Vollmann, 2016-07-26 From the National Book Award winning author of Europe Central a dazzling fictional account of the epic fighting retreat of the Nez Perce Indians In this fifth installment in his acclaimed Seven Dreams series of novels examining the collisions between Native Americans and European colonizers

William T Vollmann tells the story of the epic fighting retreat of the Nez Perce Indians with flashbacks to the Civil War. Defrauded and intimidated at every turn the Nez Percés finally went on the warpath in 1877 subjecting the U S Army to its greatest defeat since Little Big Horn the previous year as they fled from northeast Oregon across Montana to the Canadian border. Vollmann's main character is not the legendary Chief Joseph but his pursuer General Oliver Otis Howard the brave shy tormented devoutly Christian Civil War veteran. In this novel we see him as commander father son husband friend and killer. Teeming with many vivid characters on both sides of the conflict and written in an original style in which the printed page works as a stage with multiple layers of foreground and background The Dying Grass is another mesmerizing achievement from one of the most ambitious writers of our time.

Self-Portrait Marti Friedlander,2014-01-01 From a childhood spent in London's rough East End to a half century in New Zealand photographing winemakers and artists children and kuia Marti Friedlander has lived a life marked by adventure travel and its fair share of challenges. It is also a life that has been defined by the art of observation and capturing on film. In Self Portrait the renowned photographer tells her story for the first time. As clear and unflinching in her prose as she is in her photography Friedlander describes growing up in a London orphanage being Jewish working in a Kensington photography studio marrying a New Zealander the challenges of moving to a new country and a life spent photographing the ordinary and the extraordinary from balloons and beaches to politicians and protests. She also explains how with a stranger's eye she captured the transformation of New Zealand life over the last half century. This is a rich meditation on one woman's photographic journey through the 20th century.
