Potocki, 1950 The Cinema of Central Europe Peter Hames, 2004 Analysis of 24 films including People of the mountains Ashes and diamonds Knife in the water A shop on the high street Closely observed trains Daisies Man of marble Colonel Redl The decalogue Dekalog Satantango The garden Alice directed by Jan Svankmajer The Cinema of Raúl Ruiz Michael Goddard, 2013-09-22 Raúl Ruiz while considered one of the world's most significant filmmakers by several film critics is yet to be the subject of any thorough engagement with his work in English This volume sets out on this task by mapping as fully as possible Ruiz's cinematic trajectory across more than five decades of prolific work up to his death in 2011 ranging from his earliest work in Chile to high budget European costume dramas culminating in Mysteries of Lisbon 2010 It does so by treating Ruiz's work with its surrealist magic realist popular cultural and neo Baroque sources as a type of impossible cinematic cartography mapping real imaginary and virtual spaces and crossing between different cultural contexts aesthetic strategies and technical media It argues that across the different phases of Ruiz's work identified there are key continuities such as the invention of singular cinematic images and the interrogation of their possible and impossible combinations Empires of the Imagination Alec Worley, 2021-01-05 The warlocks and ghosts of fantasy film haunt our popular culture but the genre has too long been ignored by critics This comprehensive critical survey of fantasy cinema demonstrates that the fantasy genre amounts to more than escapism Through a meticulously researched analysis of more than a century of fantasy pictures from the seminal work of Georges Méliès to Peter Jackson's recent tours of Middle earth the work identifies narrative strategies and their recurring components and studies patterns of challenge and return setting and character First addressing the difficult task of defining the genre the work examines fantasy as a cultural force in both film and literature and explores its relation to science fiction horror and fairy tales Fantasy's development is traced from the first days of film with emphasis on how the evolving genre reflected such events as economic depression and war Also considered is fantasy's expression of politics as either the subject of satire or fuel for the fires of propaganda Discussion ventures into the subgenres from stories of invented lands inhabited by fantastic creatures to magical adventures set in the familiar world and addresses clashes between fantasy and faith such as the religious opposition to the Harry Potter phenomenon From the money making classics to little known arthouse films this richly illustrated work covers every aspect of fantasy film Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg, 2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today's global arena
