Know God, Pursue Happiness Jeffrey Dutton, 2017-03-31 Secular America tells us that God does not exist We live in a time when a large part of our government the media much of academia and a secular culture are doing everything they can to deny us our God They have given us many false gods seeking to both deny God and provide a replacement ideology The government especially has for decades sought to deny the import of God in our lives at every turn while enacting laws policies and regulations that make it easier for citizens to turn to it for safety security and even survival The God that is available to us for the asking wants to help us identify our life s purpose and to guide us on our life s path to achieve that purpose I believe that He also wants us to understand Him and some day come to be with Him It is our divine duty to know God personally to understand Him and to allow Him to help us achieve our life s purpose Sermons of Arthur C. McGill Arthur C. McGill, 2007-01-01 Throughout the 1960s and 1970s Arthur McGill had numerous opportunities to air his rich theological musings outside of the classroom We are now fortunate some twenty five years after his death to have seventeen sermons brought to us by the aid of his wife Lucille McGill and editor David Cain University of Mary Washington These homilies reveal the core themes that distinguish his theological writings relaxing in our neediness before God participating in the death to life pattern of self expenditure and rooting our hope in the unique power of Christ The collection culminates with what Cain notes as McGill s signature sermon on The Good Samaritan wherein we see that the reception of grace always precedes the extension of grace In addressing day to day issues such as possessions speech loneliness and anger McGill is both prophetic and pastoral He does not hesitate to say that the wickedness of Nineveh alas is the wickedness of the United States At the same time he brings a refreshing word with theological depth about human suffering and the God who models ultimate vulnerability This book is Theological Fascinations Volume One marking the hope that further volumes might emerge from the papers of Arthur C McGill evidencing the richness of his theological fascinations The Science and Theology of Godly Love Matthew T. Lee, Amos Yong, 2012-06-15 Arguing that there are ways to move beyond the limitations of methodological atheism without compromising scientific objectivity the essays gathered in The Science and Theology of Godly Love explore the potential for collaboration between social science and theology They do so within the context of the interdisciplinary study of Godly Love which examines the perceived experience of loving God being loved by God and thereby being motivated to engage in selfless service to others This volume serves as an introduction to and a call for further research in this new field of study offering ten methodological perspectives on the study of Godly Love written by leading social scientists and theologians Drawing on the work of Douglas Porpora and others the contributors contend that agnosticism is the appropriate methodological stance when religious experience is under the microscope Godly Love does not force a theistic explanation on data instead these essays show that it sensitizes researchers so that they can take seriously the faith and beliefs of those they study without the assumption that these theologies represent an incontestable truth

The Road to Acceptance Caroline Clark, 2011-04-15 From the time I was a child I sought a God who loved me just as I was I found the all caring God and Savior Jesus Christ when I was 27 years old in a moment of despair coming off of alcohol speed and marijuana I finally began living a life worth living a life worthy of my Jesus dying on the Cross I now know that whoever you are whatever you ve done Jesus is waiting for you to come back to His arms stains and all This is the story of my journey seeking and finding the Lord of Lords Jesus Christ The Power to Change Today Gregory Dickow, 2009-04-16 How many people go through their days feeling dissatisfied or even feeling their lives have no purpose or meaning Perhaps money time or love seem in short supply Or one doesn t have the body they d like or the perfect job or the perfect mate What kind of faith can give the strength and encouragement to break free from emotional and spiritual discontentment In this debut work Pastor Dickow founder of the popular Life Changers International Church brings a compelling vision for conquering negativity and achieving breakthroughs toward successful living Through attaining a deep connection with God one can learn

FALLING IN LOVE AT THE END OF THE ROAD Ronald John Vierling,2013-03 A Most Unlikely Likely American Tale Appearances can be deceptive First impressions can be misleading People who might seem so different that they could never become a couple sometimes turn around and fall in love Perhaps that s part of what makes the world interesting Falling in Love at the End of the Road is that kind of story A young unmarried Haitian woman Isabel Jean fleeing with her ten year old daughter as far away from the dangers of violent abuse as she can all the way to Ely Minnesota crosses paths with a mature Caucasian widower Samuel Woolf who has lived in lonely isolation in his family s lake house for two years following his beloved wife s death Initially drawn together by her financial and his emotional needs as time passes they discover their apparent ethnic differences are superficial their psychological similarities are profound However be advised while this tale might initially appear predictable and simple it is in fact deceptively compelling and complex as compelling as the heroine and hero s evolving relationship and as complex as the surprising if terrifying climax Isabel Ebony Jean and Samuel Singer Woolf may well be the most unlikely likely couple modern readers have ever had the experience of meeting Joyce Davidsen M Ed University of Central Florida
