Rereading German History Richard Evans, 2002-11-01 In this text the author draws together his review essays on the political economic cultural and social history of Germany through war and reunification This book provides a study of how historians mainly German American British and French have provided a series of differing and often conflicting readings of the German past in recent years It also presents a reconsideration of German history in the light of the recent decline and fall of the German Democratic Republic collapse of the Berlin Wall and the reunification of Germany Rereading Personal Narrative and Life Course Brian Schiff, 2014-09-25 This volume reflects on the place of narrative interpretation in life course developmental theory Featuring exciting chapters by the leading figures in narrative psychology it provides insights on the narrative character in early childhood adolescence emerging adulthood midlife and old age Read together the chapters form a comprehensive description of narratives origins in childhood conversations and the multiple uses that narrative is used as lives unfold over developmental and historical time A touchstone text in human development it is a way for psychologists to rethink their approach to development through the lens of a narrative perspective that is sensitive to interpretation and context in human lives This is the 145th volume in this Jossey Bass series New Directions for Child and Adolescent Development Its mission is to provide scientific and scholarly presentations on cutting edge issues and concepts in this subject area Each volume focuses on a specific new direction or research topic and is edited by experts from that field

Rereading the Conquest James Krippner-Martínez,2010-11-01 Combining social history with literary criticism James Krippner Mart nez shows how a historiographically sensitive rereading of contemporaneous documents concerning the sixteenth century Spanish conquest and evangelization of Michoac n and of later writings using them can challenge traditional celebratory interpretations of missionary activity in early colonial Mexico The book offers a fresh look at religion politics and the writing of history by employing a poststructuralist method that engages the exclusions as well as the content of the historical record The moments of doubt contradiction and ambiguity thereby uncovered lead to deconstructing a coherent conquest narrative that continues to resonate in our present age Part I The Politics of Conquest deals with primary sources compiled from 1521 to 1565 Krippner Mart nez here examines the execution of Cazonci the indigenous ruler of Michoac n as recounted in the trial record produced by his executioners explores the missionary Indian encounter as revealed in the Relaci n de Michoac n and assesses the writings of Michoac n s first bishop the legendary Vasco de Quiroga and their complex interplay of authoritarian paternalism and reformist hope Part II Reflections looks at how the memory of these historical figures is represented in later eras A key text for this discussion is the Cr nica de Michoac n written in the late eighteenth century by the Franciscan intellectual Pablo de Beaumont Krippner Mart nez concludes with a critique of the debate that initiated his investigation the controversy between Latin Americans and Europeans over the colonialist legacy beginning with the Latin American Bishops Conference in 1992
