Museum Marketing Ruth Rentschler, Anne-Marie Hede, 2009-11-04 Museums have moved from a product to a marketing focus within the last ten years This has entailed a painful reorientation of approaches to understanding visitors as customers new ways of fundraising and sponsorship as government funding decreases and grappling with using the internet for marketing This book brings the latest in marketing thinking to bear on the museum sector taking into account both the commercial issues and social mission it involves Carefully structured to be highly accessible the book offers A contemporary and relevant and global approach to museum marketing written by authors in Britain Australia the United States and Asia An approach that reflects the particular challenges museums of varying sizes face when seeking to market an experience to a diverse set of stakeholders audience funders sponsors and government A particular focus on museum marketing in the Information Age Major case studies at the beginning and end of each section of the book and smaller case studies within chapters The hugely experienced author team includes both leading academics and practitioners to ensure the book has broad appeal and is both relevant innovative and progressive in approach It will be essential reading for students in museum studies non profit marketing and arts management and marketing It will also be equally relevant for professionals working in and managing museums and galleries heritage attractions and ministries of arts

Exhibiting Patriotism Teresa Bergman, 2016-06-03 American nationalism patriotism and citizenship are proudly on display at historical sites across America but they are also contested and reshaped by visitors and their engagement with those places In Exhibiting Patriotism Bergman analyzes exhibits interpretive materials and orientation films at major US sites from Mt Rushmore and to the USS Arizona Memorial where controversy has erupted over the stories they tell about the past She shows how historic narratives are the result of dynamic relationships between institutions and the public and how these relationships are changing in an era when museums are becoming more visitor centered seeing visitors as partners in historical interpretation Drawing on film theory memory studies visual communication and visitor studies Bergman offers an important analysis for scholars and professionals in American studies museum studies public history and communication and media studies

Reaching and Responding to the Audience Stacy Klingler, Cinnamon Catlin-Legutko, 2013-04-16 Museums exist to serve their audiences This book describes how you can better relate to your audience looking at how small museums are engaging with and advocating for their communities We address marketing and public relations visitor services accessibility and easy ways to find out what your audience members think about and want from you

Museum Management and Marketing Richard Sandell, Robert R. Janes, 2007-04-11 Drawing together a selection of high quality intellectually robust and stimulating articles on both theoretical and practice based developments in the field this Reader investigates the closely linked areas of management and marketing in the museum The articles from established and world renowned contributors practitioners and writers at the leading edge of their fields deal with the museum context of management and how marketing and management practices must take account of the specifics of the museum and the not for profit ethos Key writings from broader literature are included and the collection of key writings on the investigation and study of management and marketing in the museum are of great benefit not only to those studying the subject but also to professionals working and developing within the field

A New Role for Museum Educators Elizabeth Wood,2023-06-26 A New Role for Museum Educators shows how learning happens in communities how volunteers and professionals approach their work the underlying principles and philosophies that guide the work of museum education and how these practices are always evolving to remain relevant Museum education in its most expansive definition is about communicating messages creating learning experiences and at its most aspirational promoting human development for people of all backgrounds abilities and circumstances This edited volume revisits the legacy of museum education practices reflecting on the changing context of community and the role of cultural institutions and provides insights into new directions that museums can take with a visitor centered mindset It provides foundational concepts around educational philosophies that guide practice applied methods and approaches for implementation and the ethos of an educational institution intended to support community learning and engagement that are essential to provide for the wide ranging needs of all audiences International perspectives from a variety of museums are considered including art museums children s museums history museums and historic sites science museums botanical gardens zoos and aquariums Chapters include thought provoking reflections on contemporary practices concrete examples from across the globe and useful tools for anyone working with public audiences Grounded in practice and informed by research this volume will be a go to resource for arts and cultural organization practitioners particularly those working in Museum Education It will also be essential reading for students of Museum Studies Education and related fields

