Reinterpreting Curriculum Research Images And Arguments:

Re-interpreting Curriculum Research Geoffrey Milburn, Ivor Goodson, 1989 Removing the Margins George Jerry Sefa Dei, 2000 Removing the Margins works to identify and challenge many of the cultural and systematic paradigms that perpetuate racism and other forms of oppression in mainstream schooling The authors pursue the ideal that education should not simply affirm the status quo but should produce knowledge for social action This philosophical and theoretical resource also moves beyond the study of educational failure to explore the new and creative ways schooling barriers have been confronted The focus is placed on the factors of representation family and community staff equity language integration and spirituality as fundamental to school reform Removing the Margins is the product of five years of research and writing in the search for best practices in inclusive education The authors address the philosophical and theoretical bases for inclusivity in this book while laying out the practical approach in the accompanying volume Inclusive Schooling A Teacher's Guide to Removing the Margins Understanding Children's Development Anne B. Smith, Keith Ballard, 1998 This fully revised and updated edition of a fundamental New Zealand psychology text examines how and why children develop and how they are influenced by the people and events in their lives Discussed are theories of development and learning the importance of early experience intelligence and assessment and the family The development of social behavior gender roles language and thinking are also covered The question of mainstreaming the integration of children with special educational needs into regular preschools and classrooms is also debated There is a strong emphasis on local conditions and the New Zealand historical and social context This new edition addresses the important issue of giving children themselves a voice in order to better understand their development and to involve them in decisions about their lives Discipline, Moral Regulation, and Schooling Kate Rousmaniere, Kari Dehli, Ning De Coninck Smith, 2013-10-15 This collection of essays on the social history of disciplinary practices in education in North America Northern Europe and Colonial Bengal coverage upon an understanding that schools regulate the behavior of beliefs of students teachers and parents by enforcing certain disciplinary social norms

Understanding Curriculum William F. Pinar, 1995 Perhaps not since Ralph Tyler's 1949 Basic Principles of Curriculum and Instruction has a book communicated the field as completely as Understanding Curriculum From historical discourses to breaking developments in feminist poststructuralist and racial theory including chapters on political theory phenomenology aesthetics theology international developments and a lengthy chapter on institutional concerns the American curriculum field is here It will be an indispensable textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses alike International Handbook of Virtual Learning Environments Joel Weiss, Jason Nolan, Jeremy Hunsinger, Peter Trifonas, 2007-11-24 Three issues are explored and used as organizers for The International Handbook of Virtual Learning Environments First a distinction is made between virtual learning and learning virtually Second since the focus is on learning an educational framework is developed as a means of bringing coherence to the available literature Third learning is defined broadly as a process of knowledge creation for transforming experience to reflect different facets of the curriculum of life The Handbook is divided into four sections Foundations of Virtual Learning Environments Schooling Professional Learning and Knowledge Management Out of School Learning Environments and Challenges for Virtual Learning Environments A variety of chapters representing different academic and professional fields are included These chapters cover topics ranging from philosophical perspectives historical sociological political and educational analyses case studies from practical and research settings as well as several provocative classics originally published in other settings

Liberalism and Hegemony Jean-Francois Constant, Michel Ducharme, 2009-04-07 In 2000 Ian McKay a highly respected historian at Queen's University published an article in the Canadian Historical Review entitled The Liberal Order Framework A Prospectus for a Reconnaissance of Canadian History Written to address a crisis in Canadian history this detailed programmatic and well argued article had an immediate impact on the field Proposing that Canadian history should be mapped through a process of reconnaissance and that the Canadian state should be understood as a project of liberal rule in North America the essay prompted debate immediately upon publication Liberalism and Hegemony assembles some of Canada's finest historians to continue the debate sparked by McKay's essay The essays collected here explore the possibilities and limits presented by The Liberal Order Framework for various segments of Canadian history and within them the paramount influence of liberalism throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries is debated in the context of aboriginal history environmental history the history of the family the development of political thought and ideas and municipal governance Like McKay's The Liberal Order Framework which is included in this volume with a response to recent criticism Liberalism and Hegemony is a fascinating foray into current historical thought and provides the historical community with a book that will act both as a reference and a guide for future research

Teachers and the State Mike Bottery, Nigel Wright, 2002-11-01 This book examines the status of training and continuing professional development of teachers on a national and international level The authors argue that teachers need to feel that they are part of an empowering professionalism in which their work has an effect on the abilities of students and where they play a valuable role in shaping the direction of future society

Drama Education in the Lives of Girls Kathleen Gallagher, 2001-01-01 Through drama girls can explore their particular sexual cultural ethnic and class based identities Gallagher's research offers pedagogical alternatives in an increasingly mechanistic and disempowering period in education

Key Concepts for Understanding Curriculum Colin J. Marsh, 2004 Key Concepts for Understanding Curriculum originally published in 1992 includes 21 key topics in the field and is divided into six sections including curriculum planning and development curriculum management teaching perspectives collaborative involvement in curriculum and curriculum ideology

Research In Physical Educ.& Sp Andrew Sparkes, 2012-10-12 The text aims to provide an in depth exploration of a range of traditions that are beginning to reshape the nature of research in physical education and the sports sciences The chapters are all original contributions by leading scholars that bring together new data from a variety of research approaches Each offers its own specific challenge to the orthodoxy that has dominated the field A range of traditions are considered by the contributors who provide specific examples from their own work that include phenomenology ethnography life histories discourse analysis feminist research curriculum history and action research These cases are highlight for the reader the basic assumption of each approach the significance of the understanding they develop and their potential for the future development of research in physical education and sport The forms of analysis provided should be of interest to a wider audience such as students of education and the social sciences It is aimed at physical education researchers BEd MED BSc MSc courses on physical education and sport and teachers of sports science

Provoking Curriculum Studies

Nicholas Ng-a-Fook, Awad Ibrahim, Giuliano Reis, 2015-08-11 Provoking Curriculum Studies pushes forward a strong reading of the theoretical and methodological innovations taking place within curriculum studies research Addressing an important gap in contemporary curriculum studies conceptualizing scholars as poets and the potential of the poetic in education it offers a framework for doing curriculum work at the intersection of the arts social theory and curriculum studies Drawing on poetic inquiry psychoanalysis phenomenology life writing and several types of arts based research methodologies this diverse collection spotlights the intellectual genealogies of curriculum scholars such as Ted Aoki Geoffrey Milburn and Roger Simon whose provocations inquiries and recursive questioning link the writing and re writing of curriculum theory to acts of strong poetry Readers are urged to imagine alternative ways in which professors teachers and university students might not only engage with but disrupt blur and complicate curriculum theory across interdisciplinary topographies in order to seek out blind impresses those areas of knowledge that are left over unaddressed by mainstream curriculum scholarship and that instigate difficult questions about death trauma prejudice poverty colonization and more
