Regional Cooperation And Growth Triangles In Asean:

Regional Cooperation and Growth Triangles in ASEAN Mun Heng Toh, Linda Low, 1993 Growth Triangles in Asia Myo Thant, Min Tang, Hiroshi Kakazu, 1998 This book describes the triangle arrangement of economic cooperation that has emerged in Asia and discusses their potential and future prospects in the current economic climate Growth Triangles in Asia Asian Development Bank, 1994 A form of regional economic cooperation that has gained rapid acceptance in Asia during the past decade growth triangles bring together the resources of a number of countries to foster economic development in a region The papers in this collection focus on three cases the first brings Mainland Chinese Taiwanese and Hong Kong investment to the Pearl River Delta and Fujian province in southern China the second has developed on the borders of Singapore the Indonesian province of Riau and the Malaysian state of Johor and the third is planned for development in the Tumen River Delta on China's northeast border with Siberia and North Korea A product of the Workshop on Growth Triangles in Asia held in Manila in February 1993 this collection defines explores and debates the issues surrounding the establishment of growth triangles and makes predictions about their potential For each case there is one paper that addresses general issues while others concentrate on more specific concerns such as the role of infrastructure public policy or foreign investment The contributors are all regional scholars well known for their experience and expertise in the field China-ASEAN Sub-regional Cooperation Mingjiang Li, Chong Guan Kwa, 2011 Describes China ASEAN relations This book discusses and analyzes China ASEAN cooperation in the Greater Mekong River Sub region GMS the Pan Beibu economic zone ASEAN's growth triangles and the hydraulic power sector as well as China ASEAN economic relations in the wake of the financial crisis China-asean Sub-regional Cooperation: Progress, Problems And Prospect Mingjiang Li, Chong Guan Kwa, 2011-04-20 This book is an edited volume about China ASEAN relations with contributions from experts based in China and Singapore The book includes a few excellent papers that were presented at a conference the editor organized in October 2009 and also two other research papers They examine China ASEAN relations from a sub regional cooperation perspective The book discusses and analyzes China ASEAN cooperation in the Greater Mekong River Sub region GMS the emerging Pan Beibu economic zone ASEAN's growth triangles and the hydraulic power sector as well as China ASEAN economic relations in the wake of the financial crisis They carefully review the progresses that have been achieved examine new policy proposals that have been put forth and explore problems that exist in all these sub regional cooperation schemes between China and ASEAN Regionalization and Labour Market Interdependence in East and Southeast Asia Duncan Campbell, Asma Lateef, Aurelio Parisotto, Anil Verma, 2016-01-06 How can we account for the dynamic growth of East and Southeast Asian countries Much of the debate has turned on the question of the state versus the market as exclusive and often competing explanations of the successful performance of individual countries This book explores the distinctively interdependent nature of the East and Southeast Asian experience As firms create a regional organization of production the growing interdependence of national labour markets is one major outcome

