Love In Two Languages

Michaela Hulstyn

Love In Two Languages:

Love in Two Languages Abdelkebir Khatibi, 1990 Told as a love story between a French woman and a North African Arab man this novel explores the complex issues surrounding the colonialist relationship between cultures Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Unselfing Michaela Hulstyn, 2022-08-31 Altered states of consciousness including experiences of deprivation pain hallucination fear desire alienation and spiritual transcendence can transform the ordinary experience of selfhood Unselfing explores the nature of disruptive self experiences and the different shapes they have taken in literary writing The book focuses on the tension between rival conceptions of unselfing as either a form of productive self transcendence or a form of alienating self loss Michaela Hulstyn explores the shapes and meanings of unselfing through the framework of the global French literary world encompassing texts by modernist figures in France and Belgium alongside writers from Algeria Rwanda and Morocco Together these diverse texts prompt a re evaluation of the consequences of the loss or the transcendence of the self Through a series of close readings Hulstyn offers a new account of the ethical questions raised by altered states and shows how philosophies of empathy can be tested against and often challenged by literary works Drawing on cognitive science and phenomenology Unselfing provides a new methodology for approaching texts that give shape to the fringes of conscious experience

The Paradox of Love Pascal Bruckner, 2012-02-13 A provocative reflection on the dilemmas of modern love The sexual revolution is justly celebrated for the freedoms it brought birth control the decriminalization of abortion the liberalization of divorce greater equality between the sexes women's massive entry into the workforce and more tolerance of homosexuality But as Pascal Bruckner one of France's leading writers argues in this lively and provocative reflection on the contradictions of modern love our new freedoms have also brought new burdens and rules without however wiping out the old rules emotions desires and arrangements the couple marriage jealousy the demand for fidelity the war between constancy and inconstancy It is no wonder that love sex and relationships today are so confusing so difficult and so paradoxical Drawing on history politics psychology literature pop culture and current events this book a best seller in France exposes and dissects these paradoxes With his customary brilliance and wit Bruckner traces the roots of sexual liberation back to the Enlightenment in order to explain love s supreme paradox epitomized by the 1960s oxymoron of free love the tension between freedom which separates and love which attaches Ashamed that our sex lives fail to live up to such liberated ideals we have traded neuroses of repression for neuroses of inadequacy and we overcompensate Our parents lied about their morality Bruckner writes but we lie about our immorality Mixing irony and optimism Bruckner argues that when it comes to love we should side neither with the revolutionaries nor the reactionaries Rather taking love and ourselves as we are we should realize that love makes no progress and that its messiness surprises and paradoxes are not merely the sources of its pain but also of its pleasure and glory relationships worldwide Whether your relationship is flourishing or failing Dr Gary Chapman s proven approach to showing and receiving love will help you experience deeper and richer levels of intimacy with your partner starting today The 5 Love Languages is as practical as it is insightful Updated to reflect the complexities of relationships in today s world this new edition reveals intrinsic truths and applies relevant actionable wisdom in ways that work Key Topics in Second Language Acquisition Vivian Cook,David Singleton,2014-04-03 This textbook offers an introductory overview of eight hotly debated topics in second language acquisition research It offers a glimpse of how SLA researchers have tried to answer common questions about second language acquisition rather than being a comprehensive introduction to SLA research Each chapter comprises an introductory discussion of the issues involved and suggestions for further reading and study The reader is asked to consider the issues based on their own experiences thus allowing them to compare their own intuitions and experiences with established research findings and gain an understanding of methodology The topics are treated independently so that they can be read in any order that interests the reader Developing a Loving Pedagogy in the Early Years Tamsin Grimmer,2021-05-26 Care and caring are key to early childhood education and yet love can be viewed as a taboo word within early childhood settings This book guides practitioners through the potentially problematic area of loving the children they care for It shows where a loving pedagogy can fit within professional practice and how this can enrich experiences for children and educators The book explores how educators can support their children by holding them in mind valuing them and promoting their best interests Focusing on how relationships attachment and connections underpin our settings and practice the chapters cover the fundamentals of professional love appropriate touch in practice the different ways in which children feel loved the rights of the child empowering children through love working with parents and carers Including case studies and questions for reflection this is vital reading for practitioners wanting to develop a nurturing and loving pedagogy that places the child at the centre of their practice Love, Language, Place, and Identity in Popular Culture María Ramos-García,Laura Vivanco,2020-01-31 Love Language Place and Identity in Popular Culture Romancing the Other explores the varied representations of Otherness in romance novels and other fiction with strong romantic plots Contributors approaches range from sociolinguistics to cultural studies and the texts analyzed are set on four continents with particular emphasis on Caribbean and Atlantic islands What all the essays have in common is the exploration of representations of the Other be it in an inter racial or inter cultural relationship Chapters are divided into two parts the first examines place travel history and language in 20th century texts while the second explores tensions and transformations in the depiction of Otherness mainly in texts published in the early 21st century This book reveals that even at the end of the 20th century these texts display neocolonialist attitudes towards the Other While more recent texts show noticeable changes in attitudes these changes can often fall short as stereotypes and prejudices are often still present just below the surface in popular novels The understudied field of popular romance in which the Other is frequently present as a love interest proves to be a fruitful area in which to explore the potential and the realities of the treatment of Otherness in popular culture Scholars of literature communication romance and rhetoric will find this book particularly useful Touching Love: The English Language at Heart Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-08 Touching Love The English Language at Heart is a love letter to the English language a celebration of its beauty power and endless possibilities Within its pages you will discover The tapestry of words Explore the origins meanings and relationships of words revealing the hidden stories behind our language The symphony of grammar Understand the rules and structures that govern our speech and writing enabling us to communicate with clarity and precision The canvas of literature Journey through the timeless landscapes of literature from classic novels to contemporary poetry and appreciate the power of words to paint vivid pictures and evoke deep emotions The alchemy of storytelling Discover the secrets of crafting compelling stories learning how to develop characters build suspense and create unforgettable narratives The lexicon of love Delve into the language of love exploring the words and phrases that express our deepest emotions and connections The Rosetta Stone of translation Understand the challenges and rewards of translating languages and appreciate the role of language as a bridge between cultures The atlas of linguistics Embark on a linguistic expedition exploring the diverse languages spoken around the world and discovering the fascinating ways in which they shape our thoughts and experiences The future of language Gaze into the crystal ball of language considering the impact of technology globalization and artificial intelligence on the way we communicate Whether you are a student eager to improve your communication skills a writer seeking inspiration or simply someone who loves the beauty of language Touching Love The English Language at Heart has something for you Join us on a journey into the heart of the English language and discover its endless wonders If you like this book write a review on google books

Language, Normativity and Europeanisation Heiko Motschenbacher, 2016-12-23 This book focuses on linguistic practices of identity construction in a popular culture media context the Eurovision Song Contest Subscribing to a normativity based approach to critical discourse analysis it studies Europeanisation as it surfaces at the discursive interface of European national and sexual identities in Eurovision lyrics and performances Research in critical discourse analysis that deals with Europeanisation or the discursive work involved in European identity formation has so far mainly studied data from EU political contexts that illustrate a top down approach to what Europeanness means The present book complements this earlier research in several ways focusing on the linguistic construction of identities and its interrelation with non linguistic modes of signification in the Eurovision Song Contest Discursive mechanisms that prove to be central for the normative shifts of Europeanisation in the given context are de essentialisation inclusion camp crossing and languaging
