Novel Configurations Allan H. Pasco, 1994 During a period when the field of literary studies turned away from texts to theory Novel Configurations A Study of French Fiction has become an underground classic Although it proposes a theory that theory is inductive and solidly based in real works of fiction While looking again at significant masterpieces that range from the early nineteenth to the late twentieth centuries from the creations of traditional French writers to that of an Argentine who spent most of his productive life in France Allan H Pasco has perceptively indicted new but valid close readings that have revolutionized our view of these works He suggests that La Chartreuse de Parme is rigorously organized that Balzac was a narrational minimalist that Huysmans developed novelistic strategies that would be played out in the Nouvelle Roman that Proust intended good readers to come away from A la recherche du temps perdu with very different but complementary interpretations that Robbe-Grillet's La Jalousie turns on a plot that seems strange only because it takes place in the mind of the narrator From these philologically sophisticated interpretations Pasco lucidly elegantly and wittily points to categories that include all fiction Concentrating on patterns and description on the one hand and external and internal organization on the other Novel configurations proposes a new classification that can be easily taught to novices though it will help even professional readers understand the most complex fictional innovations     ...Sixteen 2-character Plays Pauline Phelps, Marion Short, 1906     A Collection of Statutes Connected with the General Administration of the Law Great Britain, 1817     The Hamlet Noel Polk, John D. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1952 Racial Culture Richard T. Ford,2009-01-10 What is black culture Does it have an essence What do we lose and gain by assuming that it does and by building our laws accordingly This bold and provocative book questions the common presumption of political multiculturalism that social categories such as race ethnicity gender and sexuality are defined by distinctive cultural practices Richard Ford argues against law reform proposals that would attempt to apply civil rights protections to cultural difference Unlike many criticisms of multiculturalism which worry about reverse discrimination or the erosion of core Western cultural values the book's argument is primarily focused on the adverse effects of multicultural rhetoric and multicultural rights on their supposed beneficiaries In clear and compelling prose Ford argues that multicultural accounts of cultural difference do not accurately describe the practices of social groups Instead these accounts are prescriptive they attempt to canonize a narrow parochial and contestable set of ideas about appropriate group culture and to discredit more cosmopolitan lifestyles commitments and values The book argues that far from remedying discrimination and status hierarchy cultural rights share the ideological presuppositions and participate in the discursive and institutional practices of racism sexism and homophobia Ford offers specific examples in support of this thesis in diverse contexts such as employment discrimination affirmative action and transracial adoption This is a major contribution to our understanding of today's politics of race by one of the most distinctive and important young voices in America's legal academy Provocative Lisa Renee Jones,2023-06-12 Book one in the sexy and scintillating new White Lies Duet by Lisa Renee Jones There are those moments in life that are provocative in their very existence that embed in our minds forever and sometimes our very souls They change us mold us maybe even save us But some are darker dangerous If we allow them to they control us Seduce us Quite possibly even destroy us The moment I walked into Sonoma's Reid Winter Winery and Vineyard and made eye contact with Faith Winter for the first time was one of those moments Provocative because I know at least one of her secrets of which I suspect she has many Provocative because she believes I was a stranger to her when we met but I am not Provocative because I sought her out with no intention of touching her But now I have Now I want her Now I have to have her But that changes nothing It doesn't change why I came for her The Fair Syrian Robert Bage,1787 *California.
