Life Henry R. Luce, 1940 The McNair-Flemming Years, Volume 2 James G. Long, 2024-05-17 The McNair Fleming Years Volume 2 relates a shift of influence by the print media

Newspaper reporting of peacetime events had always expressed a known degree of partisan views but these suddenly became toxic. The result was a transition of political news from predictable to untrustworthy to outrageous and to propaganda. There was an evolution away from text heavy political advertising based on achievements to an emphasis on the personality of leadership. In his last public speech before the 1952 election Premier J B McNair said with confidence integrity and honesty will win for the Liberal Party and he was wrong. The image of Premier Hugh John Flemming 1952-1960 was carefully monitored by political campaign manager Dalton Camp, speechwriter Kenneth Carson and PC Party bagman Ewart Atkinson. Party propaganda and priority news cycle coverage for the new premier were maintained by Michael Wardell, the editor-owner of Fredericton's Daily Gleaner newspaper and the monthly periodical Atlantic Advocate. While his predecessor was challenged with significant international events, the affable outgoing Mr Flemming could concentrate on local events, his obsession with building of the Beechwood Dam and his own self-promotion. He governed over a period of substantially increased debt while holding fast to the belief that the path to prosperity was through increased Federal financial support.

A.J.P. Taylor Chris Wrigley, 2006-08-25 A scholar gentleman in the old style, a northern non-conforming radical, an academic steeped in Oxford traditions, a late 20th century media personality, one of the most outstanding historians of his age. A J P Taylor was all of these. He wrote about traditional historical subjects in a traditional manner and took narrative history to new heights and was equally at home with a critical academic as with a vast popular audience. This biographical study of A J P Taylor includes details of Taylor's privileged and cosseted childhood, the effect of his close but combative and stimulating family, the dissenting and nonconformist tradition and his time as teacher, broadcaster, journalist and historian. It attempts to evaluate how far he fulfilled his aim and conviction as to the importance of history and its place at the heart of national consciousness.

The New Age, 1928

The Mistress of Mayfair Lyndsy Spence, 2016-11-07 The plot could have been inspired by Evelyn Waugh's Vile Bodies, but unlike Waugh's novel which parodies the era of the Bright Young Things, The Mistress of Mayfair is a real life story of scandal, greed, corruption and promiscuity at the heart of 1920s and 30s high society, focusing on the wily, willful socialite Doris Delevingne and her doomed relationship with the gossip columnist Valentine Browne Viscount Castlerosse. Marrying each other in pursuit of the finer things in life, their unlikely union was tempestuous from the off, rocked by affairs with a whole host of society figures including Cecil Beaton, Diana Mitford and Winston Churchill, amongst others, on both sides, and degenerated into one of London's bitterest and most talked about divorce battles. In this compelling new book, Lyndsy Spence follows the rise and fall of their relationship, exploring their decadent society lives in revelatory detail and offering new insight into some of the mid twentieth century's most prominent figures.