Immersive Storytelling and Spectatorship in Theatre, Museums, and Video Games Kelly I. Aliano,2025-02-07 Immersive Storytelling and Spectatorship in Theatre Museums and Video Games is the first volume to explore immersion as it is experienced in all three of these storytelling forms the theatre museums and historic sites and video games It theorizes what it means for a work to be called immersive and how immersion impacts audience experience in each of these modes The presentation of story is deepened when it involves the spectator in an immersive way Author Kelly I Aliano concentrates on the central idea that the use of immersion in each medium allows the story being told to feel present for the spectator It puts them at the center of the experience making its events for and about them Throughout the book discusses how immersion is employed to make narrative feel more resonant and relevant for the audience Analyzing the impact of offering a first hand experience of story events this book looks at how immersive storytelling can highlight the ways in which we can interact with and shape our understandings of ourselves and our society as well as our histories and identities Ideal for students scholars and researchers of immersive theatre spectatorship museum studies and video game studies this is an innovative study into the power of immersive storytelling across three interactive mediums Museum and Gallery Studies Rhiannon Mason, Alistair Robinson, Emma Coffield, 2017-12-04 Museum and Gallery Studies The Basics is an accessible guide for the student approaching Museum and Gallery Studies for the first time Taking a global view it covers the key ideas approaches and contentious issues in the field Balancing theory and practice the book address important questions such as What are museums and galleries Who decides which kinds of objects are worthy of collection How are museums and galleries funded What ethical concerns do practitioners need to consider How is the field of Museum and Gallery Studies developing This user friendly text is an essential read for anyone wishing to work within museums and galleries or seeking to understand academic debates in the field Public History Thomas Cauvin, 2022-05-18 The second edition of Public History A Textbook of Practice offers an updated guide to the many opportunities and challenges that public history practitioners can encounter in the field Historians can play a dynamic and essential role in contributing to public understanding of the past and those who work in historic preservation in museums and archives in government agencies as consultants as oral historians or who manage crowdsourcing projects need very specific skills This book links theory and practice and provides students and practitioners with the tools to do public history in a wide range of settings This new edition reflects how much the field of public history has changed in the past few years with public history now being more established and international New chapters have therefore been added on the definition history and international scope of public history as well as on specific practices and theories such as historical fictions digital public history and shared authority Split into four sections this textbook provides approaches methodologies and tools for historians and other public history practitioners to play a bigger role in public debates and public productions of historical interpretations Part I focuses on the past present and future of public history Part II explores public history sources and offers an overview of the creation collection management and preservation of materials archives material culture oral history or historical sites Part III deals with the different ways in which public history practitioners can produce historical narratives through different media including texts fictions audio visual productions exhibitions and performances Part IV discusses the opportunities and challenges that public history practitioners encounter when working with different collaborators Whether in public history methods courses or as a resource for practicing public historians this book lays the groundwork for making meaningful connections between historical sources and popular audiences Museums Matter James Cuno, 2011 Powerful passionate and to the point this book is the product of a lifetime of working in and thinking about museums no museumgoer should miss it The book is an impassioned argument for what Cuno calls the cosmopolitan aspirations encyclopedic museums Inside the Freud Museums Joanne Morra, 2017-12-11 Sigmund Freud spent the final year of his life at 20 Maresfield Gardens London surrounded by all his possessions in exile from the Nazis The long term home and workspace he left behind in Berggasse 19 Vienna is a seemingly empty space devoid of the great psychoanalyst's objects and artefacts Now museums both of these spaces resonate powerfully Since 1989 the

Freud Museum London has held over 70 exhibitions by a distinctive range of artists including Louise Bourgeois Sophie Calle Mat Collishaw Susan Hiller Sarah Lucas and Tim Noble and Sue Webster The Sigmund Freud Museum Vienna houses a small but impressive contemporary art collection with work by John Baldessari Joseph Kosuth Jenny Holzer Franz West and Ilya Kabakov In this remarkable book Joanne Morra offers a nuanced analysis of these historical museums and their unique relationships to contemporary art Taking us on a journey through the site responsive artworks exhibitions and curatorial practices that intervene in the objects spaces and memories of these museums Joanne Morra offers a fresh experience of the history and practice of psychoanalysis of museums and contemporary art

CREATING GREAT VISITOR EXPERIENCES

Stephanie Weaver, 2012-03-15 Museum and other non profit professionals have begun to realize that the complete visitor experience is the key to repeat attendance successful fundraising and building audience loyalty Taking lessons learned by successful experience shapers in the for profit world Stephanie Weaver distills this knowledge for museums and other organizations which depend on visitor satisfaction for success Is your institution welcoming Are the bathrooms clean Does the staff communicate well Are there enough places to sit These practical matters may mean more to creating a loyal following than any exhibit or program the institution develops Weaver breaks the visitor experience down to 8 steps and provides practical guidance to museums and related institutions on how to create optimal visitor experiences for each of them In a workshop like format she uses multiple examples exercises and resource links to walk the reader through the process

Museum Practice Conal McCarthy, 2020-11-19 MUSEUM PRACTICE Edited by CONAL MCCARTHY Museum Practice covers the professional work carried out in museums and art galleries of all types including the core functions of management collections exhibitions and programs Some forms of museum practice are familiar to visitors yet within these diverse and complex institutions many practices are hidden from view such as creating marketing campaigns curating and designing exhibitions developing fundraising and sponsorship plans crafting mission statements handling repatriation claims dealing with digital media and more Focused on what actually occurs in everyday museum work this volume offers contributions from experienced professionals and academics that cover a wide range of subjects including policy frameworks ethical guidelines approaches to conservation collection care and management exhibition development and public programs From internal processes such as leadership governance and strategic planning to public facing roles in interpretation visitor research and community engagement and learning each essential component of contemporary museum practice is thoroughly discussed

Exchanging Objects Catherine A. Nichols, 2021-04-01 As an historical account of the exchange of duplicate specimens between anthropologists at the Smithsonian Institution and museums collectors and schools around the world in the late nineteenth century this book reveals connections between both well known museums and little known local institutions created through the exchange of museum objects It explores how anthropologists categorized some objects in their collections as duplicate specimens making them potential candidates for exchange This historical form of what museum professionals would now call deaccessioning considers the intellectual and technical requirement of classifying objects in museums and suggests that a deeper understanding of past museum practice can inform mission driven contemporary museum work Museum. Learning. Democracy Hadwig Kraeutler, 2023
