Mexico at the World's Fairs Mauricio Tenorio-Trillo, 2024-06-12 This intriguing study of Mexico's participation in world's fairs from 1889 to 1929 explores Mexico's self-presentation at these fairs as a reflection of the country's drive toward nationalization and a modernized image. Mauricio Tenorio Trillo contrasts Mexico's presence at the 1889 Paris fair where its display was the largest and most expensive Mexico has ever mounted with Mexico's presence after the 1910 Mexican Revolution at fairs in Rio de Janeiro in 1922 and Seville in 1929. Rather than seeing the revolution as a sharp break, Tenorio Trillo points to important continuities between the pre and post-revolution periods. He also discusses how internationally the character of world's fairs was radically transformed during this time from the Eiffel Tower prototype encapsulating a wondrous symbolic universe to the Disneyland model of commodified entertainment. Drawing on cultural, intellectual, urban, literary, social, and art histories, Tenorio Trillo's thorough and imaginative study presents a broad cultural history of Mexico from 1880 to 1930 set within the context of the origins of Western nationalism, cosmopolitanism, and modernism. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1997.

World Literature in Spanish Maureen Ihrie, Salvador Oropesa, 2011-10-20 Containing roughly 850 entries about Spanish language literature throughout the world, this expansive work provides coverage of the varied countries, ethnicities, time periods, literary movements, and genres of these writings. Providing a thorough introduction to Spanish language literature worldwide and across time, it is a tall order. However, World Literature in Spanish: An Encyclopedia contains roughly 850 entries on both major and minor authors, themes, genres, and topics of Spanish literature from the Middle Ages to the present day, affording an amazingly comprehensive reference collection in a single work. This encyclopedia describes the growing diversity within national borders, the increasing interdependence among nations, and the myriad impacts of Spanish literature across the globe. All countries that produce literature in Spanish in Europe, Africa, the Americas, and Asia are represented, covering both canonical authors and emerging contemporary writers and trends. Underrepresented writings such as texts by women, writers, queer, and Afro-Hispanic texts, children's literature, and works on relevant but less studied topics such as sports and nationalism also appear. While writings throughout the centuries are covered, those of the 20th and 21st centuries receive special consideration.

World Fairs and the Global Moulding of National Identities, 2021-11-01 This volume examines the role of the broad variety of international exhibitions between 1851 and 1958 in two programmatic essays and twelve case studies covering not just France and the United States but also, among others, Sweden, Romania, Colombia, Japan, and the nascent European Community. World fairs were global platforms for the construction of national identities. The mix of national self-profiling and commercial exoticism turned the nation into a brand.

while reframing the nation state from its nineteenth century positioning amidst neighbouring enemies towards being a competitor in a global consumer oriented trade and entertainment economy By presenting national identities in banal form as feelgood factors world fairs helped the nation to maintain its grassroots appeal across the century of totalitarianism and internationalism Contributors are Joep Leerssen Eric Storm Florian Gro Anthony Swift Cosmin Minea Claire Hendren Taka Oshikiri Robert W Rydell Sven Schuster Miriam Oesterreich Bartosz Dziewanowski Stefa czyk Christina Romlid Jonathan Voges and Anastasia Remes
