The background of the slide is a photograph of an ancient Egyptian wall painting. The painting is divided into several horizontal registers. The top register shows a row of small, stylized figures, possibly representing a family or a group of deities. Below this, there are several larger scenes. On the left, a figure with a blue head (possibly a deity or a personified concept) is shown in a ritualistic pose, holding a staff or a scepter. In the center, three figures are walking: a man in a white kilt, a woman in a white dress, and another figure in a green dress. On the right, a figure is seated on a chair, holding a staff, while another figure stands beside them. The painting is filled with hieroglyphs and other symbols, indicating its religious or funerary nature.
