Religious Conversion And Personal Identity:

Religious Conversion and Personal Identity Virgil Bailey Gillespie, 1979 Religious Conversion and Personal Identity Wilfrid James Jolicoeur, 1991 Religious Conversion and Identity Massimo Leone, 2004-06-01 The way in which people change and represent their spiritual evolution is often determined by recurrent language structures Through the analysis of ancient and modern stories and their words and images this book describes the nature of conversion through explorations of the encounter with the religious message the discomfort of spiritual uncertainty the loss of personal and social identity the anxiety of destabilization the reconstitution of the self and the discovery of a new language of the soul

Understanding Religious Conversion Dong Young Kim, 2012-07-20 Understanding Religious Conversion begins with emphasis on the value of respecting religious theological interpretations of conversion while coordinating social scientific studies of how personal social and cultural issues are relevant to the human transformational process It encourages us to bring together the perspectives of psychology sociology anthropology and religious studies into critical and mutually informing conversation for establishing a richer and more accurate perception of the complex phenomenon of religious conversion The case of St Augustine s conversion experience superbly illustrates the complicated and multidimensional process of religious change By critically extending the contributions of the literature within Lewis Rambo s interdisciplinary framework Dong Young Kim presents a more integrated picture of how personal social cultural and religious theological components interact with one another in the process of Augustine s conversion In doing so he has struggled with how to relocate more effectively and practically the conversion narrative of Augustine within the context of pastoral care and ministry and the field of the academy in order to facilitate a better understanding of the conversion stories of the church members as well as to enhance the experiences of religious conversion within the Christian community Complex

Identities in a Shifting World Pamela Couture, Robert Mager, Pamela McCarroll, Natalie Wigg-Stevenson, 2015 Clear and well defined identities are hard to sustain in a rapidly shifting world Peoples goods and cultures are on the move The internet and other technologies increase the amount the speed and the intensity of cultural exchanges Individuals organizations and nations develop complex identities out of many traditions different ideals various ways of life and many models of organization Religious traditions both collide and interact with spiritual journeys crossing religious boundaries In this book more than 20 contributors from different backgrounds and academic disciplines offer an array of practical theological perspectives to help understand these complex identities and negotiate this shifting world Series International Practical Theology Vol 17 Subject Religious Studies Cultural Studies Identity Crises and Indigenous Religious Traditions Elijah Obinna, 2017-02-10 This book highlights the complex identity crises among many Christians as they negotiate their new identities religious ideas and convictions as both Christians and members of Nigerian African societies of indigenous religious traditions and identities Through an interdisciplinary interpretation of religious practices and educational issues in teaching and ritual training the author provides tools to help analyse empirical cases These include the negotiation processes among Christians with focus on the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria PCN and members of the Ogo society within the Amasiri Afikpo North Local Government Area Ebonyi state in South eastern Nigeria Identifying the power dynamic identity role and influence of indigenous religions on Christians and the Ogo society this book reveals the limited interactions between many Christians and members of the Ogo society Questions explored include what makes the Ogo society an integral part of the socio religious life of Amasiri and what powers and identity does it confer on the initiates how is the PCN within Amasiri responding to the Ogo society through its religious practices such as baptism confirmation local auxiliary ministries and organisational structure and how does the understanding and application of conversion within the PCN impact on its members response to the Ogo society Demonstrating how complex religious identities and practices of Nigerian African Christians can balance mission influenced Christianity with indigenous religious traditions and identities this book recognises the importance of appropriating the powers of indigenous cultures ingenuity and creativity in the construction and preservation of community identities As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of Christian theology indigenous religious practice and African lived religion Rethinking Religious Conversion Jack Williams, 2024-10-17 Drawing on methods from religious studies philosophy and cognitive science Jack Williams develops a unique and interdisciplinary approach to the study of religious conversion This is the first major philosophical study of conversion to treat the phenomenon as a long term process shaped by the convert s embodiment and immersion in a linguistic social and ritual community Williams analysis of the conversion process is rooted in a view of cognition as both embodied and affective and is informed by the latest research in phenomenology affect theory neuroscience and enactivist cognitive science In conversation with diverse conversion narratives he advances a theory of conversion that is not restricted to a modern Western context but that can be applied to experiences of conversion across global history and culture Rethinking Religious Conversion displays an original approach to the philosophical study of diverse religious practices By bringing together a diverse array of contemporary and historical scholarship it revitalizes the study of conversion for both philosophy and religious studies Second Chances As Religious Conversion Christopher Lamb, M. Darroll Bryant, 1999-10-01 Conversion has been an important issue for most of the universal religions those usually associated with a founder such as Christianity Buddhism Islam and Judaism which have a mission to spread their message Other religions have been less concerned with conversion except in so far as it has been a negative force for them to confront This study explores how conversion has been understood by different religions during different eras and includes a survey of the textual legal ritual historic and experiential dimensions of the phenomenon of conversion

Religious Harmony Michael Pye, Edith Franke, Alef Theria Wasim, Abdurrahman Mas'ud, 2012-02-13 It is crucial today to understand how religions can exist harmoniously in a shared environment whether local or global A reasoned approach to this question was sought by participants at a stimulating conference of the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR in a predominantly Muslim country Indonesia Themes treated include the relation between theoretical approaches and religious viewpoints practical problems and conflict resolution at the local level and religious education with special reference to the role of Muslim schools pesantren in Indonesia

