

As King's advocate Sir Thomas was in a position to see everything, and especially events that seem to us of great moment. Keen as all his compeers were in business and the watchful study of character and conduct, shrewd in a bargain or a law plea, sticklers for orthodoxy in so far as prudently and privately interpreted, we can only regret that neither he nor any other of his day ever dreamt of being a Pepys or a Walpole. Thus in the 'Diary' Montrose is, 'about 8 of nycht, putt in the Castell be the Committie, June, 1641,' without a word of comment. Next month there is the off-hand entry:—'Mr. John Stewart beheidit at the Mercat Croce for his leyis aganis the Erll of Ergyll.' We have more about the King's last visit and Parliament in Scotland, when he was so hastily called away by the rebellion in Ireland (1641), but this we owe to a hot point of privilege between the Advocate and another officer of State. The Privy Council sat long over the Royal Proclamation of the visit 'till efter tuelff. Bot the knock wes holden bak, and the croce clothit with tapestrie, quhilk the Prouest and Baillies being sent for could not find. But I causit bring als monie furth off my hous,' (in the Cowgate and not far off) 'vthorwais it wald haif bene done without couering.' There was not much enthusiasm in the Covenanting Town Council of Edinburgh over the visit.

As the time drew nearer there were other difficulties, the Earl of Winton telling the Privy Council that he was 'inhabill to ludge the King at Seytoun,' near Prestonpans and one of the finest mansions in Scotland. The King arrived at Halyruid at last, 'about six at evin.' Three days later he 'cam to the Parliament in coche, about 10.' It was held in the new Parliament House, in the hall as we see it now. The huddled up close of this Parliament, marking, as it proved, the crisis of the King's fate, is significantly noted in brief:—'17 Nov. The Parliament raid. 18 Nov. The Kingis Majestie tuik journey to England.'

The stirring events of 1638 are but briefly referred to, but there was natural confusion in the capital, when with the following spring came the news that the King was preparing to suppress the Covenant by force of arms. There is a brave 'wappenschawing' in Edinburgh at which the College of Justice musters 500, including 'ane number of the auld advocates and wryters.' A few days before, the Castle is 'braschit be pittardis and takin be the nobilitie.' Young Sir Thomas commands General Leslie's bodyguard, while his brother and brother-in-law, Sir Charles Erskine, both rode out under the Banner of the Covenant. Sir

The Life of Lord Chancellor Hardwicke, with Selections from His Correspondence, Diaries, Speeches and Judgments George HARRIS (Barrister-at-Law),1847 The Life of Lord Chancellor Hardwicke; with Selections from His Correspondence, Diaries, Speeches, and Judgments G. Harris,1847 The Constitutional Legitimacy of Law Officers in the United Kingdom Conor McCormick,2022-07-14 This book provides a detailed account of each law officer s functions and draws on that account as the basis for a conceptual analysis of their constitutional legitimacy In recent years the constitutional legitimacy of law officers has been questioned repeatedly because of recurring controversies surrounding the discharge of their varied functions Indeed it has become increasingly clear that those functions enable law officers to play a highly influential part in the regulation and exercise of public power throughout the United Kingdom McCormick argues that the most persuasive framework for analysing the offices which make up this diverse regime involves concentrating on the constitutional values of independence accountability and trust which underpin it Both aspects of the book namely the explanation of individual functions and the conceptual analysis of collective legitimacy are written in a holistic way which encompasses critical analyses about the Attorney General and Solicitor General for England and Wales the Counsel General for Wales the Lord Advocate Solicitor General and Advocate General for Scotland as well as the Attorney General and Advocate General for Northern Ireland

The Work of the British Law Commissions Shona Wilson Stark,2017-07-13 The Law Commission of England and Wales and the Scottish Law Commission were both established in 1965 to promote the reform of the laws of their respective jurisdictions Since then they have each produced hundreds of reports across many areas of law They are independent of government yet rely on governmental funding and governmental approval of their proposed projects They also rely on both government and Parliament and occasionally the courts or other bodies to implement their proposals This book examines the tension between independence and implementation and recommends how a balance can best be struck It proposes how the Commissions should choose their projects given that their duties outweigh their resources and how we should assess the success or otherwise of their output

Countries around the world have created law reform bodies in the Commissions image They may wish to reflect on the GB Commissions responses to the changes and challenges they have faced to reappraise their own law reform machinery Equally the GB Commissions may seek inspiration from other commissions experiences The world the GB Commissions inhabit now is very different from when they were established They have evolved to remain relevant in the face of devolution the UK s changing relationship with the European Union increasing pressure for accountability and decreasing funding Further changes to secure the future of independent law reform are advanced in this book The Encyclopaedia Britannica: L-Lord Advocate ,1911 The last great work of the age of reason the final instance when all human knowledge could be presented with a single point of view Unabashed optimism and unabashed racism pervades many entries in the 11th and provide its defining characteristics Despite its occasional ugliness the reputation of the 11th persists today because of the staggering depth of knowledge contained with its volumes It is especially strong in its biographical entries These delve deeply into the history of men and women prominent in their eras who have since been largely forgotten except by the historians scholars The Guardian <https://www.theguardian.com/books/booksblog> 2012 apr 10 encyclopedia britannica 11th edition The Encyclopædia Britannica: L-Lord Advocate ,1911 The Scots Peerage: Marchmont-Oxfuird James Balfour Paul,1909
