MI6 Stephen Dorril,2002 MI6 Stephen Dorril,2000 Shortlisted for the 2013 Nursery World Awards Margaret Carr s seminal work on Learning Stories was first published by SAGE in 2001 and this widely acclaimed approach to assessment has since gained a huge international following In this new full colour book the authors outline the philosophy behind Learning Stories and refer to the latest findings from the research projects they have led with teachers on learning dispositions and learning power to argue that Learning Stories can construct learner identities in early childhood settings and schools By making the connection between sociocultural approaches to pedagogy and assessment and narrative inquiry this book contextualizes Learning Stories as a philosophical approach to education learning and pedagogy Chapters explore how Learning Stories help make connections with families support the inclusion of children and family voices tell us stories about babies allow children to dictate their own stories can be used to revisit children s learning journeys can contribute to teaching and learning wisdom This ground breaking book expands on the concept of Learning Stories and includes examples from practice in both New Zealand and the UK It outlines the philosophy behind this pedagogical tool for documenting how learning identities are constructed and shows through research evidence why the early years is such a critical time in the formation of learning dispositions Margaret Carr is a Professor of Education at the University of Waikato New Zealand Wendy Lee is Director of the Educational Leadership Project New Zealand

The First Royal Media War Adrian Phillips,2023-06-30 The abdication crisis of 1936 demolished the wall of silent deference that had protected the British royal family from press comment and intrusion since the days of Queen Victoria King Edward VIII was a child of the burgeoning age of media and the first celebrity monarch but the immense personal popularity created by his charm and good looks was not enough to save him when he came into conflict with a government that embodied the conservative ethos of the time Nor did the support of powerful media barons In the United States William Randolph Hearst who inspired Citizen Kane dreamed of giving Britain an American Queen and maneuvered with Wallis Simpson to place her on the throne In Britain the Anglo Canadian newspaper magnate Lord Beaverbrook hoped to use the confrontation between the King and the government to force the prime minister his bitter enemy Stanley Baldwin out of power Edward was blocked from broadcasting his case directly to the public which was the source of deep resentment to him The government treated the couple s media initiatives as declarations of war and was prepared to respond savagely The British press remained tactfully silent almost until the end of the crisis but behind the scenes a cold war was being fought For the rest of his life Edward fought to air his grievances against the ill treatment to which he thought that he had been subjected He believed that he had been forced to abdicate by a coalition of reactionaries grouped behind the Archbishop of Canterbury Edward resented bitterly the ostracism to which he and Wallis were subjected by his brother and sister in law King George VI and Queen Elizabeth especially the refusal to grant his wife royal status With sometimes farcical results Edward tried to find authors who put over his side of the story

Beaverbrook supported Edward but tried to bend Edward's quest to fit his own agenda. The establishment did its utmost to restrain Edward and maintain a discreet silence over the crisis but gradually members of the royal court abandoned reticence and fought back. The abdication challenged the British monarchy as an institution. A large part of the legacy is today's no holds barred media environment where the royal family's issues are fought in a ruthless glare of worldwide attention.

Decision Making in Complex Environments Jan Noyes, 2017-09-18 Many complex systems in civil and military operations are highly automated with the intention of supporting human performance in difficult cognitive tasks. The complex systems can involve teams or individuals working on real time supervisory control command or information management tasks where a number of constraints must be satisfied. Decision Making in Complex Environments addresses the role of the human, the technology and the processes in complex socio technical and technological systems. The aim of the book is to apply a multi disciplinary perspective to the examination of the human factors in complex decision making. It contains more than 30 contributions on key subjects such as military human factors, team decision making, issues, situation awareness and technology support. In addition to the major application area of military human factors, there are chapters on business, medical, governmental and aeronautical decision making. The book provides a unique blend of expertise from psychology, human factors, industry, commercial environments, the military, computer science, organizational psychology and training that should be valuable to academics and practitioners alike.

The Last Cambridge Spy Chris Smith, 2019-05-13 John Cairncross was among the most damaging spies of the twentieth century. A member of the infamous Cambridge Ring of Five, he leaked highly sensitive documents from Bletchley Park, MI6 and the Treasury to the Soviet Union, including the first atomic secrets and raw decrypts from Enigma and Tunny that influenced the outcome of the Battle of Kursk. In 2014, Cairncross appeared as a secondary though key character in the biopic of Alan Turing's life, The Imitation Game. While the other members of the Cambridge Ring of Five have been the subject of extensive biographical study, Cairncross has largely been overlooked by both academic and popular writers. Despite clear interest, he has remained a mystery until now. The Last Cambridge Spy is the first ever biography of John Cairncross, using newly released material to tell the story of his life and espionage.

Castles Made of Sand Andre Gerolymatos, 2025-09-23 Extensively researched with detailed source notes and an expansive bibliography and cogently argued, Gerolymatos's study of diplomacy by espionage is timely and instructive. Publishers Weekly. With roots in imperialism and the nineteenth century mindset of the Great Game, Western nations have waged an intricate spy game this past century to establish control over the Middle East, secure access to key resources and regions of commerce and prevent the spread of Soviet communism into the region. From the Suez Canal to the former Ottoman Empire, British and American intelligence communities have conspired to topple regimes and initiate Muslim leaders as pawns in a geopolitical chess game fought against Marxist expansion. Yet while the Iron Curtain was doomed to fall near the end of the twentieth century, this pattern of tunnel vision has created a different monster. The resulting resurgence of

