Religion In Essence Manifestation Volume 2:

Dionysus, Christ, and the Death of God, Volume 2 Giuseppe Fornari, 2020-09-01 This magisterial reflection on the history and destiny of the West compares Greco Roman civilization and the Judeo Christian tradition in order to understand what both unites and divides them Mediation understood as a collective symbolic experience gives society unity and meaning putting human beings in contact with a universal object known as the world or reality But unity has a price the very force that enables peaceful coexistence also makes us prone to conflict As a result in order to find a common point of convergence of at one ment someone must be sacrificed Sacrifice then is the historical pillar of mediation It was endorsed in a cosmic religious sense in antiquity and rejected for ethical reasons in modernity where the Judeo Christian tradition plays an intermediate role in condemning sacrificial violence as such while accepting sacrifice as a voluntary act offered to save other human beings Today as we face the collapse of all shared mediations this intermediating solution offers a way out of our moral and cultural plight

Volume 3 of the Collected Works of Marie-Louise von Franz: Archetypal Symbols in Fairytales Marie-Louise von Franz, 2022-02-28 The Collected Works of Marie Louise von Franz is a 28 volume Magnum Opus from one of the leading minds in Jungian Psychology Volume 3 turns to the Maiden s Quest within fairytales The maiden heroine navigates a complicated maze of inner and outer relationships as she builds a bridge to the unconscious The heroine contends with the animus in many forms like a devouring and incestuous father demonic groom the beautiful prince an androgenous mother a cold dark tower and through conflict with the evil stepmother Dangers and pitfalls await her as the conscious feminine strives to make connections with the unconscious masculine The maiden is the undeveloped feminine and the promised fruit of her struggle with the animus is the coniunctio Volume 3 is a masterwork of cross cultural scholarship penetrating psychological insight and a strikingly illuminating treatise With her usual perspicacity and thoroughness von Franz gathers countless fairytale motifs revealing a myriad of facets to the maiden s quest

The Re-Enchantment of the West, Vol 2 Christopher Partridge, 2006-04-20 The Re Enchantment of the West challenges those theories that predict widespread secularization beyond traditional institutional religiosity Spiritualities are emerging that are not only quite different from the those forms of religion that are in decline but are often defined over against them and articulated and passed on in ways quite different from those of traditional religion In particular it is argued that such contemporary Western spirituality is fed by a constantly replenished reservoir of ideas practices and methodologies which is here termed occulture Moreover such occultural ideas both feed into and are resourced by popular culture Indeed popular occulture is a key feature of the re enchantment of the West Demonstrating the significance and ubiquity of these ideas this book examines for example healthcare and nursing contemporary environmentalism psychedelia and drug use the Internet and cyberspirituality belief in UFOs and extraterrestrial life demonology and the contemporary fascination with the figure of Satan the heavy metal subculture popular apocalypticism and millennial violence of the wide variety of themes covered by Husserl's phenomenology and later developed by Heidegger Merleau Ponty and others in different possible directions the present work attempts to indicate the few features of the method that derives from Edmund Husserl's basic themes of the phenomenological movement and its methodology Barua explores the manner in which this method has been applied to the study of art and religion by other phenomenologists and accordingly introduces the problem of this profound bulk namely the phenomenological approach to religion mostly in their terms

Religion in Late Modernity Robert Cummings Neville, 2012-02-01 Religion in Late Modernity runs against the grain of common suppositions of contemporary theology and philosophy of religion Against the common supposition that basic religious terms have no real reference but are mere functions of human need the book presents a pragmatic theory of religious symbolism in terms of which the cognitive engagement of the Ultimate is of a piece with the cognitive engagement of nature and persons Throughout this discussion Neville develops a late modern conception of God that is defensible in a global theological public Against the common supposition that religion is on the retreat in late modernity except in fundamentalist forms the author argues that religion in our time is a stimulus to religiously oriented scholarship a civilizing force among world societies a foundation for obligation in politics a source for healthy social experimentation and the most important mover of soul Against the common supposition that religious thinking or theology is confessional and inevitably biased in favor of the thinker's community Neville argues for the public character of theology the need for history and phenomenology of religion in philosophy of religion and the possibility of objectivity through the contextualization of philosophy contrary to the fashionable claims of neo pragmatism This vigorous analysis and program for religious thinking is straightforwardly pro late modern and anti postmodern a rousing gallop along the high road around modernism