Journeys to New Life, Identity, and Community Peter Kwang-Hee Yun, 2021-09-06 In Journeys to New Life Identity and Community Dr Peter K Yun explores the complexities of identity for Muslim background believers MBBs in Bangladesh Encompassing scholarship surrounding contextualization and the insider movement as well as extensive personal interviews with Bangladeshi MBBs this book offers insight into the lived reality of following Christ within a Muslim context Yun identifies three primary approaches to negotiating social identity within MBB communities and examines the potential strengths and weaknesses of each as well as the implications for believers navigating the gospel's call to be within culture and simultaneously beyond it. This book offers careful anthropological observation while speaking to missiological concerns and offering practical suggestions for local believers, practitioners and future scholars. It is a powerful resource for anyone passionate about God's work in Muslim contexts.

An Ethos of Blackness Vivaldi Jean-Marie, 2023-09-26 Rastafari is an Afrocentric social and religious movement that emerged among Afro-Jamaican communities in the 1930s and has many adherents in the Caribbean and worldwide today. This book is a groundbreaking account of Rastafari demonstrating that it provides a normative conception of Blackness for people of African descent that resists Eurocentric and colonial ideas. Vivaldi Jean-Marie examines Rastafari's core beliefs and practices arguing that they constitute a distinctively Black system of norms and values at once an ethos and a cosmology. He traces Rastafari's origins in enslaved people's strategies of resistance, Jamaican Revivalism and Garveyism showing how it incorporates ancestral religious traditions and emancipatory politics. An Ethos of Blackness draws out the significance of practices such as avoiding technological exploitation of natural artifacts and the belief in living in harmony with the natural order. Jean-Marie considers Rastafari's theology exploring its reinterpretation of biblical scriptures and its foundations in the rejection of Christianity's Eurocentrism and racism. However, he insists before Rastafari can fulfill its promise of liberation for people of African descent it must confront its failure to include women and redress sexism. Through rigorous and sensitive reflections on Rastafari culture and cosmology, this book offers deeply original insights into the Black theological imagination.

Conversion To Islam Ali Kose, 2012-11-12 First Published in 1996 Religious conversion is an immensely complex phenomenon. The term comprises such diverse experiences as increased devotion within the same religious structure, a shift from no religious commitment to a devout religious life or a change from one religion to another. This study focuses on the conversion experiences of 70 native British converts to Islam. It addresses the following questions: why do people become Muslims? what are the backgrounds of the converts? what are the patterns of conversion to Islam and how far are existing conversion theories applicable to the group under study? The full range of social and psychological forces at work in the conversion experience are examined with reference to the converts whose whole life history, childhood, adolescent experiences and the conversion process itself were examined in detail. Chapter 1 deals with the history and present situation of both life-long Muslims and converts living in Britain. Chapter 2 focuses on childhood and adolescent experiences reviewing the psychological and sociological theories of conversion and attempts to find out how far these theories are applicable to the converts to Islam. Chapter 3 examines the backgrounds of the converts regarding religion. It then analyzes the immediate antecedents of the conversion as well as the conversion process focussing on conversion motifs. A conversion process model is also developed in this chapter. Chapter 4 looks at the post-conversion period to find out what changes the converts underwent. It also examines the relationship between converts, their parents and society at large. Chapter 5 reveals the findings on conversion through Sufism. Comparisons between conversion through Sufism and through new religious movements in the West are also made This study should be an important addition to the study of religious conversion as conversion to Islam either from outside or within Islam is widely neglected in the literature Identity Crisis Sarah Yoon, 2015-03-17 This book provides a general overview of the identity crises BMB believer from Muslim background women in Jordan go through and reasons for it Traditionally persecution from family community or the secret police is thought to leave these women with newfound faith However even before persecution exposes their new faith many initial believers give up seeking the new truth and return to their previous phase due to a serious identity crisis This phenomenon is found to occur particularly often among female BMBs because of their unique circumstances in the religious and sociocultural contexts of Jordan Through an examination of BMB women's narratives this book explores how Muslim women form their identities and what they experience in the process of conversion

Daniel Defoe and the Representation of Personal Identity Christopher Borsing, 2016-08-25 The concept of a personal identity was a contentious issue in the early eighteenth century John Locke's philosophical discussion of personal identity in An Essay Concerning Human Understanding fostered a public debate upon the status of an immortal Christian soul This book argues that Defoe like many of this age had religious difficulties with Locke's empiricist analysis of human identity In particular it examines how Defoe explores competitive individualism as a social threat while also demonstrating the literary and psychological fiction of any concept of a separated lone identity This foreshadows Michel Foucault's assertion that the idea of man is a recent invention a figure not yet two centuries old a new wrinkle in our knowledge The monograph's engagement with Defoe's destabilization of any definition or image of personal identity across a wide range of genres including satire political propaganda history conduct literature travel narrative spiritual autobiography piracy and history economic and scientific literature rogue biography scandalous and secret history dystopian documentary science fiction and apparition narrative is an important and original contribution to the literary and cultural understanding of the early eighteenth century as it interrogates and challenges modern presumptions of individual identity
