Wondratschek,2020-09-08 A legendary literary figure who initiated a one man Beat Generation in his native Germany Wolf Wondratschek is eccentric monomaniacal romantic his texts are imbued with a wonderful reckless nonchalance Now he tells a story of a man looking back on his life in an honest Portrait of the Artist as an Old Man Vienna is an uncanny magical and sometimes brutally alienating city The past lives on in the cafes where lost souls come to kill time and hash over the bygone glories of the twentieth century or maybe just a recent love affair Here in one of these cafes an anonymous narrator meets a strange character like someone out of a novel a decrepit old Russian named Suvorin A Soviet pianist of international renown Suvorin committed career suicide when he developed a violent distaste for the sound of applause This eccentric gentleman sometimes charming sometimes sulky sometimes disconcertingly frank knows the end of his life is approaching and allows himself to be convinced to tell his life story Over a series of coffee dates punctuated by confessions anecdotes and rages and by the narrator's schemes to keep his quarry talking a strained friendship develops between the two men and it soon becomes difficult to tell who is more dependent on whom Rhapsodic and melancholic with shades of Vladimir Nabokov W G Sebald Hans Keilson and Thomas Bernhard Wolf Wondratschek's Self Portrait with Russian Piano is a literary sonata circling the eternal question of whether beauty music and passion are worth the sacrifices some people are compelled to make for them A romantic in a madhouse To let Wondratschek's voice be drowned in the babble of today's literature would be a colossal mistake Patrick S skind international bestselling author of Perfume The Story of a Murderer Marines ,1994

In Search of Deeper Learning Jal Mehta,Sarah Fine,2019-04-22 The best book on high school dynamics I have ever read Jay Mathews Washington Post An award winning professor and an accomplished educator take us beyond the hype of reform and inside some of America's most innovative classrooms to show what is working and what isn't in our schools What would it take to transform industrial era schools into modern organizations capable of supporting deep learning for all Jal Mehta and Sarah Fine's quest to answer this question took them inside some of America's most innovative schools and classrooms places where educators are rethinking both what and how students should learn The story they tell is alternately discouraging and hopeful Drawing on hundreds of hours of observations and interviews at thirty different schools Mehta and Fine reveal that deeper learning is more often the exception than the rule And yet they find pockets of powerful learning at almost every school often in electives and extracurriculars as well as in a few mold breaking academic courses These spaces achieve depth the authors argue because they emphasize purpose and choice cultivate community and draw on powerful traditions of apprenticeship These outliers suggest that it is difficult but possible for schools and classrooms to achieve the integrations that support deep learning rigor with joy precision with play mastery with identity and creativity This boldly humanistic book offers a rich account of what education can be The first panoramic study of American public high schools since the 1980s In Search of Deeper Learning lays out a new vision for American education one that will set the agenda for schools of the future
