Love And Family Life:

Sex, Love, and Families Julie Hanlon Rubio, Jason Edward King, 2020-03-30 2021 Association of Catholic Publishers first place award in theology 2021 Catholic Media Association Award first place award in marriage and family living Six years into the papacy of Pope Francis Catholics are still figuring out how to respond to his image of the church as a field hospital a church that goes into the streets rather than remaining locked up behind closed doors Marriage and family are primary sites of the field hospital called to meet people's need for healing and accompaniment with compassion and love The authors of this collection all lay a mix of single and married traditional and progressive Catholics take up this work They offer practical wisdom from and critical engagement with the Catholic tradition but avoid rehashing decades old theological debates Instead their essays engage with and respond to realities shaping contemporary family life like religious pluralism technology migration racism sex and gender incarceration consumerism and the call to holiness The result is a collection that envisions ways that families can be places of healing and love in and for the world Love & Eroticism Mike Featherstone, 1999-09-20 This major collection explores the contested nature of love and eroticism examining the ways in which erotic bodily pleasures have become central to contemporary consumer culture It investigates the spatial dimension of erotic life through considerations of Bohemian love the gay city and the ways in which the urban landscape and everyday life have become sexualized issues which have become central to the emergence of queer as a new form of gender politics and more general questions of sexual citizenship Drawing on the work of feminists sociologists and cultural theorists this book contains a wide ranging and accessible set of contributions to contemporary debates on sexuality love and eroticism Love Erotici Love and the Soul Robert Sardello, 2011-06-28 With economies in peril war in the Middle East genocides global warming and a host of other grim phenomena the world has never seemed so besieged The solution says Robert Sardello lies with the individual In this timely thoughtful book he explains how the soul can engage with the outer world to produce radical change Because we think of the world as a vast mechanism and behave as mechanical objects in it the results are devastation and dysfunction The key is to learn to identify with the plight of the Earth by developing a true sense of individual imagination and conscious awareness of inner purpose and beauty in conjunction with the soul of the world Sardello shows how to achieve this awareness and bring what is inside out into the world inspiring balance and stability Using the Grail legend and the myth of Sophia known as the Soul of the World as well as writings by Jung James Hillman and Rudolf Steiner Love and the Soul helps readers imagine a revitalized Earth by exploring the significance of grieving the transformative power of radical receptivity the creative power of dreaming and a new basis for community Love in America Francesca M. Cancian, 1990-08-31 In the last twenty five years Americans have gained considerable freedom in their personal lives Relationships are now more flexible and self development has become a primary goal for both men and women Most scholars have criticized this trend to greater freedom arguing that it undermines family bonds and promotes selfishness and extreme independence Francesca Cancian is more optimistic In this book she shows that many American couples succeed in combining self development with commitment and that interdependence not independence is their ideal In interdependent relationships love and self development do not conflict but reinforce each other Love in America compares traditional forms of marriage with these newer forms of close relationships Starting with the nineteenth century Cancian shows how gender roles became polarized with love which was identified with emotional expression no practical help being the responsibility of women while self development was regarded as a masculine concern These traditional images of love and relationships are still held by many Americans today even though as Cancian points out this can lead to marital conflict and individual stress and illness By contrast new images of love emphasizing self development for men and women and flexible androgynous roles began to emerge around 1900 accelerating in the 1960s She concludes that this trend to self development and androgyny will continue but that whether it will lead to more interdependent relationships or to more independence and isolation depends partly on economic and political changes in the wider society The evidence for Cancian s argument comes from sociological historical and psychological sources Her book will interest readers in these disciplines as well s appeal to a wide general audience

Trainor, 2019-06-27 Does the New Testament teach that a wife must submit to her husband as head If so does it have a lasting value beyond the cultural milieu in which it was first articulated The Politics of

