Religion And Ethnicity Minorities And Social Change In The Metropolis:

Religion and Ethnicity R. Barot, 1992-12-01      Ethnicity, Gender and Social Change Harriet Bradley, Steve Fenton, 1999-02-08 Ethnicity Gender and Social Change explores the social space occupied by both gender and ethnicity As recognition of the sociological importance of gender and ethnicity has grown so has the opportunity for exploring the intersections between them This volume brings together both theoretical reflections and new research in this key area For the sociologist this presents a conceptual challenge while for the individual it may present a series of dilemmas These are intriguingly traced out in studies which take us from Punjabi families in the UK to Surinamese migrants in Amsterdam to Hindu and Muslim women and Black nurses in Britain the African and Asian diasporas and gender identity in post Soviet Latvia      Multiculturalism and Minority Religions in Britain Malory Nye, 2012-12-06 A detailed case study of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness ISKCON in Britain The book studies the particular development of a new religious movement within the context of Britain and issues relating to minority religions place within a multicultural but still hegemonically Christian society      The Formation of Christianity in Antioch Magnus Zetterholm, 2003-12-08 And conclusion3 THE CULTURAL AND RELIGIOUS DIFFERENTIATION Introduction Constructing analytical tools A theory of religious differentiation Religion and value changing processes Muslims and religious change in modern Europe Pluralism and religious differentiation A theory of social integration Variables of assimilation The process of assimilation The assimilation profile a test case The use of acculturation Analysis Antiochean Judaism revealed Groups and factions Crossing the boundaries Antiochus the apostate Observing torah religious traditionalists      International Handbook of Urban Education William T. Pink, George W. Noblit, 2008-09-03 It is evident that urban education has become the central focus of educators at the present time In the U S for example almost one third of all school age children attend schools in large urban school districts It is in these urban schools where the diversity of cultures and languages is highest and where student learning is most problematic What has emerged from recent work to improve urban schools is the insight that there is no one size fits all panacea Rather we have discovered that the local context shapes in critically important ways what will be effective at the school level The universality of the problematics with urban education together with the importance of understanding the local or situated context of improvement interventions brings into sharp focus the importance and timeliness of an undertaking like the International Handbook of Urban Education An important focus of the International Handbook of Urban Education will be the interrogation of both the social and political factors that lead to different problem posing and subsequent solutions within each region An important question to be answered for example is what it takes in terms of resources political will and policy actions to improve urban education      South Asians in the Diaspora Knut A. Jacobsen, Pratap Kumar, 2018-08-14 This volume deals with a phenomenon of increasing global significance the South Asian diaspora In particular it deals with the role of religion The diversity of religious life in South Asia is remarkable and much of this diversity is replicated in the diaspora communities around the world The case studies in this book explore and analyse the social religious and cultural reality of people in the diaspora belonging to Jainism Buddhism Hinduism Christianity Islam Sikhism and Zoroastrianism and originating from four of the South Asian nation states India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The book highlights the religious diversity that exists in the diaspora communities both across the traditions and within the particular religions

Muslims in Britain Peter Hopkins, 2009-03-31 Following the events of 11th September 2001 in the USA and more especially the bombings on the London underground on 7th July 2005 and the incident at Glasgow Airport on 30th June 2007 an increasing amount of public attention has been focused upon Muslims in Britain Against the backdrop of this debate this book sets out a series of innovative insights into the everyday lives of Muslims living in contemporary Britain in an attempt to move beyond prevalent stereotypes concerning what it means to be Muslim Combining original empirical research with theoretical interventions this collection offers a range of reflections on how Muslims in Britain negotiate their everyday lives manage experiences of racism and exclusion and develop local networks and global connections The authors explore a broad range of themes including gender relations educational and economic issues migration and mobility religion and politics racism and Islamophobia and the construction and contestation of Muslim identities Threaded through the treatment of these themes is a unifying concern with the ways in which geography matters to how Muslims negotiate their daily experiences as well as their racialised gendered and religious identities Above all attention is focused upon the role of the home and local community the influence of the economy and the nation and the power of transnational connections and mobilities in the everyday lives of Muslims in Britain Includes contributions from Louise Archer Yahya Birt Sophie Bowlby Claire Dwyer Richard Gale Peter Hopkins Lily Kong Sally Lloyd Evans Sean McLoughlin Sharmina Mawani Tariq Modood Anjoom Mukadam Caroline Nagel Deborah Phillips Bindi Shah and Lynn Staeheli

Religion and Commodification Vineeta Sinha, 2011-04-13 Using the lens of visibility and materiality this book offers insights into the everyday religious lives of Hindus as they strive to sustain theistic devotional Hinduism in diasporic locations Relying on primary ethnographic data the book engages key thematic in the fields of material religion religion and consumption and visual Hindu culture

