Religion Through The Year:

Monthly Entries for the Spiritual but not Religious through the Year Mark G. Boyer, 2022-08-30 This is a book about spirituality for the spiritual but not religious Those who identify themselves as spiritual but not religious make up one quarter of the population in the United States This book provides 189 monthly entries based on the national and international celebrations that occur every month Each entry begins with the name of the occasion and the date when it is marked during the month A text from the Bible a US public law a presidential proclamation a United Nations declaration etc that illustrates the day is presented The text is followed by a reflection which gleans the spirituality from the text and provides historical background on the day being celebrated Journal meditation questions follow the reflection and a prayer concludes the entry This book is for the spiritual but not religious a practice of spirituality that does not regard organized religion as a valuable means to further interior spiritual growth A section of the introduction to the book explores who the spiritual but not religious are and presents the common themes that surface from research about them

Fifty Years of Religious Studies in Canada Harold Coward, 2014-11-07 In Canadian universities in the early 1960s no courses were offered on Hinduism Buddhism or Islam Only the study of Christianity was available usually in a theology program in a church college or seminary Today almost every university in North America has a religious studies department that offers courses on Western and Eastern religions as well as religion in general Harold Coward addresses this change in this memoir of his forty five year career in the development of religious studies as a new academic field in Canada He also addresses the shift from theology classes in seminaries to non sectarian religious studies faculties of arts and humanities the birth and growth of departments across Canada from the 1960s to the present the contribution of McMaster University to religious studies in Canada and Coward s Ph D experience there the Centre for Studies in Religion and Society at the University of Victoria and the future of religious studies as a truly interdisciplinary enterprise Coward s retrospective while not a history as such documents information from his varied experience and wide network of colleagues that is essential for a future formal history of the discipline His story is both personally engaging and richly informative about the development of the field