Conjugal Love takes a fresh approach to this classic issue in theological anthropology paying specific attention to the role of theological hermeneutics in its interpretation. Conor Sweeney and Brian T Trainor contend that both subordinationist and anti subordinationist readings of headship and submission miss the mark. Their alternative is a baptismally specified trinitarian reading in which headship and submission appear as modes intrinsic to both life in Christ and the love proper to the highest mode of trinitarian love. Love and Toil Ellen Ross, 1993-11-25. The feisty warm hearted mum has long figured as a symbol of the working class in Britain yet working class history has emphasized male organizations such as clubs, unions or political parties. Investigating a different dimension of social history, Love and Toil focuses on motherhood among the London poor in the late Victorian and Edwardian years and on the cultures, communities and ties with husbands and children that women created. Mothers' skills in managing the family budget, earning income and caring for their children were critical in protecting households from the worst hardships of industrial capitalism yet poverty or the threat of it molded intimate relationships and left its imprint on personalities. This book is also a case study demonstrating the larger argument that the concept of motherhood is more socially and historically constructed than biologically determined. Shaky household economics, pressure toward respectability, the close proximity of neighbors, the precariousness of infant and child life and little chance of better lives for their children shaped the work and emotions of motherhood much more than did the biological experiences of pregnancy, birth and lactation. This beautifully written book, embellished with Cockney slang and music hall songs, addresses fascinating questions in the fields of women's studies, labor history, social policy and family history. Guarding Love Gary Rosberg, Barbara Rosberg, 2003-07. This six week workbook companion to Guard Your Heart is a small group resource that equips couples to protect their hearts, their own and their spouse's against threats and temptations. Today's marriages are under attack and Christian homes are not exempt. That is why Gary and Barb Rosberg have committed themselves to helping couples understand the temptations they face. As one of the key books in the Divorce Proofing America's Marriages campaign, Guard Your Heart and its companion workbook Guarding Love will equip couples to practice guarding love and protect their marriages. Catalyst One Robert E. Rushton, 2004. A matrix of Morality, wisdom, Philosophy, insights, Diplomatic cynicism, Common sense impressions, Whimsy, freak notions, Personal love relations, Societal love relations, War, Guerilla War, Assassinations, New political terminology and conceptions. And much more for you, the story maker, to ponder, extract and catalyze into your very own allegory using your genius to flesh it out in your name. A legend of our time. Storysmiths will delight in the wisdom given in the various sections on love that may be extracted here from and fashioned into a story line. A refreshing change of outlook on this subject both from society's point of view and from the individual's intuitive instincts. The parabolic sections on Front Line War, Guerilla War and Assassination will offer the story maker pause for thought on these subjects. The story maker's own abstraction and reworking of these new concepts will leave ample scope for metamorphosis into one's own powerful narrative. The cynical section on diplomacy takes the subject to new horizons that will lead one from fresh works in this subject thus adding modern scope to those works of Michiavelli The story maker s extraction modification and reapplication of the various other sections of this work may possibly lead to new higher ground in plot constructs This book will both entertain and enlighten you A revolutionary and extraordinary book that crosses the boundaries of religion philosophy and intellectual thought with purity lucidity and protraction laid out in an order that allows full scope of craft a blueprint for your own book in word erection This book of parables venerates the probity of extraordinary events in the life and times of contemporary society and doings It validates and encourages responsibility for creating your own truly insightful work The book requires some effort in understanding fresh ground breaking concepts and thus willingness to learn and grasp new terminology

A Labour of Love Janet Finch,Dulcie Groves,2022-08-24 What are the realities of community care the unpaid care given by hundreds of thousands of women often in their own homes for children and adults who are handicapped or chronically sick or for frail elderly people Originally published in 1983 this book explores the experiences of such women and the dilemmas which caring poses for them At a time when most women needed to earn money from a paid job how did carers manage to juggle their caring and other domestic responsibilities and what happened if they had to give up work Against a background of government policies which favour care by the community the contributors to this book raise crucial issues for social and economic policy Hilary Graham examines what caring really means and Clare Ungerson asks why women do it Sally Baldwin and Caroline Glendinning focus on mothers with handicapped children and Fay Wright on single adults with elderly dependants Alan Walker highlights the dependencies implicit in caring relationships with the elderly Lesley Rimmer looks at the economic costs of care and Dulcie Groves and Janet Finch examine the invalid care allowance a carers benefit for which married women can never qualify In exploring the domestic sector of welfare A Labour of Love was a highly topical contribution to the debate both on welfare provision and on the division of labour between men and women at the time
