Legendary Artists and the Clothes They Wore Terry Newman, 2019-05-14 Whether it's Cecil Beaton's flamboyant classically tailored suits Frida Kahlo's love of bright color or Cindy Sherman's penchant for minimalism an artist's attire often reflects the creative and spiritual essence of his or her work In Legendary Artists and the Clothes They Wore fashion authority Terry Newman presents more than forty fully illustrated profiles of masters whose enduring art bears an idiosyncratic stamp and whose unique way of dress does the same through a signature look hairstyle or accessory and explores the relationship between the two in detail In that context this colorful volume also examines the nonlinear sensibility that has always been the name of the game in what is considered modern style It examines the dialogue between art and fashion as well as noteworthy artist and designer relationships such as Yves Saint Laurent's Mondrian Collection primary colored shift dresses inspired by the painter's work and Louis Vuitton's numerous groundbreaking collaborations with major artists a concept initiated by designer Marc Jacobs that not only has launched some of the fashion industry's most successful bags made the art of contemporary masters available to the world at large and been copied widely ever since Numerous compelling features anecdotes about the artists and their work portraits of the artists in their studios archival photographs select pairings of fine art and runway imagery quotations by artists art critics and designers make this a rich engaging study for fashion and art lovers alike

The Reckoning Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2014-05-12 The authors of After the Revolution return with an incisive study of the work of contemporary women artists In After the Revolution the authors concluded that The battles may not all have been won but barricades are gradually coming down and work proceeds on all fronts in glorious profusion Now with The Reckoning authors Heartney Posner Princenthal and Scott bring into focus the accomplishments of 24 acclaimed international women artists born since 1960 who have benefited from the groundbreaking efforts of their predecessors The book is organized in four thematic sections Bad Girls profiles artists whose work represents an assault on conventional notions of gender and racial difference History Lessons offers reflections on the self in the context of history and globalization Spellbound focuses on women's embrace of the irrational subjective and surreal while Domestic Disturbances takes on women's conflicted relationship to home family and security Written in lively prose and fully illustrated throughout this book gives an informed account of the wonderful diversity of recent contemporary art by women An indispensable contribution to the literature on contemporary art by women Whitney Chadwick author of Women Art and Society In the 2007 book After the Revolution Women Who Transformed Contemporary Art the authors set a new standard in documenting and evaluating the work of a dozen key women artists spanning generations between the 1960s to the 2000s The beat goes on with the appearance of The Reckoning written by the same authors in the same accessible scholarly style but reflecting important historical changes over the past decade and more In line with the increased presence of women in mainstream art the book includes twice as many artists as its predecessor And its global reach has expanded vastly stretching from Europe and the Americas to Africa and China Holland Cotter The New York Times

The Creative Feminine and her Discontents Juliet Miller, 2018-04-24 The Creative Feminine and her Discontents Psychotherapy Art and Destruction is a look at creativity from a woman's perspective By looking at artistic endeavour mothering and psychotherapeutic relationships Juliet Miller considers how a patriarchal world distorts the channels through which women discover their own creative voices She argues that the dynamics of female creativity are more multi layered and conflicted for women for a variety of historical cultural and archetypal reasons and suggests that an attack on the creative feminine has been exacerbated by the history and teaching of psychoanalysis and psychotherapy Miller looks to the artistic community to discover new ways for the creative feminine to grow and assesses how ideas of destruction and anarchy are crucial for the expression of a feminine self The work of two contemporary sculptors Cornelia Parker and Louise Bourgeois is explored to show how there can be authentic relationships to creativity through the ideas of deconstruction and reconstruction in their work This book will interest psychotherapists and analysts and both women and men interested in their own relationship to their creativity

Ageless Soul Thomas Moore, 2017-10-10 Ageless Soul will teach readers how to embrace the richness of experience and how to take life on accept invitations to new vitality and feel fulfilled as they get older Thomas Moore is the renowned author of Care of the Soul the classic 1 New York Times bestseller In Ageless Soul Moore reveals a fresh optimistic and rewarding path toward aging one that need not be feared but rather embraced and cherished In Moore's view aging is the process by which one becomes a more distinctive complex fulfilled loving and connected person Using examples from his practice as a psychotherapist and teacher who lectures widely on the soul of medicine and spirituality Moore argues for a new vision of aging as a dramatic series of initiations rather than a diminishing experience one that each of us has the tools experience maturity fulfillment to live out Subjects include Why melancholy is a natural part of aging and how to accept it rather than confuse it with depression The vital role of the elder and mentor in the lives of younger people The many paths of spiritual growth and learning that open later in life Sex and sensuality Building new communities and leaving a legacy

