imprecise definitions of equity equality and opportunity The proposed book will examine the role of language post Brown v Board of Education and the effects of that language on educational policy and practice He also examines how the fundamental implications of language within post Brown court cases in pre through post secondary education demonstrate the unspecified outcomes for desegregation and integration while concomitantly demand an educational continuum of equitable distribution The arguments will further interrogate how education policy and practices implicitly contain a scholarly roadmap to forge equal opportunity and access fifty years after Brown

The Quest for Community and Identity Robert E. Birt, 2002 This collection of essays engages two of the most fundamental social and political issues of our time community and identity Wrestling with the perplexities of these two issues within the Africana world the contributors delve into the influences of a postmodern world of globalization with outdated crumbling forms of identity and sociality In the wake of such an order new forms of identity and community must be established Birt has collected an informed group of contributors here who lay the foundation for a new approach to finding community and identity in the Africana world No

Partiality Douglas R. Sharp, 2002-01-01 Douglas Sharp explores the theoretical constructions of race including its psychological sociopolitical and socioeconomic dimensions Finally Sharp carefully weaves a theological model of racial reconciliation for a new humanity
