Collins, Vivienne J. Rundle, 1999-08-17 The Broadview Anthology of Victorian Poetry and Poetic Theory is the most comprehensive collection of poetry from the period ever published Included are generous selections from the work of all major poets and a representation of the work of virtually every poet of significance from Thomas Ashe at the beginning of the era to Charlotte Mew at its end The work of Victorian women poets features very prominently with extensive selections not only from canonical poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti but also from poets such as Augusta Webster for which high claims have recently been made by critics The anthology reflects and will contribute to the ongoing reassessment of the canon that is central to English Studies today in all sixty six poets are represented The editors have included complete works wherever feasible including the complete texts of Tennyson's In Memoriam and of a number of other long poems A headnote by the editors introduces the work of each poet and each selection has been newly annotated The inclusion of twenty five selections of the poetic theory from the period is an important feature rounding out the anthology This anthology is also available in a concise edition The Routledge Introduction to Twentieth- and Twenty-First-Century Canadian Poetry Erin Wunker, 2022-11-21 When asked the question what is the power of poetry writer Ian Williams said poetry punctures the surface Williams statement that poetry matters and that it does something is at the heart of this book Building from this core idea that poetry perforates the everyday to give greater range to our lives and our thinking the practical and pedagogical aim of this book is twofold the first aim is to provide students with an introduction to the key cultural political and historical events that inform twentieth and twenty first century Canadian poetry and to familiarize those same readers with poetic movements trends and forms of the same time period This book addresses the aesthetic and social contexts of Canadian poetry written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries it models for its readers the critical and theoretical discourses needed to understand the contexts of literary production in Canada Put differently readers need a sense of the where and how of poetic production to help situate them in the what of poetry itself In addition to offering a historically contextualized overview of the significant movements developments and poets of this time period this book also familiarizes readers with key moments of reflection and rupture such as the effects of economic and ecological crisis global conflicts and debates around appropriation of culture This book is built on the premise that poetry in Canada does not happen outside of political social and cultural contexts Anthology of Magazine Verse and Anthology of Poems from the Seventeen Previously Published Braithwaite Anthologies ,1917 The Collected Longer Poems Kenneth Rexroth,1968 This is a companion volume to the Collected Shorter Poems of Kenneth Rexroth which was published in 1967 All of the long poems written over the past forty years are included The Homestead Called Damascus 1920 25 A Prolegomenon to a Theodicy 1925 27 The Phoenix and the Tortoise 1940 44 The Dragon and the Unicorn 1944 50 and The Heart s Garden The Garden s Heart 1967 68 As we read the long poems together and in sequence we can see that Rexroth is a philosophical poet of consequence who offers us a comprehensive system of values based on the realization of the ethical mysticism of universal responsibility He is concerned above all with process the movement from the Dual to the Other I have tried Rexroth writes to embody in verse the belief that the only valid conservation of value lies in the assumption of unlimited liability the supernatural identification of the self with the tragic unity of creative process I hope I have made it clear that the self does not do this by an act of will by sheer assertion He who would save his life must lose it

Margin of Interest Shane Neilson,2019-09-24 As Shane Neilson writes in Margin of Interest Maritime poetry is the sum of what s come before a unique history and yes a unique place In Margin of Interest Neilson examines representation identity power and the politics of literary history from the creative traditions of the Mi kmaq to the work of young poets today He pays due homage to iconic Maritime writers Milton Acorn Alden Nowlan George Elliott Clarke shines a critical spotlight on lesser known masters from the region Travis Lane Wayne Clifford and provides a glimpse inside the diverse ecosystem of poets under 40 writing in or about the Maritimes Rebecca Thomas Lucas Crawford El Jones He also combats the prejudices so often applied to writers from Atlantic Canada stigma associated with mental illness rigid gendering vernacular language and even poetic form and advocates for a long overdue reappropriation of the regionalist stance as well as a proper recognition of the region s writers and their contribution to the Canadian literary landscape For as Neilson wisely asks What s the matter with taking pride in any kind of regional identity that we articulate The New American Poetry John R.
