Ensouling Language Stephen Harrod Buhner, 2010-08-23 The first comprehensive work on nonfiction as an art form Shows how nonfiction especially how to and self help can take on the same power and luminosity as great fiction Develops processes to reliably induce the dreaming state from which all writing comes Teaches the skill of analogical thinking that is the core perceptual tool for writers Explores the subtle techniques of powerful writing from inducing associational dreaming in the reader to language symmetry sound patterning foreshadowing feeling flow and more Approaching writing as a sacred art Stephen Buhner explores the core of the craft the communication of deep meaning that feeds not just the mind but also the soul of the reader Tapping into the powerful archetypes within language he shows how to enrich your writing by following golden threads of inspiration while understanding the crucial invisibles essential to the art of both fiction and nonfiction how to craft language with feeling and vision employ altered states of mind to access the writing trance clear your work by recognizing the powerful sway of cliché thinking and hidden baggage and intentionally generate duende that physical emotional response to art that gives you chills opens up unrecognized aspects of reality or simply resonates in your soul Covering some very practical aspects of writing such as layering and word symmetry the author also explores the inner world of publishing what you really will encounter when you become a writer He then shows how to develop a powerful and engaging book proposal based on understanding the proposal as a work of fiction the map is never the territory nor is the proposal the book that it will become This book written using all the techniques discussed within it offers a powerful experiential journey into the heart of writing It does for nonfiction what John Gardner's books on writing did for fiction It is one of the most significant works on writing published in our time Wilhelm Ostwald Robert Smail Jack,Fritz Scholz,2017-01-25 This book is the translated and commented autobiography of Wilhelm Ostwald 1853 1932 who won the Nobel Prize for Chemistry in 1909 It is the first translation of the German original version Lebenslinien Eine Selbstbiographie published by Ostwald in 1926 27 and has been painstakingly translated The book includes comments and explanations helping readers to understand Ostwald's text in the historical context of Germany at the beginning of the 20th century In his autobiography Ostwald describes his impressive research career and his life from his own personal view Readers will find information on how Ostwald immortalized himself through his research on catalysis chemical equilibria technical chemistry and especially as one of the founders of modern physical chemistry His broad interests in science ranging from philosophy to the theory of colors and the idea of a universal scientific language are further remarkable aspects covered This work will appeal to a broad audience of contemporary scientists Wilhelm Ostwald has been tremendously influential for the development of chemistry and science and many of today's best known international scientific schools can be traced back to Ostwald's students Ostwald was active in Germany and what is now Latvia and Estonia while also travelling to the USA England and France In his discussions and analyses of the working conditions of the time readers will find many issues reflected that continue to be of relevance today Secret Baggage Barry Bandura,2021-06-15 Every one of us has unresolved issues we carry around In a word it's called baggage Although we do our best to ignore conceal or deny it our baggage burdens our lives and negatively impacts our relationships If not dealt with properly our baggage can lead us to a place of bondage We often believe that our unresolved issues are our own little secrets neatly tucked away from the view of others However to those who interact with us regularly or know us intimately our baggage is no secret at all In Secret Baggage Barry tackles some of the common types of baggage This book is an excellent practical and biblical resource for those wanting freedom from their own baggage as well as a resource for those wanting to help others gain freedom hope and a renewed future History of the Council of Trent Félix Bungener,1855 History of the Council of Trent ... Translated by David D. Scott. With the author's last corrections and additions communicated to the translator Laurence Louis Félix BUNGENER,1853 Redemption Song Bertice Berry,2008-12-10 Owner of a small African American bookshop Miss Cozy has a unique gift Customers who walk through her door rarely leave without a book that speaks directly to their life But when Josephine Fina and Ross arrive in search of an obscure unpublished manuscript written by a slave woman Miss Cozy knows that all her visions have been leading her to this magical day Yet Miss Cozy has no intention of selling the manuscript no matter the price So she offers Fina and Ross an alternative They can read it together at the store It was not what they hoped for but their interest in the extraordinary love story is about as strong as their uncanny attraction for one another one they both sense runs much deeper than a kiss In the course of a few days Fina and Ross realize that this powerful book has special meaning for the two of them and that the path to their shared future may be linked to something that happened more than a century ago History on the Run Ma Vang,2020-12-21 During its secret war in Laos 1961 1975 the United States recruited proxy soldiers among the Hmong people Following the war many of these Hmong soldiers migrated to the United States with refugee status In History on the Run Ma Vang examines the experiences of Hmong refugees in the United States to theorize refugee histories and secrecy in particular those of the Hmong Vang conceptualizes these histories as fugitive histories as they move and are carried by people who move Charting the incomplete archives of the war made secret through redacted US state documents ethnography film and literature Vang shows how Hmong refugees tell their stories in ways that exist separately from narratives of U S empire and that cannot be traditionally archived In so doing Vang outlines a methodology for writing histories that foreground refugee epistemologies despite systematic attempts to silence those histories Harness ,1918 Stricken Peggy Munson,2014-02-04 Develop a better understanding of what CFS CFIDS sufferers are going through In the 1980s a strange emerging epidemic baffled doctors in Incline Village Nevada Dismissed by the media as The Yuppie Flu Chronic Fatigue Immune Dysfunction Syndrome CFIDS turned out to be neither a faddish disease of the wealthy nor a passing trend but rather a growing worldwide epidemic of devastating proportions In the voices of a South African journalist a former marathon runner a teenage girl a public health activist living on the edge of race and gender a cancer patient neglected by doctors because of disdain for her chronic illness and a theologian relearning the art of spiritual empathy the people who share their stories in Stricken Voices from the Hidden Epidemic of Chronic Fatigue Syndrome defy cultural stereotypes and explore the complex social and political dynamics of this hidden epidemic Through their distinct points of view we feel the grief and hope of those stricken with CFIDS and learn of the complex nature of this misunderstood disorder These are compelling stories about a quiet and baffling epidemic The first American anthology to contain stories from a diverse range of people with CFIDS Stricken offers an intimate look at the political and social issues surrounding CFIDS as told by those who are living through this ordeal Stricken addresses several issues such as why some doctors still do not believe CFIDS is real how the disease is mocked in the media myths about this illness the personal fight for medical or public recognition the skepticism and hope that is felt by the ever growing number of CFIDS sufferers Stricken confronts fascinating CFIDS issues such as the Kevorkian suicides accusations of Munchausen Syndrome By Proxy Gulf War Syndrome the role of storytelling in a memory impaired patient movement and the feasibility of mass activism in a disabled population With contributions from Pulitzer prize nominated writer Susan Griffin renowned health writer and radio host Gary Null well known feminist activist Joan Nestle and award winning poet and essayist Floyd Skloot Stricken is an eloquent testament to the heroism defiance and diversity of the CFIDS community Releasing Our Dragons Dianne Szymanski
