Authentic Discipleship Martin Harris, 2019-02-06 Authentic discipleship is a step by step method for achieving Christian spiritual maturity It is a Bible based process using 2 Peter chapter 1 as its source The Apostle Peter reveals the process at the end of his life where he is expressing his concern for the spiritual well being of his flock The process reveals the actual expectations of the Lord for the spiritual development of Christian people for ministry and how to accomplish it The people were first called Christians at Antioch because they followed the teachings of Christ The term was meant to be derogatory but was never considered so by them They not only followed Him but also actually intended to allow the Living Savior to express Himself through them even as John the Baptist cried out He must increase but I must decrease The more Christlike we can become the greater our discipleship is realized It is the aim of this book to help Christians who so desire to realize their goal as the Lord permits

The Heart Has Its Reasons Beata Toth, 2016-05-26 The Heart Has Its Reasons explores a hitherto neglected area of theological anthropology the unity of human emotion and reason embodied in the Biblical concept of the heart While the theological contours of human rationality have long been clearly drawn and presented as the exclusive seat of the image of God affectivity has been relegated to a secondary position With the reintegration of the body into recent philosophical and theological discourses a number of questions have arisen if the image also resides in the body how does this change one's view of the theological significance of human affect In what way is our likeness to God realised in the whole of what we are Can one overcome the traditional dissociation between intellect and affect by a renewed theory of love In conversation with patristic and medieval authors like Irenaeus Tertullian Gregory of Nyssa Maximus and Thomas Aquinas and in dialogue with more recent interlocutors such as Blaise Pascal Ricoeur Marion Milbank and John Paul II Beata Toth pursues a novel theological vision of the essential unity of our humanity
