Feeling Film: Affect and Authenticity in Popular Cinema Greg Singh,2014-01-21 Cinema has the capacity to enflame our passions to arouse our pity to inspire our love Feeling Film is a book that examines the emotional encounters found in contemporary popular cinema cultures Examining melodrama film noir comic book franchises cult indie movies and romantic comedy within the context of a Jungian informed psychology and contemporary movements in film philosophy this book considers the various kinds of feelings engendered by our everyday engagements with cinema Greg Singh questions the popular idea of what cinema is and considers what happens during the anticipation and act of watching a movie through to the act of sharing our feelings about them the reviewing process and repeat viewing practices Feeling Film does this through a critique of purely textual approaches instead offering a model which emphasises lived warm embodied and inhabited psychological relationships between the viewer and the viewed It extends the narrative action of cinema beyond the duration of the screening into realms of anticipation and afterlife in particular providing insight into the tertiary and participatory practices afforded through rich media engagement In rethinking the everyday co productive relationship between viewer and viewed from this perspective Feeling Film reinstates the importance of feelings as a central concern for film theory What emerges from this study is a re engagement of the place of emotion affect and feeling in film theory and criticism In reconsidering the duration of the cinematic encounter Feeling Film makes a significant contribution to the understanding of the inter subjective relationship between viewer and viewed It takes post Jungian criticism into the realms of post cinema technologies and reignites the dialogue between depth psychology and the study of images as they appear to and for us This book will make essential reading for those interested in the relationship between film and aspects of depth psychology film and philosophy students at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate levels film and cinema academics and cinephiles

One Mom's Journey to Motherhood Ivy Shih Leung, 2011-11-16 Author Ivy Shih Leung shares her not so perfect road to motherhood in this book that is part memoir and part self help guide reflecting lessons learned in the form of helpful tips and information to empower readers on the biological and sociological roots behind postpartum depression PPD She also seeks to raise awareness of the myths of motherhood and the stigma of PPD that contribute to the silent suffering of many mothers as well as the importance of adequate social support in the early postpartum weeks A culmination of Ivys frightening PPD journey and her emergence from it with a passion to learn more about perinatal mood disorders this book is fueled with passion to help other women and their families anger from the unnecessary suffering Ivy went through from the lack of information available to the public about PPD her doctors ignorance and lack of sensitivity and public remarks like There is no such thing as a chemical imbalance all of which shows theres still a long way to go in terms of educating the public about an illness that is suffered by one in eight new mothers With side effects that include shame helplessness and despair at a time that is supposed to be one of the happiest in a womans life Ivy wants to help fellow PPD advocates get the message out that PPD is not a mind over matter thing as those who dont know any better tend to believe PPD is an illness that must be taken seriously We must all remember that the health of the family unit depends on the mothers well being Ivy Shih Leungs voice as a storyteller is strong loud and clear Ivy is a survivor of postpartum depression and through the written words on each page you can hear her roar Jane Honikman Founder of Postpartum Support International