Family, Citizenship and Islam Nilufar Ahmed, 2016-06-17 A longitudinal intersectional study of migrant women this book examines the lives of first generation Bangladeshi migrants to the UK considering the dynamic relationship between people and place Shedding new light on a migrant population about which little is known the author explores the experiences of women who left rural homes to live in London speaking no English with no experience of local customs and having to adjust to what would now be dramatically shrunken family sizes within which they would act as bearers of culture and tradition Based on research spanning a decade Family Citizenship and Islam draws on qualitative interviews with over 100 women and examines questions of identity belonging citizenship and Britishness religion ageing care and the family With attention to the fluidity of the experiences of the first generation of migration women the book offers an alternative to much ethnographic research which often offers only a snapshot of a particular minority or migrant group as fixed and preserved in time As such Family Citizenship and Islam will appeal to scholars of sociology geography and anthropology with interests in migration and diaspora citizenship gender religion family and the lifecourse and the ways in which these different aspects of a person s life come together to shape lived experience

Explorations in the Sociology of Language and Religion Tope Omoniyi, Joshua A. Fishman, 2006-08-17 The Sociology of Language and Religion SLR is still in its infancy as a sub discipline in the macrosociolinguistic tradition It is therefore no coincidence that the editorial collaboration to produce its first definitive text Explorations in the Sociology of Language and Religion has involved Joshua A Fishman often cited in the literature as one of the founders of the Sociology of Language Tope Omoniyi brings to the collaboration an insightful and incisive critical eye for engaging with diversity in the treatment of language and religion Together as editors they have successfully midwived the birth of SLR The studies and debates contained in this volume revisit those themes that both of the contributory disciplines of Sociology of Language and Religion have common interest in The contributing authors explore new methodologies and paradigms of analysis that they deem appropriate for this interesting and complex interface in an attempt to demonstrate how the shared interests of these disciplines impact social practices in various communities around the world The ultimate objective of the discussions is to fashion tools for creating a body of new knowledge that supports the emergence of a better society Towards this end the authors have harnessed resources from varied geographical cultural linguistic and religious constituencies without compromising analytical depth In the process they have opened up new areas of sociolinguistic inquiry The volume is thus presented as a highly useful reference resource both for undergraduate and postgraduate scholarship

Orthodox Christianity and Contemporary Europe Jonathan Sutton, William Peter van den Bercken, 2003 This volume contains selected papers presented at a conference on Orthodox Christianity and its contemporary European setting The conference was held in England at the University of Leeds in June 2001 and drew together historians theologians philosophers specialists in theological education and political scientists Countries with an Orthodox Christian history were well represented as well as Orthodoxy in the diaspora and other Christian confessions by representatives from Western Europe and the United States and Canada The coherence of Orthodox Christianity and contemporary threats to its coherence formed one main strand for reflection but discussion also broadened out to consider the nature of religious tradition as such Part I of the collection brings together papers on such matters as identity nationalism globalization human rights discourse ecumenical dialogue and competing interpretations of what it means to be European Part II focuses on Orthodox Christianity in Russia and Part III on the traditionally Orthodox countries of Armenia Bulgaria Greece Romania Serbia and Ukraine The present collection is meant as a contribution to further reflection on Orthodox identity and relationship between Christianity and culture in Europe at the beginning of the twenty first century

fifth issue of the Interdisciplinary Journal for Religion and Transformation in Contemporary Society J RaT centers on the topic of religion transformation and sex gender The focal point will be on religious and cultural transformation processes and their repercussions on gender roles constructs and representations on the one hand and on sex and or gender transformations which are embedded in the context of specific religious traditions on the other Transformation is understood here as change alteration and reformatting The multifaceted connections between religion transformation and sex gender are concretized in an abundance of material and symbolic phenomena and are examined starting from different subject specific and methodical approaches The Transnational Family Deborah Bryceson,Ulla Vuorela,2020-12-16 Migrant networks in the form of families associational ties and social organizations stretch across the globe connecting cultures and bridging national boundaries The effects of this global networking are vast This book is the first to stand back and explore the impact Families living outside of their original national boundaries have had and continue to have a profound influence over the flow of people goods money and information More in depth perspectives reveal how immigrants face troubling issues of cultural identity economic change political uncertainty and social welfare From an examination of nineteenth century transnational families emigrating from Europe to the Ghanaian Pentecostal diaspora in Europe today this book combines broadly based analysis with more unusual case studies to reveal the complexities that immigrants and refugees must contend with in their daily lives What are the experiences of migrant Turkish women living in Germany In what ways has religion been hybridized amongst West African Muslim migrants in Paris What are the gender relations and transnational ties amongst Bosnian refugees Never has such a topic been more relevant Problems relating to immigrants and refugees situations in their adopted countries continue to grow This book wide ranging in its geographical and thematic scope is a highly important and timely addition to debates on transnational families immigrants and refugees Theorizing Faith Arweck,Martin D.

