Colonization Or Globalization? Silvia Nagy-Zekmi,Chantal J. Zabus,2010-01-01 The essays in this volume present new scholarship on imperial expansion through colonization and globalization from a variety of postcolonial perspectives Most of the articles are grounded in literary works National identities and imageries are scrutinized deconstructing the modernist and utopian idea of a nation as a site of homogeneity and reviewing the importance of the changing concept of identity in the different phases of decolonization Questions of Poetics Barrett Watten,2016-07-01 Questions of Poetics is Barrett Watten s major reassessment of the political history social formation and literary genealogy of Language writing A key participant in the emergent bicoastal poetic avant garde as poet editor and publisher Watten has developed over three decades of writing in poetics a sustained account of its theory and practice The present volume represents the core of Watten s critical writing and public lecturing since the millennium taking up the historical origins and continuity of Language writing from its beginnings to the present Each chapter is a theoretical inquiry into an aspect of poetics in an expanded sense from the relation of experimental poetry to cultural logics of liberation and political economy to questions of community and the politics of the avant garde to the cultural contexts where it is produced and intervenes Each serves as a kind of thought experiment that theorizes and assesses the consequences of Language writing in expanded fields of meaning that include history political theory art history and narrative theory While all are grounded in a series of baseline questions of poetics they also polemically address the currently turbulent debates on the politics of the avant garde especially Language writing among emerging communities of poets In manifold ways Watten masterfully demonstrates the aesthetic and political aims of Language writing its influence on emerging literary schools and its present aesthetic critical and political horizons Questions of Poetics will be a major point of reference in continuing debates on poetry and literary history a critical reexamination for already familiar readers and a clearly presented introduction for new ones The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire. purposes to this project but the genesis is in articulating a cultural shift from image to text The subject this particular holocaust was chosen because the images are shared in our collective memory by presenting only the text the reader is hopefully consigned into a more complicit experience

Reed,2013-07-12 Since the turn of the new millennium English language verse has entered a new historical phase but explanations vary as to what has actually happened and why What might constitute a viable avant garde poetics in the aftermath of such momentous developments as 9 11 globalization and the financial crisis Much of this discussion has taken place in ephemeral venues such as blogs e zines public lectures and conferences Nobody's Business is the first book to treat the emergence of Flarf and Conceptual Poetry in a serious way In his engaging account Brian M Reed argues that these movements must be understood in relation to the proliferation of digital communications technologies and their integration into the corporate workplace Writers such as Andrea Brady Craig Dworkin Kenneth Goldsmith Danny Snelson and Rachel Zolf specifically target for criticism the institutions skill sets and values that make possible the smooth functioning of a postindustrial globalized economy Authorship comes in for particular scrutiny how does writing a poem differ in any meaningful way from other forms of content providing While often adept at using new technologies these writers nonetheless choose to explore anachronism ineptitude and error as aesthetic and political strategies The results can appear derivative tedious or vulgar they can also be stirring compelling and even sublime As Reed sees it this new generation of writers is carrying on the Duchampian practice of generating antiart that both challenges prevalent definitions of art and calls into question the legitimacy of the institutions that define it
