Delaware in Vintage Postcards Ellen Rendle, Constance J. Cooper, 2001-08-06 If a picture is worth a thousand words then the 200 historic views in Delaware in Vintage Postcards provide eloquent commentary on the First State in the early part of the twentieth century Capturing the era between 1905 and 1925 this charming retrospective takes readers on a journey from Selbyville and Fenwick Island to Claymont Arden and Hockessin and down the picturesque Main Streets of more than fifty Delaware towns Illustrated postcards which became popular at the turn of the last century highlight the economic importance of land and sea the state's varied architectural beauty and the everyday lives of Delaware citizens

America's Boardwalks Jim Lilliefors, 2006 This richly documented and illustrated tale takes readers on a journey along the edges of the country to 12 of its most famous beach towns to reveal the vitality of the American boardwalk as an idea rather than just a place

A Delaware Album, 1900-1930 George David Miller, 2011-04-15 A Delaware Album 1900 1930 contains over 300 postcard photographs from the entire state taken during the period from 1900 to 1930 Arranged by subjects City and Town Views Delaware Beaches Amusements Industry and Agriculture Signs of the Times Trains Trolleys and Automobiles Water Transportation Schools Religion Businesses Hotels and Motels each photo has a caption ranging from a sentence or two to several paragraphs The book's introduction details how the cards were produced analyzes the subject matter depicted on the cards documents the history of several of the most prominent local photographers in the state whose work is found almost only on postcards and traces the evolution and popularization of postcard photography Through the photographs readers can witness the development of Delaware agriculture and fisheries the expansion of the railroad into southern Delaware the declining days of steamship service on Delaware rivers and creeks the fate of Middletown's last trolley and Delaware's unsuccessful campaign against King Alcohol They can see how Delawareans worshiped worked and shopped They can visit local amusement parks and beaches from New Castle county to Sussex county For the early decades of the twentieth century the postcard recorded every aspect of American life As local historians will tell you the photographic record of small town America during the period from 1900 to 1930 exists almost only on postcards That is why historical societies libraries and museums have begun to amass postcard collections In the last twenty years historians and scholars have increasingly turned to the postcard as a way of seeing what our past literally looked like what we enjoyed doing where we worked and played how we viewed one other what we thought was important and what prejudices we held

Smith,1999 In this companion to his book Greetings from Baltimore Bert Smith takes us on a tour of summers past in Ocean City Maryland and the nearby Delaware beaches where vacationers have been going for more than a century to find sun surf and souvenirs Down the Ocean offers a wonderful selection of charming postcard scenes of the early days of these resort towns when visitors held tight to safety lines and bravely entered the water dressed in heavy woolen bathing suits It also takes us through the decades that followed when automobiles and the Chesapeake Bay Bridge made jaunts to the ocean more convenient and brought changes that transformed the mid Atlantic coast Accompanied by Bert Smith s engaging account of local history and lore the images assembled here document not just the appearance of beach towns but also the feel of beach life from years gone by Some postcards from the first half of the twentieth century were individually hand colored and many display photographic tricks illustrated embellishments humorous cartoons or unique design elements making them far more evocative than mere snapshots These postcards capture views of Ocean City s grand hotels of the past such as the Atlantic the Plimhimmon the Stephen Decatur and the Commander as well as smaller cottages motels and boardwalk businesses Many of these structures have been destroyed by fires storms or the ravages of time others have been altered beyond recognition or replaced by condominiums Whether you seek saltwater taffy a carousel ride a moonlight stroll on the boardwalk or a quiet view of a historic lighthouse you ll find it all then as now down the ocean Some of thehappiest postcards are those saved or sent from our summer vacations at the ocean With bright or faded images of the beach and sun and short messages like the weather s hot the water s cold and the fish are biting these colorful souvenirs can instantly take us back to warm breezes hot sand between our toes and the smell of french fries and fresh saltwater taffy You can almost hear the ragtime pianos of the pre World War I years as you turn over a softly colored card of the old Atlantic Hotel and read the greeting put down in an elegant flourishing hand in real ink that flowed from a fountain pen in 1910 or imagine crowds jitterbugging to the joyful jive and swing of the big bands in the 1940s when you see a glowing technicolor linen textured card of Rehoboth Avenue with its wartime message hurriedly scribbled in pencil from the Introduction