Crazy Age Jane Miller, 2010-09-02 Ever since I have inhabited old age I have looked and listened mostly in vain for news of what it is like for others who inhabit it too Naturally I'm interested in its well known depredations the physical and mental ones that people in their forties and fifties so publicly dread And who would not delight in the theatrical props of old age the pills and sticks the shrieking hearing aids and the tricks for countering the loss of names and threads and glasses But that's not all I have a fond hope that in old age there may be new kinds of time and of pleasure perhaps even new kinds of vitality and that though we forget and muddle and fail to hear things there may be moments when we truly understand what's going on for the first time But then I've always been a late developer Deeply thoughtful wry and resilient this fascinating and absorbing book about growing older is a life enhancing look at what all of us if we are lucky can aspire to

Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play Lynn M. Somers, 2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911-2010 in light of psychoanalyst D W Winnicott's 1896-1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects potential space and play offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000 Critical concepts from British object relational theories destruction reparation integration relationality and play drawn from the writings of Winnicott Melanie Klein Marion Milner and Christopher Bollas among others bear upon the decades long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic metaphorical and most importantly useful The book demonstrates how Bourgeois's transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object relations both psychical and tangible and explores Bourgeois's contention that the observer physically engage with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced Each chapter focuses on a key body of work Femme Maison Personages Lairs Janus and Cells examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality reciprocity and ambivalence of our object relationships Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic cultural and psychological encounters Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois's work and that of other artists from Pieter Brueghel to Eva Hesse It brings together practical archival and theoretical material offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis cultural analysis feminist queer literary and affect studies the book extends its specific art historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life

Art and Mourning Esther Dreifuss-Kattan, 2016-03-10 Art and Mourning explores the relationship between creativity and the work of self mourning in the lives of 20th century artists and thinkers The role of artistic and creative endeavours is well known within psychoanalytic circles in helping to heal in the face of personal loss trauma and mourning In this book Esther Dreifuss Kattan a psychoanalyst art therapist and artist analyses the work of major modernist and contemporary artists and thinkers through a psychoanalytic lens In coming to terms with their own mortality figures like Albert Einstein Louise Bourgeois Paul Klee Eva Hesse and others were able to access previously unknown reserves of creative energy in their late works as well as a new healing experience of time outside of the continuous temporality of everyday life Dreifuss Kattan explores what we can learn about using the creative process to face and work through traumatic and painful experiences of loss Art and Mourning will inspire psychoanalysts and psychotherapists to understand the power of artistic expression in transforming loss and traumas into perseverance survival and gain Art and Mourning offers a new perspective on trauma and will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychotherapists psychologists clinical social workers and mental health workers as well as artists and art historians Art, Education and Gender Gill Hopper,2015-10-05 Why do girls study art and why do girls become primary teachers This book examines and reveals the powerful influence of the family the school and the state in shaping female identity and constructing notions of gender appropriateness It also discusses the status of art at school and the position of women artists in society Gray Matters Ellyn Lem,2020-08-28 Winner of the 2021 Excellence in Research and Scholarly Activity Award from the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee Finalist for the 2021 American Book Fest Best Book Awards Aging is one of the most compelling issues today with record numbers of seniors over sixty five worldwide Gray Matters Finding Meaning in the Stories of Later Life examines a diverse array of cultural works including films literature and even art that represent this time of life often made by people who are seniors themselves These works focusing on important topics such as housing memory loss and intimacy are analyzed in dialogue with recent research to explore how stories illuminate the dynamics of growing old by blending fact with imagination Gray Matters also incorporates the life experiences of seniors gathered from over two hundred in depth surveys with a range of questions on growing old not often included in other age studies works Combining cultural texts gerontology research and observations from older adults will give all readers a fuller picture of the struggles and pleasures of aging and avoids over simplified representations of the process as all negative or positive
