Regional Arts Lottery Programme Research Report 3:

Managing the Arts in the Curriculum Michael Marland, Rick Rogers, 2002 This text gives guidance on managing and integrating the Arts across all aspects of a school it highlights the benefits of Arts education for the school and the community it represents British National Bibliography for Report Literature ,2002-10 A Changing Role for the Composer in Society Jolyon Laycock, 2005 Music is unique among the arts in its ability to bring large numbers of people together in a communal creative activity transcending social cultural and linguistic boundaries This book looks at many examples of composers working in schools community centres hospitals and other situations which are not traditional contexts for music Examples are taken from the United Kingdom as well as from projects from other places in Europe which participated in the EU funded Rainbow across Europe programme This study examines the development over the past hundred years of what has come to be known as creative music making and traces its spread in other parts of Europe and beyond It also shows how the composer's role has developed from the nineteenth century Romantic view of a heroic figure expressing his own inner emotional life in music towards a more socially conscious inspirational catalyst whose role is to stimulate musical creativity in others Research in Education ,1971 Resources in Education ,1998 Healthy Living Centres Geoffrey Purves, 2007-06-01 By exploring the design process this book looks at the relationship between the architectural and medical professions to see how the next wave of Government health policies can be best provided for The aim is to raise the quality of health buildings in the primary care sector Greater flexibility will be required as the medical profession moves towards a pro active attitude to Healthy Living Centres rather than the traditional reactive treatment to cure disease This is a hands on how to do it guide to satisfy changing policy objectives offering an up to date methodology to encourage a holistic approach to health care buildings which will be of interest to both architectural and medical professionals Building Culture: procurement of UK arts construction Walter Menteth, Bridget Sawyers, 2021-04-30 building culture describes how cultural buildings are conceived and procured through a review of data case studies and interrogation of the processes an invaluable resource for anyone commissioning arts and cultural buildings in the UK building culture is a uniquely comprehensive investigation that offers research guidance analysis of Covid impacts and recommendations for communities arts professionals commissioners clients architects project teams and policy makers for future best practice building culture contains Contributions by eminent architects competition programmers and a client Unique data analysis of the procurement processes of the sector Arts funding guidance and procurement analysis Resources and references building culture looks at the procurement data for 421 arts and heritage capital projects across the UK between 2013 and 2018 to establish what procurement route was taken what guidance was provided and by whom who were the consultants appointed some examples of best practice and some less good and lessons learnt Based on this evidence and previous research building culture then makes recommendations for the key funding bodies and those advising or undertaking arts and heritage capital procurement and projects In order to understand the landscape of arts and cultural buildings and their procurement it has also been required to understand the funding ecology and specifically that of the national arts funding bodies This is seen in the light of the current context as the sector responds to Covid Brexit austerity and the future challenges of a Climate Emergency Building Culture is a comprehensive survey and commentary of the processes and power of cultural development and its reach across the United Kingdom The authors then present some of the urgent and important challenges and issues of our time expertly framed through a diverse set of exemplar projects as case studies situated within the complex world of planning policy and funding regimes The result will prove an essential resource to students practitioners and others looking to understand the world of cultural development with all its many challenges and opportunities The recommendations the authors present to us here are central to a dialogue which is much needed about the values and principles needed for our society in the future Donald Hyslop Chair of Creative and Cultural Skills UK This in depth study of how cultural spaces are conceived and procured is hugely valuable to clients and design teams who often work in seeming isolation creating and adapting projects It is especially valuable as returning from the pandemic we can appreciate the strategic and symbolic significance of cultural spaces and their role in coalescing places and sustaining relationships between people The impressive depth and span of evidence gathered demonstrates how we could invest more wisely with a greater common understanding of the processes that prepare the ground for inspiring robust and sustainable cultural buildings The case studies demonstrate how this is done well Juliet Bidgood Architect and RIBA Client Adviser