Regionalization and Globalization in the Modern World Economy Alex E. Fernández Jilberto, André Mommen, 2017-03-16 Originally published in 1998 This collection of outstanding essays explores the importance of regionalization and globalization to the world economy International contributions explore the process of regionalization in the Pacific Area The Americas Africa and Europe and question whether the world economy is characterized by increasing regionalization rather than globalization The book is an excellent contribution to debate on development economics It investigates how the processes of globalization and regionalization driven by liberalization of trade and capital markets weaken nationally established monopolies and protected industries and it looks at the challenge to Third World nations and the countries of the former socialist bloc Globalization, Regionalization and Cross-Border Regions M. Perkmann, N. Sum, 2002-07-12 Cross border regions are newly emerging social spaces stretching across national borders Globalization makes national borders more permeable and leads to a rearrangement of economic and political interactions This is particularly pronounced within supra regional blocs featuring specific internal border regimes The ensuing opportunities are increasingly seized to create border spanning discourses and institutions This is illustrated in the book by a range of experts analyzing cross border regions in Europe America East Asia and Africa International Handbook of Globalization and World Cities Ben Derudder, 2012-02-01 This Handbook offers an unrivalled overview of current research into how globalization is affecting the external relations and internal structures of major cities in the world By treating cities at a global scale it focuses on the stretching of urban functions beyond specific place locations without losing sight of the multiple divisions in contemporary world cities The book firmly bases city networks in their historical context critically discusses contemporary concepts and key empirical measures and analyses major issues relating to world city infrastructures economies governance and divisions The variety of urban outcomes in contemporary globalization is explored through detailed case studies Edited by leading scholars of the Globalization and World Cities GaWC Research Network and written by over 60 experts in the field the Handbook is a unique resource for students researchers and academics in urban and globalization studies as well as for city professionals in planning and policy Regional Change in Industrializing Asia Leo van Grunsven, 2019-01-04 First published in 1998 this boo responds to the dynamics of Industrializing Asia and the behavioural changes of actors which in response to changing internal and external forces have given rise to and are constantly giving rise to alterations in patterns of growth From a geographical perspective these are expressed in regional change understood as a reconstruction of spatial organization The imperatives of dynamic comparative advantage changing global or regional competitiveness and regional competition faced by different actors entities or territorial units can be identified as important forces underlying and shaping regional change This volume provides further illumination contextualization and interpretation of the spatiality of the economic reality in Industrializing Asia as well as the role played by and the implications for different actors The objectives of this book are 1 to outline the processes of regional change linked to responses in the form of restructuring and integrative and regionalization tendencies as well as the realignment of the global regional local divide in production systems complexes and the operation of firms associated with reorganization of production in the process of maintaining and reconfiguring comparative advantage 2 to highlight the wide scope of the process by considering differential units of analysis linked to the agents and manifestations of regional change and the role of scale in terms of the spatial units involved 3 to highlight the implications as to the current and future position or role of differential actors agents particularly nation state in shaping the new economic reality in the region and as a corollary its positioning in the global economic order

The Legal Framework for International Economic Relations

Paul J. Davidson, Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, 1997 International economic law on the one hand and national economic laws and policies on the other form the borderlines of the playing ground within which the design for closer economic cooperation can be drawn Before anything can be done it is of utmost importance to know and study these borderlines This book is an attempt to set out the borderlines not only for intra ASEAN economic co operation but also for economic cooperation between that region and Canada by considering the legal framework for international economic relations within ASEAN and between ASEAN and Canada

Growth Triangles in ASEAN, a New Approach to Regional Cooperation Hiroshi Kakazu, 1997

Governance Innovations in the Asia-Pacific Region Gambhir Bhatta, Joaquin L.

Gonzalez III, 2019-01-15 Published in 1998 The debate on what constitutes good governance and more importantly how to attain it is not a new issue The elusive and pluralistic nature of governance ensures that much more needs to be studied about the specific incidence of good governance before a unifying theme on how exactly to develop a universal framework of application of governance can be finalized It is within this context that this book seeks to fill a vacuum in the theory practice dichotomy that it argues has dominated the debate on governance so far

The Economies of Southeast Asia Jose L.

Tongzon, 2002-01-01 This updated and revised edition provides an examination of issues of paramount importance for Southeast Asian economies such as the economic implications of the 1997 Asian crisis for both older and newer members of ASEAN

Regionalism in East Asia Fu-kuo Liu, Philippe Regnier, 2013-10-18

Regional cooperation and integration have emerged as key issues for East Asia following the financial crisis This book explores these issues and examines the degree to which a new paradigm is emerging It reviews the evolution of the concepts and practices of regionalism in East Asia and considers the factors which are shaping new patterns of regional co operation and integration It includes discussions of historical developments economic co operation socio political factors and defence and security It considers the role of those states including China and Japan which have distinctive approaches to international relations and assesses the role of regional international bodies such as ASEAN