Stringer,2002-05-31 All but the final paper in this collection of nine essays was read at a June 1999 conference of the same title as the book held at the U of Birmingham UK The conference was organized by the Worship in Birmingham Project bringing together established scholars and research students to discuss the Routledge Handbook of Religions in Asia Bryan Turner,Oscar Salemink,2014-09-25 The Routledge Handbook of Religions in Asia provides a contemporary and comprehensive overview of religion in contemporary Asia Compiled and introduced by Bryan S Turner and Oscar Salemink the Handbook contains specially written chapters by experts in their respective fields The wide ranging introduction discusses issues surrounding Orientalism and the historical development of the discipline of Religious Studies It conveys how there have been many centuries of interaction between different religious traditions in Asia and discusses the problem of world religions and the range of concepts such as high and low traditions folk and formal religions popular and orthodox developments Individual chapters are presented in the following five sections Asian Origins religious formations Missions States and Religious Competition Reform Movements and Modernity Popular Religions Religion and Globalization social dimensions Striking a balance between offering basic information about religious cultures in Asia and addressing the complexity of employing a western terminology in societies with radically different traditions this advanced level reference work will be essential reading for students researchers and scholars of Asian Religions Sociology Anthropology Asian Studies and Religious Studies      Negotiating Boundaries in the City Joanna Herbert,2016-04-22 Using in depth life story interviews and oral history archives this book explores the impact of South Asian migration from the 1950s onwards on both the local white British born population and the migrants themselves Taking Leicester as a main case study identified as a European model of multicultural success Negotiating Boundaries in the City offers a historically grounded analysis of the human experiences of migration Joanna Herbert shows how migration created challenges for both existing residents and newcomers for both male and female migrants and explores how they perceived and negotiated boundaries within the local contexts of their everyday lives She explores the personal and collective narratives of individuals who might not otherwise appear in the historical records highlighting the importance of subjective everyday experiences The stories provide valuable insights into the nature of white ethnicity inter ethnic relations and the gendered nature of experiences and offer rich data lacking in existing theoretical accounts This book provides a radically different story about multicultural Britain and reveals the nuances of modern urban experiences which are lost in prevailing discourses of multiculturalism      Human Rights in Pakistan Sudhir Kumar Singh,2007 Provides an analytical and incisive account of various developments in Pakistani politics right from the declaration of Ahmadis as non Muslim and Pakistan as an Islamic state by Bhutto to the lease of life

European Muslims and the Secular State Sean McLoughlin,Jocelyne Cesari,2016-12-05 The institutionalization of Islam in the West continues to raise many questions for a range of different constituencies Secularization represents much more than the legal separation of politics and religion in Europe for important segments of European societies it has become the cultural norm Therefore Muslims settlement and their claims for the public recognition of Islam have often been perceived as a threat This volume explores current interactions between Muslims and the more or less secularized public spaces of several European states assessing the challenges such interactions imply for both Muslims and the societies in which they now live Divided into three parts it examines the impact of State Church relations Islamophobia and the war on terrorism evaluates the engagement of Muslim leaders with the State and civil society and reflects on both individual and collective transformations of Muslim religiosity      Handbook of the Geographies of Religion Lily Kong,Orlando

Woods,Justin K.H. Tse,2024-12-02 This international and interdisciplinary handbook offers a comprehensive and an in depth overview of contemporary research theory and practice in the geographies of religion in various parts of the world and with different populations The book showcases the major theoretical interventions in the field and the debates about the existential constitution of sacred space and what this means for secularization It outlines the most significant geographical themes related to these new developments with their implications for how to think about landscapes space bodies and worlds

The book also discusses the future of the field especially in the realms of encounters and ethics economies and markets institutions and organisations movements and migrations and media and mediums It also offers views from disciplines outside of geography including from sociology anthropology religious studies and media and communications which demonstrates the contributions of geographers of religion to wider intellectual conversations and debates

South Asian Christian Diaspora Selva J. Raj, Knut A. Jacobsen, 2016-04-01 The South Asian Christian diaspora is largely invisible in the literature about religion and migration This is the first comprehensive study of South Asian Christians living in Europe and North America presenting the main features of these diasporas their community histories and their religious practices The South Asian Christian diaspora is pluralistic both in terms of religious adherence cultural tradition and geographical areas of origin This book gives justice to such pluralism and presents a multiplicity of cultures and traditions typical of the South Asian Christian diaspora Issues such as the institutionalization of the religious traditions in new countries identity the paradox of belonging both to a minority immigrant group and a majority religion the social functions of rituals attitudes to language generational transfer and marriage and family life are all discussed
