Race and the Enlightenment Emmanuel Chukwudi Eze,2001 Philosophy and the Mixed Race Experience Tina Fernandes Botts,2016-01-21 Philosophy and the Mixed Race Experience is a collection of essays by philosophers about the mixed race experience Each essay is meant to represent one of three possible things 1 what the philosopher sees as the philosopher s best work 2 evidence of the possible impact of the philosopher s mixed race experience on the philosopher s work or 3 the philosopher s philosophical take on the mixed race experience The book has two primary goals 1 to collect together for the first time the work of professional academic philosophers who have had the mixed race experience and 2 to bring these essays together for the purpose of adding to the conversation on the question of the degree to which factual identity and philosophical work may be related The book also examines the possible relationship between the mixed race experience and certain philosophical positions Encyclopedia of Blacks in European History and Culture Eric Martone,2008-12-08 Blacks have played a significant part in European civilization since ancient times This encyclopedia illuminates blacks in European history literature and popular culture It emphasizes the considerable scope of black influence in and contributions to European culture The first blacks arrived in Europe as slaves and later as laborers and soldiers and black immigrants today along with others are transforming Europe into multicultural states This indispensable set expands our knowledge of blacks in Western civilization More than 350 essay entries introduce students and other readers to the white European response to blacks in their countries the black experiences and impact there and the major interactions between Europe and Africa the Caribbean and the United States that resulted in the settling of blacks in Europe The range of information presented is impressive with entries on noted European political literary and cultural figures of black descent from ancient times to the present major literary works that had a substantial impact on European perceptions of blacks black holidays and festivals the struggle for civil equality for blacks the role and influence of blacks in contemporary European popular culture black immigration to Europe black European identity and much more Offered as well are entries on organizations that contributed to the development of black political and social rights in Europe representations of blacks in European art and cultural symbols and European intellectual and scientific theories on blacks Individual entries on Britain Spain Portugal France Italy Germany the Netherlands Russia Central Europe Scandinavia and Eastern Europe include historical overviews of the presence and contributions of blacks and discussion of country's role in the African slave trade and abolition and its colonies in Africa and the Caribbean Suggestions for further reading accompany each entry A chronology resource guide and photos complement the text Erasing Public Memory Joseph A. Young, Jana Evans Braziel, 2007 Based on the Race in the Humanities conference held in Nov 2001 at Univ of Wisconsin La Crosse La Crosse Wisconsin

Race, Romanticism, and the Atlantic Paul Youngquist, 2016-05-23 In highlighting the crucial contributions of diasporic people to British cultural production this important collection defamiliarizes prevailing descriptions of Romanticism as the expression of a national character or culture The contributors approach the period from the perspective of the Atlantic maritime economy making a strong case for viewing British Romanticism as the effect of myriad economic and cultural exchanges occurring throughout a circum Atlantic world driven by an insatiable hunger for sugar and slaves Typically taken for granted the material contributions of slaves sailors and servants shaped Romanticism both in spite of and because of the severe conditions they experienced throughout the Atlantic world The essays range from Sierra Leone to Jamaica to Nova Scotia to the metropole examining not only the desperate circumstances of diasporic peoples but also the extraordinary force of their creativity and resistance Of particular importance is the emergence of race as a category of identity class and containment Race Romanticism and the Atlantic explores that process both economically and theoretically showing how race ensures the persistence of servitude after abolition At the same time the collection never loses sight of the extraordinary contributions diasporic peoples made to British culture during the Romantic era

Hegel and the Third World Teshale Tibebu, 2011-02-02 Hegel more than any other modern Western philosopher produced the most systematic case for the superiority of Western white Protestant bourgeois modernity He established a racially structured ladder of gradation of the peoples of the world putting Germanic people at the top of the racial pyramid people of Asia in the middle and Africans and Indigenous people of the Americas and Pacific Islands at the bottom In Hegel and the Third World Tibebu guides the reader through Hegel's presentation on universalism to argue that such a classification flows in part from Hegel's philosophy of the development of human consciousness Hegel classified Africans as people arrested at the lowest and most immediate stage of consciousness that of the senses Asians as people with divided consciousness that of the understanding and Europeans as people of reason Tibebu demonstrates that Hegel's views were not his alone but reflected the fundamental beliefs of other major figures of Western thought at the time With detailed analysis and thorough research Hegel and the Third World challenges the central idea of Hegel's philosophy of history progress In addition Tibebu succeeds in providing a fascinating critique of the Western philosopher's rationalization of the gradual decline suffered by the people of the Third World in the context of modern world history

Kant and the Politics of Racism Jimmy Yab, 2021-09-11 This book proposes an account of the place of the theory of race in Kant's thought as a central part of philosophical anthropology in his political system Kant's theory of race this book argues is integral to the analysis of the Charakteristik of the human species and determined by human natural predispositions The understanding of his theory as such suggests not only an alternative reading to the orthodox narrative we have seen so far but also reveals the underlying centrality of the notion of human natural predispositions in a way that is consequential for Kant's philosophy as a whole What is the impact of Kant's racial theory on his philosophy and political thought Is Kant a consistent egalitarian or a partisan Universalist thinker Is he the symbol of racist prejudices of his time What is the influence of his racial hierarchy on his cosmopolitan right Or more simply is Kant racist From a systematic examination of Kant relevant writings this book provides answers to these questions and shed light on two fundamental problems of his theory of race for moral philosophy namely 1 the completeness of the character of the White race and 2 the dispossession of the character of the beauty and the dignity of human nature of the Negro race These two issues unperceived from the orthodox reading's perspective however uncovered by the heterodox reading not only shape Kant's race thinking from the beginning to the end of his life transform his cosmopolitan right into a non universalist form of right but merely define Kant as a fundamental racist thinker since he developed the anthropology the philosophy and the politics of racism in a systematic way
