Relationships Healthy Body:

Health and Illness in Close Relationships Ashley P. Duggan, 2019-02-07 Health and Illness in Close Relationships provides an integrated theoretical framework for understanding the complexities of health trajectories and relationship processes. It is the first volume to review and synthesize current empirical evidence and associated theoretical constructs from the literature on health and illness in close relationships across the social and behavioral sciences. In doing so, it provides a unique cross-disciplinary understanding of how health and illness redefine relationships. The volume also maps out an explanatory framework of how the pathways and processes of close relationships pose considerations for resilience and flourishing or, on the contrary, for relational and health decline. It will appeal to researchers and students across psychology, communication, and relationship studies, as well as to health professionals who are interested in understanding how health conditions can shape or be shaped by patients' close relationships.

99 Things You Wish You Knew Before... Falling in Love Brenda Wade, 99 THINGS YOU WISH YOU KNEW BEFORE FALLING IN LOVE is the answer to the question: what does it take to create lasting, satisfying love? Dr. Brenda, the author, reveals why the current 51% divorce rate should never be above 8.5%. Through clear, concise, entertaining stories, research, and personal experiences, she walks you through getting to know your future or existing mate, the nuts and bolts of love, insight, skill, behaviour, repair, and maintenance. Think of your job: people we need to invest at least as much time and energy into our love life as our career to keep it running smoothly.

Intimate Relationships in Cinema, Literature and Visual Culture Gilad Padva, Nurit Buchweitz, 2017-10-04 This edited volume is an inquiry into the representation of intimate relationships in a diverse array of media, including cinema, arts, literature, picture books, advertising, and popular music. It examines artistic portrayal of intimate relationships as a subversion of the boundaries between the representable and the non-representable, the real and the surreal, the visceral and the ideal, the embodied and the abstracted, the configured and transfigured. The essays focus on artistic mediation of intimacy in diverse relationships, including heterosexual, same-sex, familial, sibling, political, and sadomasochistic. The collection offers new interdisciplinary and multicultural perspectives on current trends in the study of popular representations of intimacy, representations that affect and formulate people's most personal inspirations, desires, and angsts.
