Looking Both Ways Art Of The Contemporary African Diaspora:

Looking Both Ways Valentijn Byvanck, Allan DeSouza, 2003 Looking Both Ways Art of the Contemporary African Diaspora considers the work of artists from North South East and West Africa who live and work in Western countries including Belgium France Germany the Netherlands Portugal the United Kingdom and the United States As its title indicates Looking Both Ways refers to the artists practice of looking at the psychic terrain between Africa and the West a terrain of shifting physical contexts aesthetic ambitions and expressions It examines the relationship between physical contexts emotional geographies ambition and freedom of expression while focusing on the increasing globalization of the African Diaspora Looking Both Ways is not a survey but rather an intimate consideration of the work of twelve artists Fernando Alvim Ghada Amer Olad l Bamgboy Allan deSouza Kendell Geers Moshekwa Langa Hassan Musa N Dilo Mutima Wangechi Mutu Ingrid Mwangi Zineb Sedira and Yinka Shonibare

The Routledge Companion to African Diaspora Art History Eddie

Chambers, 2024-10-31 This is an authoritative companion that is global in scope recognizing the presence of African Diaspora artists across the world It is a bold and broad reframing of this neglected branch of art history challenging dominant presumptions about the field Diaspora pertains to the global scattering or dispersal of in this instance African peoples as well as their patterns of movement from the mid twentieth century onwards Chapters in this book emphasize the importance of cross fertilization interconnectedness and intersectionality in the framing of African Diaspora art history The book stresses the complexities of artists born within or living and working within the African continent alongside the complexities of Africa born artists who have migrated to other parts of the world The group of international contributors emphasizes and accentuates the interplay between for example Caribbean art and African Diaspora art or Latin American art and African Diaspora art or Black British art and African Diaspora art The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history the various branches of African studies African American studies African Diaspora studies Caribbean studies and Latin American studies

The New African Diaspora Isidore Okpewho, Nkiru Nzegwu, 2009-08-26 The New York Times

reports that since 1990 more Africans have voluntarily relocated to the United States and Canada than had been forcibly brought here before the slave trade ended in 1807 The key reason for these migrations has been the collapse of social political economic and educational structures in their home countries which has driven Africans to seek security and self realization in the West This lively and timely collection of essays takes a look at the new immigrant experience It traces the immigrants progress from expatriation to arrival and covers the successes as well as problems they have encountered as they establish their lives in a new country The contributors most immigrants themselves use their firsthand experiences to add clarity honesty and sensitivity to their discussions of the new African diaspora

"Artwriting, Nation, and Cosmopolitanism in Britain " MarkA. Cheetham, 2017-07-05 Arguing in favour of renewed critical attention to the nation as a category in art history this study examines the intertwining of art theory national identity and art production in Britain from the early eighteenth century to the present day The book provides the first sustained account of artwriting in the British context over the full extent of its development and includes new analyses of such central figures as Hogarth Reynolds Gilpin Ruskin Roger Fry Herbert Read Art Language Peter Fuller and Rasheed Araeen Mark A Cheetham also explores how the Englishing of art theory which came about despite the longstanding occlusion of the intellectual and theoretical in British culture did not take place or have effects exclusively in Britain Theory has always travelled with art and vice versa Using the frequently resurgent discourse of cosmopolitanism as a frame for his discourse Cheetham asks whether English traditions of artwriting have been judged inappropriately according to imported criteria of what theory is and does This book demonstrates that artwriting in the English tradition has not been sufficiently studied and that English Art Theory is not an oxymoron Such concerns resonate today beyond academe and the art world in the many heated discussions of resurgent Englishness Contested Cultural Heritage Helaine Silverman, 2010-11-02 Cultural heritage is material tangible and intangible that signifies a culture s history or legacy It has become a venue for contestation ranging in scale from protesting to violently claimed and destroyed But who defines what is to be preserved and what is to be erased As cultural heritage becomes increasingly significant across the world the number of issues for critical analysis and hopefully mediation arise The issue stems from various groups religious ethnic national political and others come together to claim appropriate use exclude or erase markers and manifestations of their own and others cultural heritage as a means for asserting defending or denying critical claims to power land and legitimacy Can cultural heritage be well managed and promoted while at the same time kept within parameters so as to diminish contestation The cases herein rage from Greece Spain Egypt the UK Syria Zimbabwe Italy the Balkans B nin and Central America
