The Chair Richard Garcia, 2014-09-22 One of America's foremost prose poets Richard Garcia's The Chair simultaneously takes place in the natural world and a speculative world rich in the fabulist tradition historical figures roam like ghosts time is pulled and twisted and narrative spins effortlessly out of language A core of autobiography grounds these poems that are rife with surprises uniting the mythic and the everyday Richard Garcia's awards include an NEA a Pushcart Prize and the American Poetry Journal Book Prize He teaches creative writing in the Antioch University Los Angeles Low Residency MFA program and lives on James Island South Carolina

The Keys to the Jail Keetje Kuipers, 2014-03-10 The Keys to the Jail asks the question of who is to blame for all we've lost calling us to reexamine the harsh words of failed love the aging of a once beautiful body even our own voracious desires Keetje Kuipers is a poet of daring leaps and unflinching observations whose richly textured lyrics travel from Montana's great wildernesses to the ocean fogged streets of San Francisco as they search out the heart that's lost its way Dolores Park In the flattening California dusk women gather under palms with their bags of bottles and cans The grass is feathered with the trash of the day paper napkins blowing across the legs of those who still drown on a patchwork of blankets Shirtless in the phosphorescent gloom of streetlamps they lie suspended This is my one good life watching the exchange of embraces counting the faces assembled outside the ice cream shop sweet tinge of urine by the bridge above the tracks broken bike lock of the gay couple's hands desperate clapping of dark pigeons who will take it from me A former Wallace Stegner Fellow in Poetry Keetje Kuipers's debut collection Beautiful in the Mouth won the A Poulin Jr Poetry Prize She has been the Margery Davis Boyden Wilderness Writing Resident and is currently an assistant professor at Auburn University

Asphalt Nation Jane Holtz Kay, 2012-06-20 Asphalt Nation is a major work of urban studies that examines how the automobile has ravaged America's cities and landscape and how we can fight back The automobile was once seen as a boon to American life eradicating the pollution caused by horses and granting citizens new levels of personal freedom and mobility But it was not long before the servant became the master public spaces were designed to accommodate the automobile at the expense of the pedestrian mass transportation was neglected and the poor unable to afford cars saw their access to jobs and amenities worsen Now even drivers themselves suffer as cars choke the highways and pollution and congestion have replaced the fresh air of the open road Today our world revolves around the car as a nation we spend eight billion hours a year stuck in traffic In Asphalt Nation Jane Holtz Kay effectively calls for a revolution to reverse our automobile dependency Citing successful efforts in places from Portland Maine to Portland Oregon Kay shows us that radical change is not impossible by any means She demonstrates that there are economic political architectural and personal solutions that can steer us out of the mess Asphalt Nation is essential reading for everyone interested in the history of our relationship with the car and in the prospect of returning to a world of human mobility

Text Types and the History of English Manfred Görlach, 2008-08-22 The history of modern European languages has been largely determined by the range of functions they have acquired particularly after 1500 This development necessitated a notable expansion of their syntax and lexis but is most characteristically reflected in the conventionalization of text types Starting from the German concept of Textsorte as developed from the 1960s onwards the present account is a first comprehensive attempt at charting the field for the history and present day situation of the English language In text types a designation is linked with a more or less stable form which guides the writer's production as well as the reader's expectation permitting one to recognize straightforward uses as well as deliberate misuses Some two thousand of such designations are here listed with minimal definitions and dates for first occurrences The discussion then concentrates on selected types which are seen as especially illustrative for English book dedications cooking recipes advertisements church hymns lexical entries and jokes Their functions and development over time are treated in correlation with their specific linguistic characteristics and adaptations to different period styles and social changes in the readership The functional range of text types in traditions outside England and the consequences of the export of English categories are exemplified by the history of Scots Scottish English and of English in India The arguments are accompanied by a lavish supply of textual excerpts and more than fifty pages of facsimiles which are especially relevant for insights derived from typographical features A full bibliography and indices are provided at the end The book will prove useful for decisions on the constitution of representative text corpora and stimulate research into a greater number of individual text types as well as contrastive analyses at least among European languages Under the Rock Umbrella William J. Walsh, 2006 American poet born between 1951 and 1977 who was not influenced by popular music and the paradigm shift that occurred in the country Under the Rock Umbrella brings together the best poets influenced by this powerful era in music to allow us to examine the music of each poet s own verse Mercer University Press Life John Ames Mitchell, 1903 Mid-American Review , 2003 Life , 1902
