Lived Religion in America David D. Hall,2020-09-01 At once historically and theoretically informed these essays invite the reader to think of religion dynamically reconsidering American religious history in terms of practices that are linked to specific social contexts The point of departure is the concept of lived religion Discussing such topics as gift exchange cremation hymn singing and women s spirituality a group of leading sociologists and historians of religion explore the many facets of how people carry out their religious beliefs on a daily basis As David Hall notes in his introduction a history of practices encompasses the tensions the ongoing struggle of definition that are constituted within every religious tradition and that are always present in how people choose to act Practice thus suggests that any synthesis is provisional The volume opens with two essays by Robert Orsi and Dani le Hervieu L ger that offer an overview of the rapidly growing study of lived religion with Hervieu L ger using the Catholic charismatic renewal movement in France as a window through which to explore the coexistence of regulation and spontaneity within religious practice Anne S Brown and David D Hall examine family strategies and church membership in early New England Leigh Eric Schmidt looks at the complex meanings of gift giving in America Stephen Prothero writes about the cremation movement in the late nineteenth century In an essay on the narrative structure of Mrs Cowman s Streams in the Desert Cheryl Forbes considers the devotional lives of everyday women Michael McNally uses the practice of hymn singing among the Ojibwa to reexamine the categories of native and Christian religion In essays centering on domestic life Rebecca Kneale Gould investigates modern homesteading as lived religion while R Marie Griffith treats home oriented spirituality in the Women s Aglow Fellowship In Golden Rule Christianity Nancy Ammerman talks about lived religion in the American mainstream related endeavors      Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, 2008-06-10 The Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature originally published in 2005 is a landmark work in the burgeoning field of religion and nature. It covers a vast and interdisciplinary range of material from thinkers to religious traditions and beyond with clarity and style. Widely praised by reviewers and the recipient of two reference work awards since its publication, see www.religionandnature.com/ern. This new, more affordable version is a must-have book for anyone interested in the manifold and fascinating links between religion and nature in all their many senses.

Dark Green Religion Bron Raymond Taylor, 2010 A love of green may be a human universal. Deepening the palette of green scholarship, Bron Taylor proves remarkably to be both an encyclopedist and a visionary. Jonathan Benthall, author of Returning to Religion: Why a Secular Age is Haunted by Faith. This important book provides insight into how a profound sense of relation to nature offers many in the modern world a vehicle for attaining a spiritual wholeness akin to what has been historically associated with established religion. In this sense, Dark Green Religion offers both understanding and hope for a world struggling for meaning and purpose beyond the isolation of the material here and now. Stephen Kellert, Yale University School of Forestry and Environmental Studies. In this thought-provoking volume, Bron Taylor explores the seemingly boundless efforts by human beings to understand the nature of life and our place in the universe. Examining in depth the ways in which influential philosophers and naturalists have viewed this relationship, Taylor contributes to the further development of thought in this critically important area where our depth of understanding will play a critical role in our survival. Peter H. Raven, President, Missouri Botanical Garden. Carefully researched, strongly argued, originally conceived, and very well executed, this book is a vital contribution on a subject of immense religious, political, and environmental importance. It is also a great read. Roger S. Gottlieb, author of A Greener Faith: Religious Environmentalism and our Planet's Future. A fascinating analysis of our emotional and spiritual relationship to nature. Whether you call it dark green religion or something else, Bron Taylor takes us through our spiritual relationship with our planet, its ecosystems, and evolution in an enlightened and completely undogmatic manner. Dr. Claude Martin, Former Director General, World Wildlife Fund. An excellent collection of guideposts for perplexed students and scholars about the relationships of nature, religions, spirituality, animism, pantheism, deep ecology, Gaia, and land ethics, and for the environmentalist seeking to make the world a better place through green religion as a social force. Fikret Berkes, author of Sacred Ecology: Traditional Ecological Knowledge and Resource Management. Dark Green Religion shows conclusively how nature has inspired a growing religious movement on the planet, contesting the long reign of many older faiths. Taylor expertly guides us through an astonishing array of thinkers, past and present, who have embraced in part or whole the new religion. I was thoroughly convinced that this movement has indeed become a major force on Earth with great potential consequences for our environmental ethics. Donald Worster, University of Kansas. In this exceptionally interesting and informative book, Bron Taylor has harvested the fruits of years of pioneering research in what amounts to a new field in religious studies: the study of how religious/spiritual themes show up in the work of people concerned about nature in many diverse ways Taylor persuasively argues that appreciation of nature's sacred or spiritual dimension both informs and motivates the work of individuals ranging from radical environmentalists and surfers to eco tourism leaders and museum curators I highly recommend this book for everyone interested learning more about the surprising extent to which religious spiritual influences many of those who work to protect to exhibit or to represent the natural world Michael E Zimmerman Director Center for Humanities and the Arts University of Colorado at Boulder     Views of Religion ,1906     Religion as Man's Completion Rudolph Michael Binder,1927     The Congregationalist ,1921     The Writings of John Burroughs John Burroughs,1913