Muslim radicalism and the induction of Arabs and other Muslims into the dark arts of espionage and sabotage have only served to fan the flames in an already incendiary region and deepen the tensions between the Middle East and the West today An authority on international studies and the history of guerilla warfare Andr Gerolymatos offers the contemporary reader insight into the intelligence game that is still waged internationally with lethal intent and into the Middle Eastern terrorist networks that had evolved over the decades In this definitive account of covert operations in the Middle East the author brings to life the extraordinary men and women whose successes and failures have shaped relations and he reveals how the explosive nature of the region today has direct roots in the history of American and Western intervention

Assassins Boris Volodarsky, 2020-02-19 A look at the events surrounding the 2006 poisoning of a former Russian security officer in Great Britain In November 1998 Alexander Litvinenko a former lieutenant colonel of the Russian security service or FSB along with several former colleagues publicly stated that their superiors had instigated an assassination attempt on a Russian tycoon and oligarch Following his subsequent arrest and failed trials Litvinenko fled to London where having been granted asylum he worked as a journalist and writer as well as acting as a consultant for the British intelligence services Eight years later Litvinenko s past caught up with him when he was assassinated in London On November 1 2006 Litvinenko was suddenly taken ill and hospitalized He passed away twenty two days later Significant amounts of a rare highly toxic element were subsequently found in his body Before his death Litvinenko had said You may succeed in silencing one man but the howl of protest from around the world Mr Putin will reverberate in your ears for the rest of your life Author Boris Volodarsky who was consulted by the Metropolitan Police during the investigation and remains in close contact with Litvinenko s widow details the events surrounding Litvinenko s murder Volodarsky updates the story referring to the findings of the official British inquiry on the release of which Prime Minister David Cameron condemned Putin for presiding over state sponsored murder The author proves that the Litvinenko s poisoning is just one of many Some of these assassinations or attempted assassinations are already known others are revealed by him for the first time The Life and Mysterious Death of Ian MacKintosh Robert G. Folsom, 2012 Ian Mackintosh was Scottish former naval intelligence officer turned writer whose first show was the acclaimed BBC series Warship In July 1979 Mackintosh and his girlfriend disappeared over the Pacific Ocean near Alaska in a small area not covered by either US or USSR radar No wreckage of their aircraft or bodies was ever recovered First in depth exploration of the life and death of the creator of The Sandbaggers and a behind the scenes look at the show Walter Goodman of The New York Times called the best spy series in the television history Aired in UK from 1978 1980 produced for Yorkshire Television The Sandbaggers was sold in syndication to PBS stations from mid 1980s to mid 1990s No nationwide broadcast but stations in select markets ran the series extensively due to popular demand Mrs Petrova's Shoe Wilhelm Agrell, 2019-02-21 Two men are holding a woman between them in a firm grip In one hand she is carrying her handbag the other she places on her heart The man on her right stares into the camera his colleague stares resolutely ahead But there is something else something missing The despairing woman is wearing only one shoe On 19 April 1954 the world was gripped by an unfolding drama at Sydney Airport A small seemingly fragile woman was being aggressively marched to an awaiting plane by two burly men Evdokia Petrova was the wife of Soviet diplomat Vladimir Petrov who two weeks earlier had defected from the embassy in Canberra after a prolonged cultivation by the Australian Security Service supported by MI5 Evdokia was now being hurried back to Moscow by the KGB The subsequent intervention by Australian Prime Minister Robert Menzies kept the world's media on tenterhooks But who were the couple at the centre of this global news story After the defection it turned out that Evdokia was in fact an even bigger catch than her husband With a background both in cryptological work in Moscow and in field operations she was able to supply Western intelligence with a wealth of information and insight into the workings of the Soviet intelligence system With access to newly released archives and sources this book sheds extraordinary new light on the two people at the heart of the Petrov Affair one of the most bizarre stories of the Cold War era

World War in Syria A.B. Abrams, 2021-07-01 World War in Syria answers questions that will have continued relevance beyond the country's borders for years to come Impressive in its scholarship pondered in its judgements above all searing in its dissection of Western powers war on Syria waged over many decades the book is a must have on the bookshelves of any serious fair minded student of Syria Peter Ford British Ambassador to Syria from 2003 to 2006 The most detailed history of the war in Syria so far providing a richness of highly interesting details as well as a critical analysis of its complex international and domestic dimensions rarely encountered in other Western publications Nikolaos van Dam former Special Envoy for Syria 2015-16 Ambassador of the Netherlands to Iraq Egypt Turkey Germany and Indonesia Author of Destroying a Nation The civil war in Syria A B Abrams explores the widening scope of the Syrian conflict in his important book Solving Syria's civil war will require a regional approach engaging stakeholders whose interests are fundamentally opposed David L Phillips Director Program on Peace building and Rights Columbia University Institute for the Study of Human Rights Abrams is a meticulous guide to the labyrinth of Syria's modern political history Richard W Murphy U S Ambassador to Syria 1974 to 1978 Consul in Aleppo Syria 1960 to 1963 A B Abrams has written an extremely informative and illuminating account on the international dimension of the origins outbreak and evolution of the Syrian conflict His empirically rich analysis in this nuanced and comprehensive study make it one of the best books if not the best book written about the Syrian crisis This book is a MUST read for anyone who wants to understand the Syrian conflict the Middle East and the role of the great powers in the region Jubin Goodarzi Professor and Deputy Head of International Relations Webster University Geneva Former consultant and political adviser on Middle Eastern affairs for the UNHCR An insightful and dispassionate record of the Syrian Maelstrom and the West's role as the Sorcerer's Apprentice John Holmes Major General and Director Special Forces ret British Army
