The Question of Theological Truth, 2012-01-01 In today's world the boundaries within which Christian theologians operate are becoming ever more permeable and Christian theology is increasingly influenced and challenged by multiple outside factors In Western Europe two such factors stand out in particular the so called turn to religion in continental philosophy and religious diversity Theologians working with contemporary continental philosophers and theologians engaging the multireligious world tend to work quite separately from one another The aim of the present book is therefore to initiate a conversation between these two groups of theologians The question of truth was chosen because it is both a key issue in contemporary philosophical debates in the continental and analytic traditions and one that arises in complex and problematic ways in the praxis of and theoretical reflection on interreligious dialogue Some of the pressing questions that are addressed by the contributors to this volume are What is truth What is theological truth How does the issue of truth arise from interreligious encounter To what extent can or should the nature of truth be discussed explicitly during interreligious dialogue Or should the question of truth be rather postponed in the interest of successful interreligious encounter Is there a hermeneutical concept of truth and if so how can it be of help for theological reflection on the question of truth and on the role and place of truth in the context of dialogue between religions The Truth of Religion Rudolf Eucken,1913 Social

Domains of Truth Lambert Zuidervaart,2023-03-10 Truth is in trouble In response this book presents a new conception of truth It recognizes that prominent philosophers have questioned whether the idea of truth is important Some have asked why we even need it Their questions reinforce broader trends in Western society where many wonder whether or why we should pursue truth Indeed some pundits say we have become a post truth society Yet there are good reasons not to embrace the cultural Zeitgeist or go with the philosophical flow reasons to regard truth as a substantive and socially significant idea This book explains why First it argues that propositional truth is only one kind of truth an important kind but not all important Then it shows how propositional truth belongs to the more comprehensive process of truth as a whole This process is a dynamic correlation between human fidelity to societal principles and a life giving disclosure of society The correlation comes to expression in distinct social domains of truth where either propositional or nonpropositional truth is primary The final chapters lay out five such domains science politics art religion and philosophy Anyone who cares about the future of truth in society will want to read this pathbreaking book Science, Truth, Religion and Ethics as Foundations of a Rational Philosophy of Life Harry Mann Gordin,1924 Demonstration of the Truth of the Christian Religion Alexander Keith,1838
