Race, Crime and the Media Robert L. Bing, III, 2009-10-12 Race Crime and the Media encourages students to think critically about the realities of the criminal justice system the media and race Through a collection of original readings that address the subject in a way that is balanced and provocative students will become aware about the power and influence of the media and the role it plays in the characterization of crimes committed about racial minorities This book represents an effort to draw attention to the intersection of race crime and the media by raising questions about the influence of the media on how we think

Race, Ethnicity, and Crime Dianne Williams, 2012 In addition to information on crime and incarceration rates White collar crime and the typical criminal the discussion of minorities and public perceptions is set within a broader context including the issues of terrorism and human trafficking where race and ethnicity are also vital to public perceptions The manual is designed for junior colleges and four year colleges including those offering distance learning courses It is a thought provoking combination of facts and questions The pedagogical focus is on collaborative problem based learning with foundational support for the development of critical thinking and analytical skills Each chapter includes vignettes featuring the opinions of experts in the field relative to the chapter being covered They are classic pedagogical tools that link theory with practice a good balance between theory and the real world The simple straightforward approach allows instructors to personalize their coverage of the material and the text uses extremely effective pedagogical approaches The Case Study Critical Thinking issues and questions approach at the beginning of each chapter is another important feature that focuses on developing students soft skills The objectives are clearly listed at the beginning of each chapter Chapter resources and key terms are listed at the end of each chapter The Controversy sections included in each chapter target analytical and critical skill development in students not to mention application of a current issue as does the In the news section which while making reference and applying theory to current issues forces students to apply theory and critically analyze issues The author attempts as much as possible to rely on facts and figures here deductive logic rather than on sentiment Since the ultimate goal is to encourage students to critique analyze and formulate their own opinions as much effort as was feasible possible was put into presenting both sides of each argument

The Color of Crime Katheryn Russell-Brown, 2009 Perhaps the most explosive and troublesome phenomenon at the nexus of race and crime is the racial hoax a contemporary version of The Boy Who Cried Wolf Examining both White on Black hoaxes such as

Susan Smith's and Charles Stuart's claims that Black men were responsible for crimes they themselves committed and Black on White hoaxes such as the Tawana Brawley episode Russell illustrates the formidable and lasting damage that occurs when racial stereotypes are manipulated and exploited for personal advantage She shows us how such hoaxes have disastrous consequences and argues for harsher punishments for offenders

BOOK JACKET Race, Crime, and Justice Shaun Gabbidon, Helen Taylor Greene, 2013-10-18 A comprehensive collection of the essential writings on race and crime this important Reader spans more than a century and clearly demonstrates the long standing difficulties minorities have faced with the justice system The editors skillfully draw on the classic work of such thinkers as W E B DuBois and Gunnar Myrdal as well as the contemporary work of scholars such as Angela Davis Joan Petersilia John Hagan and Robert Sampson This anthology also covers all of the major topics and issues from policing courts drugs and urban violence to inequality racial profiling and capital punishment This is required reading for courses in criminology and criminal justice legal studies sociology social work and race

Criminological Perspectives on Race and Crime Shaun L. Gabbidon, 2007 This is an examination of criminological perspectives that have been used to contextualise criminal behaviour among racial ethnic minorities Starting with a review of select biblical doctrines this text also examines an array of biological sociological cultural conflict social control and feminist perspectives

Race, Crime, and Justice: Contexts and Complexities Lauren Krivo, Ruth D. Peterson, 2009-06-02 To what extent does racial discrimination exist within the criminal justice system and to what extent is that inequality in crime and justice an outgrowth of structured societal inequality The empirical picture of racism and criminal justice is complex and although a large body of valuable research on the intersection of race and crime exists new and innovative research is needed This special volume of The ANNALS lays a solid foundation for that research This volume is organized into three broad sections that represent the types of emergent research from this network of scholars and focuses on patterns processes and consequences This volume of The ANNALS provides an innovative approach to understanding the ways that race ethnicity crime and justice are interconnected within the racialized U S society but it also fosters solutions to inequalities in the criminal justice arena Students scholars and policymakers will find this collection of cutting edge articles avoids taking a one size fits all approach to problems of inequity and offers meaningful and novel perspectives to this complex volume
