Relationships In Social Service:

Relationships in Social Service Practice Thomas Keefe, Donald E. Maypole, 1983 Human Growth and Development in Adults Parker, Jonathan, Ashencaen Crabtree, Sara, 2020-05-20 Uniquely wide ranging in its coverage of key concepts themes and issues relating to human growth and development in adults this textbook explores the crucial challenges and transitions that adults negotiate in their lives It examines key topics and issues within professional practice with adults and their families covering a wide range of practice areas and fusing essential theory and research with practical application Drawing on insights and debates from across sociology psychology criminology and aligned disciplines this textbook is thoughtfully structured to provide an accessible and supportive resource Key features include chapter by chapter summaries case studies and practice examples active learning activities to consolidate knowledge a broad range of tools to develop critical thinking and reflective practice With a companion volume that addresses children and young people this is an essential tool for students and a valuable refresher resource for experienced practitioners Transactions of the American Hospital Association American Hospital Association, 1926 Compendium of HHS Evaluations and Relevant Other Studies HHS Policy Information Center (U.S.), 1990 Managing the Challenges in Human Service Organizations Michael J. Austin, Ralph Brody, Thomas Packard, 2009 The novel approach of this casebook encourages the student to determine how they would act and work towards a resolution of real world dilemmas Scottish Education T. G. K. Bryce, 2018-06-21 Interrogates the rise of national philosophies and their impact on cosmopolitanism and nationalism Creating an Ethical Framework for Studies that Involve the Worker Community , 2000 Compendium of HHS Evaluations and Relevant Other Studies , 1990 Reimagining the Human Service Relationship Jaber F. Gubrium, Tone A. Andreassen, Per K. Solvang, 2016-07-05 The traditional lines of demarcation between service providers and service users are shifting Professionals in managed service organizations are working to incorporate the voices of service users into their missions and the way they function and service users with growing access to knowledge have taken on the semblances of professional expertise Additionally the human services environment has been transformed by administrative imperatives The drive toward greater efficiency and accountability has weakened the bond between users and providers Reimagining the Human Service Relationship is informed by the premise that the helping relationship should be seen as developing in the interactive space between those who provide human services and those who receive them The contributors to this volume redefine the contours roles institutional divisions means and aims of providing and receiving services in a range of settings including child welfare addiction treatment social enterprise doctoring mental health and palliative care Though they advocate an experience near approach they remain sensitive to the ambiguities and competing rationalities of the service relationship Taken together these chapters reimagine the service relationship by making visible the working relevancies of service delivery International Journal of Child and Family Welfare (IJCFW) 2015 - Jrg 16 - Nr 1/2 Jana

Knot-Dickscheit, June Thoburn, Erik J. Knorth, 2016-03-16 The International Journal of Child and Family Welfare IJCFW is an official publication of the European Scientific Association on Residential and Family Care for Children and Adolescents EUSARF The journal is a multidisciplinary peer reviewed publication The International Journal of Child and Family Welfare publishes empirical papers including meta analyses and review papers dealing with issues related to all fields of child and family welfare and with issues related to child and youth care e g home based care family foster care residential youth care The journal is specifically interested in studies that focus on care and treatment processes in association with outcomes and effects these studies can generate more insights into how interventions work and what care aspects make a difference for vulnerable children and families

The Routledge Handbook of Global Child Welfare Pat Dolan, Nick Frost, 2017-02-17 In the context of the increasing global movement of people and a growing evidence base for differing outcomes in child welfare Routledge Handbook of Global Child Welfare provides a compelling account of child welfare grounded in the latest theory policy and practice Drawing on eminent international expertise the book offers a coherent and comprehensive overview of the policies systems and practices that can deliver the best outcomes for children It considers the challenges faced by children globally and the difference families services and professionals can make This ambitious and far reaching handbook is essential reading for everyone working to make the world a better and safer place for children Child Protection, Domestic Violence and Parental Substance Misuse

Hedy Cleaver, Deborah Cleaver, Sukey Tarr, Don Nicholson, 2007-09-15 This book draws on a wide range of evidence to explore the facts about the relationship between substance misuse and domestic violence and their effect on children and examines the response of children's services when there are concerns about the safety and welfare of children

Applied Ethics in Mental Health Care Dominic A. Sisti, Arthur L. Caplan, Hila Rimon-Greenspan, 2013-09-27 Discussions of key ethical dilemmas in mental health care including consent trauma and violence addiction confidentiality and therapeutic boundaries This book discusses some of the most critical ethical issues in mental health care today including the moral dimensions of addiction patient autonomy and compulsory treatment privacy and confidentiality and the definition of mental illness itself Although debates over these issues are ongoing there are few comprehensive resources for addressing such dilemmas in the practice of psychology psychiatry social work and other behavioral and mental health care professions This book meets that need providing foundational background for undergraduate graduate and professional courses Topics include central questions such as evolving views of the morality and pathology of deviant behavior patient competence and the decision to refuse treatment recognizing and treating people who have suffered trauma addiction as illness the therapist's responsibility to report dangerousness despite patient confidentiality and boundaries for the therapist's interaction with patients outside of therapy whether in the form of tennis games gift giving or social media contact For the most part the selections address contemporary issues in contemporary terms but the book also offers a few historic or classic essays including Thomas S

Szasz's controversial 1971 article The Ethics of Addiction Contributors Laura Weiss Roberts, Frederic G. Reamer, Charles P. O'Brien, and Thomas McLellan The Dynamics of the Social Worker-Client Relationship Joseph F. Walsh, 2021 While providing competent intervention modalities is vital for a social worker's success in direct practice, it is only part of what makes a social worker effective. Outcomes also depend on the social worker's ability to develop and maintain constructive relationships with clients. An essential book for social work students and professionals alike, The Dynamics of the Social Worker-Client Relationship details the many ways that such relationships can be developed with clients who display a wide range of presenting problems in many types of social service agencies. Each chapter focuses on a particular challenge that social workers may encounter in that process. These include boundaries, the use of self, the working alliance, relationship ruptures, special issues presented by children and adolescents, terminations and transfers, clients about whom a social worker experiences highly positive or negative feelings, the use of physical contact, the use of humor, working with psychotic clients, and the use of technology. In every chapter, graduate students provide case studies to illustrate how relationships can be formed and perhaps tested. Written in an accessible style and full of stories and examples, this book provides future social service professionals with the much needed insight into creating and maintaining professional relationships with clients. Helping Relationships With Older Adults Adelle M. Williams, 2016-06-29 Helping Relationships with Older Adults: From Theory to Practice examines the fundamental theoretical perspectives of the aging process with an emphasis on the healthy aspects of aging. Taking a comprehensive approach, author Adele Williams addresses various therapeutic methods as she highlights the strengths and resiliency of the older population. Exercises and case studies demonstrate key concepts and promote skill development by allowing students to experience the various challenges in the lives of older clients.

Strategies for Work With Involuntary Clients Ronald H. Rooney, 2009-01-28 Involuntary clients are required to see a professional such as juveniles on probation or are pressured to seek help such as alcoholics threatened with the desertion of a spouse. For close to two decades Strategies for Work with Involuntary Clients has led in its honest analysis of the involuntary transaction, suggesting the kind of effective legal and ethical intervention that can lead to more cooperative encounters, successful contracts, and less burnout on both sides of the treatment relationship. For this second edition, Ronald H. Rooney has invited experts to address recent theories and provide new information on the best practices for specific populations and settings. He also adds practical examples and questions to each chapter to better facilitate the involvement of students and readers, plus a section on motivational interviewing.
