Literary Legacies, Folklore Foundations Karen E. Beardslee, 2001 In this provocative study of eight novels Karen E Beardslee asserts that American writers often engage with folk traditions as a necessary part of their characters journeys to wholeness Focusing not only on African American Native American and Hispanic American cultures but also on women s culture Beardslee traces the connections between folk legacies and the search for selfhood in both nineteenth and twentieth century works Within each chapter a novel by a contemporary author and one from an earlier period are brought together Whitney Otto s How to Make an American Quilt and Harriet Beecher Stowe s The Minister s Wooing David Bradley s The Chaneyville Incident and Charles Chesnutt s The Conjure Woman Leslie Marmon Silko s Ceremony and Zitkala Sa s American Indian Stories and Roberta Fernandez s Intaglio and Maria Cristina Mena s The Birth of the God of War These pairings are not based on matters of intertextuality or influence but are chosen according to the folk groups to which the novels characters belong This strategy enables Beardslee to trace the particular legacies that inform the work of the twentieth century authors As Beardslee notes contemporary texts and the critical commentary on them have focused until fairly recently on the search for self in male usually white characters Such works have also positioned that search outside the character s family or community and have usually emphasized its futility With the growing shift toward multiculturalism in fiction however folk traditions have come to play an increasingly crucial role in characters journeys to self awareness as well as in the success of those journeys Thoroughly researched and cogently argued this book makes a significant contribution to the study of both folklore and literature as it explores the relationship between knowing one s cultural heritage and achieving a sense of self that is whole instead of fragmented connected instead of drifting The Author Karen E Beardslee teaches in the Department of Language and Literature at Burlington County College in Pemberton New Jersey Her articles have appeared in MELUS The Encyclopedia of Folklore and Literature and the Zora Neale Hurston Forum

Transnationalism and American Serial Fiction Patricia Okker, 2012-06-12 Transnationalism and American Serial Fiction explores the vibrant tradition of serial fiction published in U S minority periodicals Beloved by readers these serial novels helped sustain the periodicals and communities in which they circulated With essays on serial fiction published from the 1820s through the 1960s written in ten different languages English French Spanish German Swedish Italian Polish Norwegian Yiddish and Chinese this collection reflects the rich multilingual history of American literature and periodicals One of this book's central claims is that this serial fiction was produced and read within an intensely transnational context the periodicals often circulated widely the narratives themselves favored transnational plots and themes and the contents surrounding the fiction encouraged readers to identify with a community dispersed throughout the United States and often the world Thus Okker focuses on the circulation of ideas periodicals literary conventions and people across various borders focusing particularly on the ways that this fiction reflects the larger transnational realities of these minority communities History of Louisiana

Hitori-Nakamoto,2024-09-12 History of Louisiana In the vast expanse of the universe where galaxies swirl and stars twinkle in the blackness of space humanity stands as a curious observer striving to unravel the mysteries that surround us Since time immemorial we have gazed up at the night sky pondering the secrets hidden beyond our reach Our insatiable thirst for knowledge has propelled us forward driving us to explore the uncharted territories of the cosmos As we embark on this journey of discovery we find ourselves at a pivotal moment in history Technological advancements have opened up new frontiers allowing us to peer deeper into the cosmos than ever before From the humble beginnings of Galileo's telescope to the intricate instruments of modern observatories our tools have evolved offering us unprecedented insights into the workings of the universe But our quest for understanding goes beyond mere observation We seek to unravel the fundamental laws that govern the cosmos to decipher the origins of stars and galaxies and to probe the very fabric of space and time itself From the subatomic particles that dance within atoms to the colossal structures that stretch across the cosmos we strive to uncover the underlying principles that bind the universe together In this book we embark on a journey into the unknown guided by the spirit of exploration and the thirst for knowledge We will traverse the vast reaches of space delving into the mysteries of black holes supernovae and dark matter We will explore the wonders of exoplanets seeking out new worlds that may harbor the building blocks of life And we will contemplate the profound questions that have puzzled philosophers and scientists alike for centuries Are we alone in the universe What is the ultimate fate of the cosmos And what lies beyond the boundaries of our understanding But our journey is not just a quest for answers it is also a celebration of the human spirit For as we gaze out into the cosmos Louisiana Poets Catharine Savage Brosman,Olivia McNeely Pass,2019-04-10
