Rogers, 2017-04-14 This book seeks to clarify and demonstrate the incalculable and injurious influence that progressive education has had and is having upon preaching thinking Christianly and the local church Progressive education began at the turn of the twentieth century replacing classical education with what is purportedly a science based education which necessarily results in scientism This seismic shift in public education has not only affected what we learn but how we think In order to enable the church to detect progressivism s deleterious sway and protect herself by being equipped with the progressive revelation of God and thereby counter the influence of progressive education of man I seek to highlight some of the underlying intolerable essentials of progressive education In the companion book to this one The Equipping Church Somewhere Between Fundamentalism and Fluff I explain the biblical model for the local church and how to build such a church Recollections of Windsor Prison; containing sketches of its history and discipline; with ... strictures and ... reflections John REYNOLDS (of Boston, Mass.),1834 A Social History of Christian Origins Simon J. Gangel,Warren S. Benson,2002-03-05 A history of Christian education must not be confused with a record of the achievements of the Sunday School The discipline has advanced well beyond that stage and today's sophisticated students fully understand that no proper concept of the history and philosophy of Christian education can be gained without seeing all the ramifications implications and influences that have affected it from pre Christian times to the present So Drs Gangel and Benson have written this book a historical flow of philosophical thought from a Christian point of view Its focus is cultural biographical discussing each philosophy in its particular socio historical setting and giving special attention to significant individuals The format is chronological beginning with education in biblical times working upward through history to arrive at the present and beyond raising questions and issues for the future Alfred Loisy and the Making of History of Religions Annelies Lannoy,2020-08-10 This monograph studies the professionalization of History of religions as an academic discipline in late 19th and early 20th century France and Europe Its common thread is the work of the French Modernist priest and later Professor of History of religions at the Coll ge de France Alfred Loisy 1857 1940 who participated in many of the most topical debates among French and international historians of religions Unlike his well studied Modernist theology Loisy s writings on comparative religion and his rich interactions with famous scholars like F Cumont M Mauss or J G Frazer remain largely unknown This monograph is the first to paint a comprehensive picture of his career as a historian of religions before and after his excommunication in 1908 Through a contextual analysis of publications by Loisy and contemporaries and a large corpus of private correspondence it illuminates the scientification of the discipline between 1890 1920 and its deep entanglement with religion politics and society Particular attention is also given to the role of national and transnational scholarly networks and the way they controlled the theoretical and institutional frameworks for studying the history of religions The Divine Origin of Christianity Richard Salter Storrs,1884 The National Reform Movement, Its History and Principles David McAllister,1890
