Race Sex And Policy Problems:

Race, Sex, and Policy Problems Marian Lief Palley, Michael B. Preston, 1979 Race, Class, and Education Kenneth J. Meier, Joseph Stewart, Robert E. England, 1989 While most school systems have undergone some formal desegregation to eliminate inequities in access to education inequities and discrimination nonetheless remain In this study covering 170 major school districts during the years between 1968 and 1984 the authors discuss the remaining obstacles to equal opportunity in education Clustering of students into separate classes or groups of classes based on perceived learning potential is one form of discrimination that remains disciplinary policy resulting in suspension or expulsion is the other Based on their findings Meier Stewart and England argue that the single most important factor in improving the access of black students to equal educational opportunities is having black teachers in the classroom a goal attainable through use of the political system In a very concise book Meier Stewart and England build a damning case against standard education policies as contributors to the resegregation of our schools In the process they give us an excellent example of what good policy analysis is by carefully blending empirical documentation with evaluation and prescription Mary Kweit Public Administration Review

Encyclopedia of Policy Studies, Second Edition Stuart Nagel, 2020-08-18 This entirely updated and enlarged Second Edition of a landmark reference text continues to provide comprehensive coverage of every important aspect of policy studies discussing concepts methods utilization formation and implementation both internationally and across each level of government Policy Discourses, Gender, and Education Elizabeth J. Allan, 2012-10-12 Despite over thirty years of activism and legislation to eliminate discrimination parity has yet to be achieved for women in academe This book describes policy discourse analysis as a framework for considering how those involved in policy making efforts may make use of discourses that inadvertently undermine the intended effect of the policies they set forth Allan illustrates the methods of policy discourse analysis by describing their use in a study of twenty one women's commission reports In so doing she highlights the important work of university women's commissions while uncovering policy silences and making visible the powerful discourses framing gender equity policy initiatives in higher education Her findings reveals how dominant discourses of femininity access professionalism race and sexuality contribute to constructing women's status in complex and at times contradictory ways This important volume will interest researchers across a number of disciplines including policy studies educational leadership higher education and cultural studies of education Beyond Race, Sex, and Sexual Orientation Sonu Bedi, 2013-09-02 The conventional interpretation of equality under the law singles out certain groups or classes for constitutional protection women racial minorities and gays and lesbians The United States Supreme Court calls these groups suspect classes Laws that discriminate against them are generally unconstitutional While this is a familiar account of equal protection jurisprudence this book argues that this approach suffers from hitherto unnoticed normative and political problems The book elucidates a competing extant interpretation of equal protection jurisprudence that avoids these problems

The interpretation is not concerned with suspect classes but rather with the kinds of reasons that are already inadmissible as a matter of constitutional law This alternative approach treats the equal protection clause like any other limit on governmental power thus allowing the Court to invalidate equality infringing laws and policies by focusing on their justification rather than the identity group they discriminate against

Gender, Class and Education (Routledge Revivals) Stephen Walker,Len Barton,2013-11-05

First published in 1983 Gender Class and Education is a collection of papers that formed presentations at the Westhill Sociology of Education Conference in January 1982 and is the fifth such collection to emerge from the annual conference The conference theme Race Class and Gender was not only chosen because of its topicality but also to provide a framework for debate between educational researchers and teachers The papers focus on the reproduction of gender relations through education and provide important insights into how this process works how it is resisted in schools and colleges and the possibilities for radical intervention This volume includes three teaching bibliographies on gender and education which were not presented at the conference but were compiled specially for the book

The Global Political Economy of Sex: Desire,

Violence, and Insecurity in Mediterranean Nation States A. Agathangelou,2004-10-14 At the intersection of the warmth of hearth and home and the dangers of the street lies the tenuous position of women engaged in reproductive labour those involved in the sex trade and those in domestic positions These are women who are vulnerable exploited and whose dirty work allows for the reproduction of traditional social mores and roles Yet while they are used to sustain tradition dialectically they reflect the hyperconnections of globalization through the migration of women the development of placement agencies that often are little but fronts for transnational crime and the transfer of money from the developed countries to the oppressed world This book focuses on the interaction of the global and the local through a close investigation of the political economy of desire and reproduction in three states that blur the line between developed and developing Greece Turkey and Cyprus These are countries at the crossroads in flux whose peripheral siting at the centre of global capitalism provides unusual insight into the dark recesses of patriarchy paternalism and exploitation

The Dynamics of Opportunity in America Irwin Kirsch,Henry Braun,2016-01-22 Across the country our children are beginning life from very different starting points Some have aspirations and believe they can be achieved For too many others aspirations are tempered if not dashed by the sobering realities of everyday life. These different starting points place children on distinctly different trajectories of growth and development ultimately leading to vastly different adult outcomes. How did we get to a place where circumstances of birth have become so determinative? And what must we do within communities and across our country to better equalize opportunity for more Americans both young and old? The editors of this volume contend that if as a nation we do nothing then we will continue to drift apart placing an unsustainable strain on the nation's social fabric and the character of its democracy. Consequently understanding the dynamics governing the distribution and transmission of opportunity and transforming this understanding into policies and programs is critical for not only the life outcomes of individual Americans and their children but also the country as a whole. The goal of Educational Testing Service's Opportunity in America initiative is to explore these powerful dynamics and to describe and convey them in a way that advances the national conversation about why we must take action and how best to do so. This volume contains 14 chapters including an epilogue written by leaders from a range of fields including education economics demography and political science. Collectively they not only illuminate key aspects of the problem but also offer suggestions of what policies programs and changes in practices could begin to reverse the trends we are seeing. Written in an engaging style this volume constitutes an essential foundation for informed discussion and strategic analysis.

