OUR TREES STILL GROW IN DEHRA Ruskin Bond, 2011-01-03 Fourteen engaging stories from one of India's master story tellers. Semi autobiographical in nature, these stories span the period from the author's childhood to the present. We are introduced in a series of beautifully imagined and crafted cameos to the author's family friends and various other people who left a lasting impression on him. In other stories, we revisit Bond's beloved Garhwal hills and the small towns and villages that he has returned to time and again in his fiction. Together with his well-known novella A Flight of Pigeons which was made into the film Junoon which also appears in this collection, these stories once again bring Ruskin Bond's India vividly to life.

But the degree to which the ever changing English community that guards and administers India differs from the settled inhabitants of Canada or Australia is at the same time an explanation of the main peculiarities of that literature and also the measure of the difficulty which confronts any attempt to define it. Anglo Indian literature, as regards the greater part of it, is the literature of a comparatively small body of Englishmen who during the working part of their own life that they seldom take root in its soil. On the contrary, they strive to remain English in thought and aspiration by occasional periods of residence in England; they keep themselves intimate touch with English life and culture throughout the period of their life in India; they are subject to the influence of two civilizations but they never lose bias towards that of England which in most cases ultimately reabsorbs them. Ruskin Bond's World Gulnaz Fatma, 2013-12-01 Ruskin Bond has won the hearts of millions of readers with his countless charming short stories and introspective novels.