Volume 1 of the Collected Works of Marie-Louise von Franz Marie-Louise von Franz, 2021-09-20 This newly translated volume of the Collected Works of Marie Louise von Franz one of the most renowned authorities on fairytales presents a systematic and wide ranging approach Von Franz amplifies a variety of fairytale motifs to show that the magical realm is alien to the profane and mundane realm of ordinary daily life She was one of Analytical Psychology's most original thinkers and here she presents a lucid concise exploration of the archetypal symbols found in fairytales Fairytales like myths provide a cultural and societal backdrop that helps the human imagination narrate the meaning of life's events The remarkable similarities in fairytale motifs across different lands and cultures inspired many scholars to search for the original homeland of fairytales While peregrinations of fairytale motifs occur the common root of fairytales is more archetypal than geographic A striking feature of fairytales is that a sense of space time and causality is absent This situates them in a magical realm a land of the soul where the most interesting things happen in the center of places like Heaven mountains lakes and wells At the age of eighteen Marie Louise von Franz was invited to meet Carl Gustav Jung at Bollingen Tower She immediately recognized that there exist two levels of reality one outer and the other inner Within months she had enrolled at the University of Zurich and began attending Jung's lectures at the Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule or the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology Less than a decade after meeting Jung von Franz had completed her doctorate in classical philology and begun seeing her first analysands She was a prolific writer a dedicated teacher and lecturer and was possessed of a far reaching and often non discriminating Eros that accepted everyone seeking help Alfred Ribi MD in Fountain of the Love of Wisdom Chiron 2006 Ninian Smart on World Religions John J. Shepherd, 2017-11-30 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster

Naturalism and Protectionism in the Study of Religions Juraj Franek, 2020-02-06 How should we study religion Must we be religious ourselves to truly understand it Do we study religion to advance our knowledge or should the study of religions help to reintroduce the sacred into our increasingly secularized world Juraj Franek argues that the study of religion has long been split into two competing paradigms reductive naturalist and non reductive protectionist While the naturalistic approach seems to run the risk of explaining religious phenomena away the protectionist approach appears to risk falling short of the methodological standards of modern science Franek uses primary source material from Greek and Latin sources to show that both competing paradigms are traceable to Presocratic philosophy and early Christian literature He presents the idea that naturalists are distant heirs not only of the French Enlightenment but also of the Ionian one Likewise he argues that protectionists owe much of their arguments and strategies not only to Luther and the Reformation but to the earliest Christian literature This book analyses the conflict between reductive and non reductive approach in the modern study of religions and positions the Cognitive Science of Religion against a background of previous theories ancient and modern to demonstrate its importance for the revindication of the naturalist paradigm

Man, Meaning, and Mystery Hjelde, 2018-11-13 At an international symposium in Norway the 100 years anniversary of the academic study of religion was celebrated This volume contains the papers that were presented at this conference A major part of the papers deals with the situation of this discipline around the turn of the last century focussing especially on the work of the Dutch Norwegian scholar W Brede Kristensen 1867 1953 and on other founding fathers in the Scandinavian countries Other contributors discuss methodological questions relating to the idea of a phenomenology of religion Furthermore an attempt is made to compare the study of religion at the end of the twentieth century with the situation a hundred years earlier and to trace some of the lines of development The book includes a bibliography of publications by W Brede Kristensen God and Globalization: Volume 3 Max L. Stackhouse, Peter J. Paris, Diane Burdette Obenchain, 2001-12-01 These volumes examine both the promise and the threat of globalization using the tools of theological ethics to understand and evaluate the social contexts of life at the deepest moral and spiritual levels

