Willison, 1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

Facing the Past Ann Beaglehole, 2015-12-16 In her first book A Small Price to Pay Ann Beaglehole traced the experiences of European refugees to New Zealand in the 1930s In Facing the Past she focuses on the lives of a younger generation the children of those wartime immigrants whose perceptions and experiences of both the old and the new world were very different from their parents At school in the neighbourhood or on the sportsfield many of them were painfully aware of being outsiders in a society unused to cultural diversity Yet their need to belong was frequently complicated by loyalty to the very different ideals and expectations of their parents As one of them comments I was getting two messages the always remember message and the start from now message Based on a wide range of interviews as well as documentary evidence from second generation refugees worldwide this is a fascinating account of the lives of immigrant children growing up in the decades between the 1940s and 1960s