Body Politics Nadia E. Brown, Sarah Allen Gershon, 2020-05-21
The politics of the body is often highly contested culturally specific and controlled and this book calls our attention to how bodies are included or excluded in the polity. With governments regulating bodies in ways that mark the political boundaries of who is a citizen worthy of protection and rights as well as those who transgress socially proscribed norms the contributors to this volume offer a systematic investigation of both theoretical and empirical account of bodily differences broadly defined. These chapters diverse in both the populations and the political behaviours examined as well as the methodological approaches employed showcase the significance of body politics in a way few edited works in political science currently do. Arguing that the body is an important site to understand power relations this book will be of interest to those studying the unequal application of rights to women racial and ethnic minorities the LGBTQ community and people with disabilities. This book was originally published as a special issue of Politics Groups and Identities.

The Integration and Protection of Immigrants
Paul Van Aerschot, Patricia Daenzer, 2016-02-24
In Scandinavian countries immigration is a sensitive issue and legislators approach to the questions it has raised has varied over the years. Whatever immigrant and integration policies are adopted in a democratic society it is clear that the legislation and the authorities have to ensure that the individual rights of the immigrants residing in its territory are respected. With Canada as a point of reference this book draws attention to weaknesses in the regulation and implementation of integration provisions threatening the immigrants individual rights in the EU member states of Denmark Finland and Sweden. The study challenges readers to critically review the meaning of rights and the notion of global caring. It takes a critical look at how vulnerable immigrants fare in a largely immigrant nation.

with a welfare capitalism legacy when compared to three European nations which claim to embrace institutional welfare models This book will be of great interest to scholars and decision makers interested in Scandinavian or Canadian immigration and integration policies Intimate and Personal Care with People with Learning Disabilities Steven Carnaby,Paul Cambridge,2006-05-25 This book examines aspects of care such as training ethnicity sexuality and competence in practice Topics include the nature of touch how physical contact is intended and experienced carers duty of care and risk management The book also explores management considerations of best value care standards performance monitoring and inspection Resources in Women's Educational Equity: Special Issue ,1979 The Political Economy of Total War Georgetown University. School of Foreign Service,1942 Interdisciplinary Approaches to Human Rights Rajini Srikanth,Elora Halim Chowdhury,2018-10-30 Interdisciplinary Approaches to Human Rights History Politics Practice is an edited collection that brings together analyses of human rights work from multiple disciplines Within the academic sphere this book will garner interest from scholars who are invested in human rights as a field of study as well as those who research and are engaged in the praxis of human rights Referring to the historical and cross cultural study of human rights the volume engages with disciplinary debates in political philosophy gender and women s studies Global South Third World studies international relations psychology and anthropology At the same time the authors employ diverse methodologies including oral history theoretical and discourse analysis ethnography and literary and cinema studies Within the field of human rights studies this book attends to the critical academic gap on interdisciplinary and praxis based approaches to the field as opposed to a predominantly legalistic focus drawing from case studies from a wide range of contexts in the Global South including Bangladesh Colombia Haiti India Mexico Palestine and Sudan as well as from Australia and the United States in the Global North For students who will go on to become researchers practitioners policy makers and activists this collection of essays will demonstrate the multifaceted landscape of human rights and the multiple forces philosophical political cultural economic historical that affect it Generations and Politics M. Kent Jennings,Richard G.

Niemi,2014-07-14 Kent Jennings and Richard Nieini arc recognized widely for their 1965 study of the development of political attitudes and behavior among a large nationally representative sample of high school seniors and their parents The Political Character of Adolescence Princeton Now they present the results of a follow up study of these same individuals in 1973 along with a fresh study of 1973 high school seniors Spanning a dramatic eight year historical period and an important transitional phase in the life cycle of the younger generation this material provides a unique opportunity to assess the development of political attitudes and participation Originally published in 1981 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Dark Side of Families David Finkelhor, 1983-03 This series of articles portrays the state of the art on family violence and abuse research crystallizes the key interdisciplinary issues confronting family violence and abuse researchers and suggests a research agenda for the coming years Although the chapters cover a broad spectrum of issues and controversies in the areas of wife abuse child abuse the sexual abuse of children and marital rape a number of common themes and issues emerge First many chapters share the perspective that violence and abuse emerge from the nature of social arrangements Second even though many different forms of family violence and abuse are discussed several chapters explore their commonalities and important etiological differences A number of articles examine the common effects of victimization across various forms of family violence and abuse A third common theme of the papers is an expansion of research efforts to groups other than victims of family violence and abuse as there are chapters that examine the individual and social characteristics of male perpetrators of both wife abuse and child abuse as well as chapters that focus on the attitudes and behaviors of professional groups concerned with the treatment of victims of family violence and abuse The volume shows great methodological diversity and attention to theoretical detail the research presented reveals the possibility of a more comprehensive social science approach to the study of family violence and abuse In work related to theory building one chapter explains a number of findings in the child abuse and neglect literature using propositions derived from evolutionary biology another paper distills propositions from several theoretical traditions In conjunction with these efforts several chapters report research designed to test competing propositions Chapter references and research data are provided Fair Insurance Practices Act United States.
