They mounted massive campaigns to make books cheap and plentiful by turning them into modern mass produced consumer goods Nord demonstrates how religious publishers learned to work against the flow of ordinary commerce They believed that reading was too important to be left to the market revolution so they turned the market on its head seeking to deliver their product to everyone regardless of ability or even desire to buy Wedding modern technology and national organization to a traditional faith in reading these publishing societies imagined and then invented mass media in America Catholics in America James T.
