Why Are so Many Relationships Failing? Billy Burnette, 2010-11-30 Most all our relationships go something like this Even though you can see something good in the other person you only get glimpses of the good It is like being in a jail cell next to each other reaching through the bars to hold hands maybe even steal a kiss but you cannot embrace that good person Some go so far as to have sex but not really embrace like most married couples are doing today Most of us have taken that risk taken the chance on a relationship with that special someone However too often one or the other gets hurt feels frustrated and walks away without trying to understand why this is happening It hurts so bad it feels like your insides are being torn out of your body This is not a physical pain but the spiritual and emotional separation that hurts physically Somewhere through the pain we make up our minds consciously or subconsciously that no one will ever hurt us like that again Jesus said to confess our sins to one another so that we may be healed We usually try to bury our pain and think we have forgiven our offenders Jesus way is to deal directly with the pain Rose Kennedy was a smart woman she said It has been said time heals all wounds I do not agree The wounds remain In time the mind protecting its sanity covers them with scar tissue and the pain lessons but is never gone Jesus did not come to tell us how to live with our pain He came to heal us of the pain
