Renewal Mark Wild,2019-03-21 In the decades following World War II a movement of clergy and laity sought to restore liberal Protestantism to the center of American urban life Chastened by their failure to avert war and the Holocaust and troubled by missionaries complicity with colonial regimes they redirected their energies back home Renewal explores the rise and fall of this movement which began as an effort to restore the church s standing but wound up as nothing less than an openhearted crusade to remake our nation s cities These campaigns reached beyond church walls to build or lend a hand to scores of organizations fighting for welfare social justice and community empowerment among the increasingly nonwhite urban working class Church leaders extended their efforts far beyond traditional evangelicalism often dovetailing with many of the contemporaneous social currents coursing through the nation including black freedom movements and the War on Poverty Renewal illuminates the overlooked story of how religious institutions both shaped and were shaped by postwar urban America

Christian Tradition Today

Jeffrey C. K. Goh, 2000 This study critically examines the postliberal project with special reference to George Lindbeck the founding father of postliberalism In an age of profound cultural change is it feasible to locate the future of the Church and of the world on a consensus building hermeneutic that dwells in the particularity of the Christian Scripture as its exclusive home Seeing the theological task as a hermeneutical task founded upon the premise that truth is revealed in a dialectical way the author provides an intelligible framework for dialogue with the postliberal school of thought This dialogue he argues is ultimately determined by the overarching question of what it means to be Church Towards a critical synthesis of the ecclesiological impact of this dialogue the author offers a tightly argued and informative discussion on five pairs of key concepts tradition and authority Bible and de Christianization hermeneutics and revelation religion and experience doctrine and truth