Stephens, 2023-02-10 This book explores the motif of the spiritual journey and its evolution in Western literature A spiritual journey can be broadly defined as a search for the divine Such a search can occur either internally as a psychological process or in some cases may involve an actual geographic journey Spiritual journeys can be conducted by individuals or groups In exploring this topic various kinds of texts will be reviewed including autobiographies novels and short stories as well as myths folktales and mystical writings The book classifies spiritual journey narratives into four categories theological journeys mystical journeys mythopoetic journeys and allegorical journeys Representative texts have been selected in the history of Western religious literature that illustrate the basic features of each of these four categories House of Disciples Michael

H. Crosby, 2004-01-28 The household was the basic unit of the early church it also constituted the basic unit of political economy until the Industrial Revolution This richly detailed work uses the notion of house as a unifying theme establishing the identity and concerns of the early Christian churches What emphases did Matthew's gospel have for that audience which Crosby establishes was urban based and prosperous and what does it mean to First World Christians today Through an in depth exploration of Matthew's gospel and its socioeconomic milieu House of Disciples shows how the world of the early church continues to challenge Christians nineteen hundred years later It makes a unique contribution to both New Testament scholarship and the practice of a contemporary spirituality To the Things Themselves Arvind

Sharma,2015-08-31 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline The Illustrated Guide to World Religions Michael David Coogan,1998 Graced with rich illustrations and written by a team of eminent scholars this book presents a wealth of information on faiths around the world Each chapter in this volume examines one of seven major world religions from Judaism to Christianity and from Islam to Buddhism Veda and Torah Barbara A. Holdrege,2012-02-01 Enlarges our understanding of the term scripture through a comparative study of Veda and Torah Ultimates Robert Cummings Neville,2013-09-17 Finalist for the 2015 John N Findlay Award in Metaphysics presented by the Metaphysical Society of America Robert Cummings Neville offers a new theology of the ultimate and a new theory of religion to back it up The first volume in a trilogy this book and companion volumes treating existence and religion advance a systematic philosophical theology to address first order questions found in the array of Axial Age religions Questions generally arising in the major religious traditions are interrogated with a dialectic of philosophical approaches This volume begins the project with a consideration of ultimacy defined philosophically and illustrated in a wide range of traditions To the question of how or why there is something rather than nothing Neville answers with an elaborate hypothesis about the ontological act of creation that creates all determinate things as related to but different from one another The result is the claim that there are five ultimates the ontological act the form of determinate things the components of determinate things the existential location of determinate things relative to one another and the value identity of ultimate things giving rise to five universal religious problematics of ultimacy respectively the question of existence the ground of obligation the quest for wholeness engaging others and finding meaning Neville analyzes what can and cannot be known about each of these ultimates Readers will find Neville's theory of religion and philosophy a bold one running counter to dominant trends while richly informed by a long and fruitful engagement with theology philosophy and religion East and West Theoretical-Practical Theology, Vol. 2: Faith in the Triune God Petrus Van Mastricht,2019-04-15 Petrus van Mastricht's Theoretical and Practical Theology presents one of the most comprehensive methods of treating Christian doctrine In it Mastricht treats every theological topic according to a four part approach exegetical dogmatic elenctic and practical As a body of divinity it combines a rigorous scholastic treatment of doctrine with the pastoral aim of preparing people to live for God through Christ Students and pastors will find it a valuable model for moving from the text of Scripture to doctrinal formulation that will edify the people of God Volume 2 Faith in the Triune God delivers a thorough treatment of the doctrine of God Mastricht begins his consideration of theology proper with a substantial chapter on saving faith reminding readers that contemplating God apart from true faith will fall short of the salvation of their soul Mastricht then discusses the subject of God in three main divisions First he treats the existence of God and our knowledge of him Second he discusses the divine essence as it is revealed through the names and attributes of God Third Mastricht carefully details the Trinitarian nature of the one God who subsists in three persons
