The Reinvention of Me Donna Anne PACE, 2018-03-07 Mum why didn't I go to school today can you take me please No Donna you're staying home with me Do you love me Donna Erm yes of course mum OK come with me Where are we going mum what you gonna do Just come with me At the very tender age of just 5 years old Donna became witness to unimaginable horrors whilst the rest of her family were out of the house On a weekly basis Donna was locked in a bathroom by her own mother who would make Donna watch her whilst she self harmed Donna lived in fear every day constantly thinking that perhaps one day she would become the wrist to which her mum's shiny silver razor blade would become accompanied with Time was to unravel that the events of Donna's childhood were to become the very foundations upon which the rest of her life were going to be built upon From childhood through to adulthood it became daily life for Donna to witness or endure psychological abuse by those who confessed their love yet made Donna their scapegoat Take a step into Donna's very personal open and sensitive account of her life journey so far and discover how she finally found the inner strength and courage to find her voice Donna Anne Pace is proud mum and lives in the South West of England Donna is currently working on her new global book project for female survivors of domestic abuse and is also a Social Justice Entrepreneur

The reinvention of Martha Lane D M Roberts , 2024-04-26 Martha is in a rut Her days are now that of a housewife and she doesn't like it Can the offer of a lifetime lure her away from her life partner or will the decision be made for her It's time for a change Martha Lane

Reinventing Richard Nixon Daniel E. Frick, 2008 Examining Nixon's autobiographies and political memorabilia Frick offers far reaching perceptions not only of the man but of Nixon's version of himself contrasted with those who would interpret him differently He cites reinventions of Nixon from the late 1980s particularly the museum at the Richard Nixon Library and Birthplace to demonstrate the resilience of certain national mythic narratives in the face of liberal critiques And he recounts how celebrants at Nixon's state funeral at which Bob Dole's eulogy depicted a God fearing American hero attempted to bury the sources of our divisions over him rendering in some minds the judgment of redeemed statesman to erase his status as disgraced president With dozens of illustrations Nixon posing with Elvis the National Archives most requested photo Nixonian cultural artifacts classic editorial cartoons no other book collects in one place such varied images of Nixon from so many diverse media These reinforce Frick s probing analysis to help us understand why we disagree about Nixon and why it matters how we resolve our disagreements BOOK JACKET

Chinese Language and Culture Education Chunyan Zhang, 2024-04-02 Against the background of the Australian government's strategic plan to promote Asian languages in schools this book is an innovative autoethnographic inquiry into what actually occurs in the implementation of a Chinese language and culture program in an Australian context Drawing on eight years of socio cultural and educational fieldwork in a primary school Chunyan Zhang examines complex fluid and heterogeneous daily teaching practices and the ways in which ideas of China are assembled presented and performed She asks the following questions What is China Where does Taiwan fit into the China depicted in a multicultural globalised classroom Can Chinese communism or Chairman Mao be avoided in teaching English speaking learners What kind of China is brought in here while what kind of China is being silenced and othered Through the partial connection between method assemblage and Daoist concepts Zhang develops a water like pedagogy in teaching She uses the knowledge flow model to examine the imbalanced knowledge flow within teacher student interactions From finding China as a hybrid assemblage to proposing China as method Zhang's investigation makes an important contribution to the sociology of Chinese language education This book is an essential and rich content resource for primary and secondary teacher education and research teacher candidates and educators in Chinese as a second language education

Fiction, Film, and Indian Popular Cinema Florian

Stadtler, 2013-10-30 This book analyses the novels of Salman Rushdie and their stylistic conventions in the context of Indian popular cinema and its role in the elaboration of the author's arguments about post independence postcolonial India Focusing on different genres of Indian popular cinema such as the Social Mythological and Historical Stadtler examines how Rushdie's writing foregrounds the epic the mythic the tragic and the comic linking them in storylines narrated in cinematic parameters The book shows that Indian popular cinema's syncretism becomes an aesthetic marker in Rushdie's fiction that allows him to elaborate on the multiplicity of Indian identity both on the subcontinent and abroad and illustrates how Rushdie uses Indian popular cinema in his narratives to express an aesthetics of hybridity and a particular conceptualization of culture with which India has become identified in a global context Also highlighted are Rushdie's uses of cinema to inflect his reading of India as a pluralist nation and of the hybrid space occupied by the Indian diaspora across the world The book connects Rushdie's storylines with modes of cinematic representation to explore questions about the role place and space of the individual in relation to a fast changing social economic and political space in India and the wider world
